

UNIVERSITY OF UTAH.

City .- Wm. A. Nelden of the Neldenudson Drug company, and a member of the city board of education, spoke fore the students during chapel hour on Wednesday. His subject was "Success in Business." He emphasized the statement that honesty of purpose is the great secret of success in any bus. INAL

The faculty committee on program for commencement week are Profs. Bennion, Babcock and Cummings. On hursday they met with the college tors to arrange for college classday Sercises.

Tomorrow evening Profs. Stewart and Allen will deliver their illustrated lec-ture before the M. I. A. of the Seventh bund.

Ex-County Recorder J. C. Jensen, now a member of the Wasatch Stake presidency, visited the university on Thursday

Supt. Wm. Allison of the Ogden city schools addressed the fourth year normals yesterday.

Manager Riser has arranged for a track meet with the University of Colorado to take place on the university campus on Saturday, May 23. On May 30 the team goes to Reno, Nev., to compete with the university of that state.

The university will take part in the big athletic track met of all the leading schools of the state on May 9.

Coach Holmes returned to school on Monday and took charge of the track team. Hr. Holmes has been quarantined, his family having had scarlet fe-

