E. M. ALLISON, PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE.

SENATE.
State Senator E. M. Allison of Ogden, who was perhaps the most active man in the floor of the senate two years ago, was last night unanimously chosen president of the senate, in the caucus meeting. All the Republican senators were in attendance at the session and the business before them was dispatched without any friction whatever. The caucus was held in the civil court room of the city and county building and was called to order by Senator Roy Sherman. The officers of the senate were then elected, resulting in Senator E. M. Allison being made president of the senate and Senator George W. Lawrence being made secretary. A committee on order of business was then selected, consisting of Senators Sherman, Gardner and Johnson. The report, which was adopted, was submitted by Senator Sherman, and provided for the election of 16 officers.

When the business of the evening reached the nominating of the president of the senate, Senator Love promptly secured the floor and presented the name of Senator Allison. Senator Love departed from his brief eulogy of his nominee long enough to explain that some of his friends had tried to work up a boom for him for the place, but he begged leave to withdraw, declaring that he would not compete with Senator Allison for the honor. The latter's nomination was seconded by Senator Love and then made unanimous by acclamation.

For enrolling clerk the following were placed in nomination: Miss Carolyn B. Williams of Salt Lake, by Senator Sherman; John A. McAllister of Cache, by Senator Larson; F. J. Henderson of Ogden by Senator Allison; and Mr. Blehl of Salt Lake was named by Senator Lawrence. The position went to Mr. Henderson.

Miss Priscilla Smith was nominated for mailing clerk, by Senator Williams, and she secured the position over G. M. Beebe of Plute, who was named by Senator Johnson.

The successful candidates for the position of committee clerks were, Col. E. W. Tatlock of Salt Lake, Walter L. Wilding of Salt Lake and George H. Crosby of Sevier. The defeated nominees were Miss Alice C. Johnson of Salt Lake, C. E. Hawkins of Utah county; L. C. Johnson of Salt Lake; Francis M. Lyman Jr., of Salt Lake; Miss Ethel Olson of Salt Lake and Miss Theodora Harris of Salt Lake.

Ex-Sheriff Charles E. Layne, of Weber, was elected to be the sergeant-at-arms. His opponents were W. L. White Sr., of Boxelder, and Samuel H. B. Smith of Salt Lake.

The office of chaplain was given to Bishop Sproul of Washington county. Miss Priscilla Smith was nominated by Senator Williams, but her name was almost directly withdrawn.

Thomas B. Jones of Spanish Fork and G. M. Beebe of Plute county will be the messengers of the senate. The defeated aspirants were: Samuel Davis of Spanish Fork, and Ben Haddock, Alfred J. Rider and J. T. Beckstead of Salt Lake.

The two candidates for door-keeper were W. L. White of Boxelder and Bluthan Eldredge of Salt Lake. Mr. White was selected.

Miss Carrie Keate of Salt Lake was elected stenographer over Miss Theodora Harris of Salt Lake, and Miss Georgia B. Marley, also of this city.

Hans Christopher-son was placed in nomination by Senator Lawrence for the position of watchman. There being no competitors, Mr. Christopher-son was elected unanimously.

THOMAS HULL, SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE.

HOUSE.
There was no all night session last night, at the Republican caucus for the speakership of the house, although it was a hot one while it lasted. In caucuses, like in horse races, the favorites do not always win and very frequently a dark horse carries off the prize. So it was last night when Thomas Hull of Salt Lake county found he had almost a walkover and captured the nomination as speaker of the house, and he didn't have to strain himself to get there, either. He won on the first ballot and the vote stood: Thomas Hull of Salt Lake county, 20; W. H. Barrett of Beaver county, 10; and Dr. A. S. Condon of Weber county, 8. Dr. A. S. Condon of Weber county, who had almost a sure thing. Mr. Hull, who had no headquarters and was apparently last in the race, came out first.

The caucus was called to order in Judge Morse's court room by State Chairman Anderson, at 8 o'clock. The roll call showed all the Republican members but Roberts of Cache and Lee of Carbon present. Alma Molyneux of Grand was elected chairman, and Willard D. Deane of Salt Lake secretary.

Mr. Deane of Salt Lake with his accustomed alacrity, got on his feet first and placed in nomination Thomas Hull of Salt Lake for speaker; Mr. McFarland of Weber followed by nominating Dr. A. S. Condon of Weber, and Mr. Hamlin of Salt Lake, who presented the name of W. H. Barrett of Beaver. There were seconding speeches galore and then a ballot was taken with the result as above set forth.

While the balloting was in progress the door was opened and some one from the outside shouted, "Hurrah for Allison, the president of the senate." When the result of the ballot was announced, Willard Deane of Salt Lake, who had presented the name of Mr. Hull, moved that the senate caucus be informed of the action taken. This brought Doctor Condon to his feet, who protested in an earnest manner against what appeared to be a surreptitious vote. The purchase of some one in shouting the election of Mr. Allison in the floor and spread rapidly to the top, where it was difficult for the frenzied to reach it. As the building adjoined the Read house there was much excitement and for a time it was feared that the flames would reach the top. Coolness on the part of the clerks and employees prevented a panic.

G. W. Taylor to be Extradited.
Sacramento, Cal., Jan. 10.—Gov. Pardee has issued extradition papers giving Joseph H. Ray, an officer, the power to take George W. Taylor, under arrest at Los Angeles, to Chicago. Taylor is wanted at Joliet on a charge of operating a confidence game.

Big Windstorm Near Laramie.
Laramie, Wyo., Jan. 10.—Reports are coming in to the effect that the windstorm that raged on the Laramie plains the past few days did considerable damage, fences being blown down, haystacks scattered and barns and sheds wrecked.

Freeland Not Going to London.
New York, Jan. 10.—The report that H. H. Freeland, president of the Metropolitan Street Railway company, is to go to London to manage the Yerkes underground railroad system is denied by Mr. Yerkes, who said, in speaking of the matter: "Mr. Freeland has never received any such offer. He must be pretty well satisfied where he is."

CLIFFORD IS HERE.
May Be Matched to Box with Billy Armstrong the Lightweight.
Jack Clifford, champion lightweight of the intermontain country, the boy who won the hearts of Salt Lake ring followers by giving to Jack Wade, the talking little fighter, a sound thrashing, is home again. He arrived in the city last evening and was at once told of Billy Armstrong's presence with the Jeff-Billy combination. Jack said he was willing to meet Armstrong at any time and would like to arrange a match.

Clifford left here he has defeated Wade a second time, and cleaned up all the lightweights in Montana.

"Story"—"Spider" Kelly.
"Spider" Kelly, one of Sharkey's chief lieutenants in his fight with Jeffries, tells this story of the battle: "I thought Tom was dead. We laid him out on a couch and I placed my ear over his heart, and for an hour I could not hear it beat. I saw the jail doors close behind me, and for a while I thought we would surely have endless trouble ahead."

"We stuck penknives under Sharkey's finger nails and administered heroic hypodermic injection of balladonna before he rallied, and finally came back to life again. I tell you, all hands rejoiced. We little thought then of charging that we had been robbed, but next morning the tip was given out, and Sharkey paraded forth as big as life with the bluff that the fight had been stolen from him."

VON HOLLEBEN'S RECALL

British Satisfaction Over it Not Concealed.

New York, Jan. 10.—British satisfaction over Dr. von Holleben's recall is not concealed, according to a Tribune dispatch from London. The German ambassador's alleged attempt to do discredit to Lord Pauncefoot at Washington was bitterly resented in official circles, and public opinion, whether justly or unjustly, inclined to the view that the recall was a necessary measure. The Birmingham Post, for example, charges Germany with adopting hostile measures against Castro, while the negotiation for arbitration was in progress, and with competing with the Panama canal with a view to challenging the Monroe doctrine in a most aggressive way.

SUICIDES IN EUROPE.

Statistics Show that Vienna Holds First Place.

Vienna, Jan. 9.—Statistics for 1902 demonstrate that Vienna continues in the front rank of the European capitals in the number of suicides. Last year's record shows that there were 433 deaths from suicide and 461 attempts at self-destruction. The number of women suicides increased from 37 to 124. Most of the deaths are attributed to love and hunger. The former was responsible for 169 suicides or attempts at self-destruction, poverty for 158, insanity 127, domestic troubles 72, and financial losses for 15. One hundred and sixty persons hanged themselves, 148 used firearms in taking their lives, 69 drowned themselves, and 35 took poison.

Vidal's Sentence Commuted.

Nice, Jan. 9.—The sentence of death passed on Henri Vidal, Nov. 5, 1902, has been commuted to penal servitude for life. Henri Vidal confessed to Nice to the extraordinary wanton murder of two women and attempts to assassinate various others. It was for these murders that he was sentenced to death, but he is believed to have been the author of a series of crimes on the Riviera which made him one of the notorious murderers of France.

President Tucker on "The College."

Chicago, Jan. 10.—"In the colleges less is being said at this time about the state and the church and more about higher education," said W. J. Tucker, president of Dartmouth college, in responding to the toast "The College" at the banquet of the Dartmouth Alumni association of Chicago at the University club last night.

"Modern education tends to teach men to deal with things and we are getting a class of men who are great masters of things, but we are scant of men who are the masters of men."

Fire in Chattanooga.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Jan. 10.—Fire that started in a four story brick building occupied by the Chattanooga Burgundy company early today, caused a loss of $20,000. The fire originated from a stove in a bowling alley on the ground

SOME GOOD TALK ON BOWLING.

Father of the Game Tells of the Origin in 1870.

CURTIS IS STILL PLAYING.

Although He is Seventy-Five Years Old—Delights in Taking Whirl At the Pins.

Thomas Curtis of Brooklyn enjoys the rare distinction of being the "father of bowling." He is 75 years of age, and delights in taking a whirl at the pins even in his advanced age. Speaking of his long career in bowling, Mr. Curtis said:

"I first took up the game of tenpins in the summer of 1870 when on the road as a commercial traveler. I took a week's vacation at Put-in-Bay, on Lake Erie, stopping at the Beeby house with some friends from Cincinnati. We found a bowling alley, which was rather a crude affair, three feet wide and 50 feet long. The pins were eighteen inches high and the balls all sizes, from 20 to 30 inches in circumference, without any holes for the fingers. You placed the ball in the palm of the hand, rolling it slowly. If it remained on the alley and reached the head pin, the ten pins would go down round. The difficulty was to keep the ball on the alley the whole 50 feet. At least five times out of ten it would roll in the gutter."

"Nothing was said about strikes or spares. You were allowed to roll 30 balls to a game, the pins being set up after each ball, the number of pins knocked down to count. So, if you knocked down all the pins each time, you could make a total of 300. The deadwood was left on the alley and if a pin lay across the gutter and the corner pin was standing, you would roll the ball down the gutter instead of on the alley to make sure of it. It took 20 to 30 minutes for two persons to roll a game, so it was not very profitable for the alley owner."

"I think it was about 1875 or 1876 that the first rules for bowling were adopted. They were called the National Bowling rules, which were amended in 1880. Ten-man team matches were most popular at that time. Grote, in Fourteenth street was the largest manufacturer and he offered a prize for a tournament. The late W. J. Pell materially assisted in getting up this, the first ten-man team tournament. It was rolled on different alleys."

"The progress of the game during the past ten years is well known to all bowlers. The rise of the Amateur Bowling union, in 1892, and its subsequent demise, owing to its exclusiveness and its attempts to declare bowlers professional, came quickly. Then followed the organization of the American Bowling congress, of which I was the first president and which has brought the sport up to its present position as the greatest of all winter pastimes. I flatter myself that I have played an important part in the evolution of the game, and am certain that it will continue its hold on the people, as it cannot be excelled as a promoter of social intercourse and as a health giving pastime."

RACES AT OAKLAND.

Big Surprise Furnished by Action A 40 to 1 Shot.

San Francisco, Jan. 9.—Fog obscured the view of two of the races at Oakland today and the weather was hazy during the greater part of the afternoon. There were several surprises, among them being the victories of Action, a 40 to 1 shot; Ravino, who was quoted at 15 to 1, and Urcin, a 12 to 1 chance. Leader was supposed to be the best for the 3-year-old race and was a pronounced favorite. Ravino gave him a miserable ride and he finished third. Action, who had never shown anything here, led most of the way and won from Warte Nicht second. The stewards today reinstated Kid Deane, a trainer, and the horse Sun Elio. They were suspended owing to the running of Sun Elio at Ingleside, Walter Jennings sold Sir Hugh to D. S. Fountain, and Miss to Frank Farar. P. G. Lynch bought Ramesis from Green Morris for $500.

Summary:
First race, Futurity course, selling—Glendinning won, Prestano second, Ross of Hills third. Time—1:10.4.
Second race, one mile and 100 yards, selling—Ravino won, 10 to 1 second, Forte third. Time—1:47.4.
Third race, Futurity course, selling—Father Wentker won, Dollie Withoff second, Mike Murphy third. Time—1:10.4.
Fourth race, one mile, selling—Urcin won, Donami second, Nigrette third. Time—1:42.
Fifth race, six and a half furlongs, selling—Action won, Warte Nicht second. Leader third. Time—1:20.4.
Sixth race, one mile and 100 yards, selling—Beana won, Katie Walcott second, Glissandra third. Time—1:46.5.

PEACE COMMITTEE MEETS.

Cincinnati, Jan. 9.—All the members of the joint peace committee of the National and American baseball leagues are here today for the conference that begins this afternoon. The National members are at the St. Nicholas and the American members at the Grand hotel. They met separately during the forenoon with the owners and managers in their respective leagues, many of whom are present, as well as Presidents Harry Pulliam and Ban Johnson. From what could be learned of these preliminary meetings there will be a fight first on the scope of the conference, and if an agreement is reached, as to how far the conference shall go, then there will be contention as to what question will be taken up first.

The joint conference went into executive session at 2 p. m. Presidents Johnson and Pulliam were made the fourth members of each committee of the American and National leagues respectively.

BRIT AFTER "YOUNG CORBETT."

San Francisco, Jan. 9.—Jimmy Britt, the lightweight champion of the Pacific coast, states that "Young" Corbett will have to fight him or forfeit the championship. Britt will fight Corbett at 130 pounds, winner to take the entire purse.

THE GARDNERS, SULLIVANS, RYANS, AND THE SMITHS.

A flat sage has just compiled the number of Gardners, Sullivans, Ryans and Smiths who are representatives of the prize ring: The Gardners are Geo. Gardner, middleweight; Billy Gardner, lightweight; Jimmy Gardner, featherweight; Oscar Gardner, featherweight, and Eddie Gardner, featherweight. The Sullivans are Spike, Dave, Tommy and Twin Sullivan. The list of Ryans include Tommy Ryan, Billy Ryan of Syracuse and Billy Ryan of Chicago. Strangely enough the Smiths are few. Mysterious Billy is the only one of any consequence at the present day. George, Billy and Jimmy Gardner are all of the same family.

THE PUNCH FOR JEFF.

"Young Corbett" Tells Wiscare How to Knock Champion Out.
Tom Sharkey has been interviewed in the east lately and has given his opinion that the "body punch" is the only one with which to defeat Champion Jeffries. Others say that his jaw is weak, etc.

It was up to Young Corbett, however, to give the correct "punch." The Denver champion was asked at Hot Springs what punch would beat Jeffries and replied: "He is so big and strong that it is a hard matter to select what punch will beat him. I should judge, however, if there is a punch that will beat him it is the 'whisky punch.' That is the punch that has beat many of them, and might beat Jeff if it ever came to that stage."

Those present passed the bunch of roses to Corbett as having given the best solution of "What punch will beat Jeffries."

LUCAS SELECTS UMPIRE.

Spokane, Wash., June 9.—President Lucas of the Pacific Northwest Baseball league stated today that he had signed Mike Lynch for one of the umpires of the league for the coming season on condition that he can get his release from Minneapolis, as is expected. Lynch was formerly a right fielder for the Tacoma. It is rumored here that McCarthy will be named for the third umpire.

MUNROE FAILS TO LAND KNOCKOUT

He Was Unable to Dispose of Ike Hayes.

NEGRO WAS BADLY BEATEN.

Believed That Munroe Broke His Hand in the Second Round—Minor Sadly Needs Training.

(Special to the "News.")
Butte, Mont., Jan. 10.—Jack Munroe, the minor pugilist who recently was given a decision over Champion J. J. Jeffries in this city, was unable to dispose of Ike Hayes, colored heavy weight champion of Montana, in four rounds. The negro received terrible beating and was able to save himself only by clinging to the minor, the greater part of the last two rounds. Munroe, it is said, broke his hand in the second round after playing a fierce tattoo upon the negro's head. Manager Clark Ball announced at the conclusion of the bout that he had seen enough to convince him of Munroe's urgent need of training. Munroe, he said, has the punch but he needs schooling as to how and when to deliver it. Munroe can stand all kinds of punishment, as shown in his recent bout with Jeffries.
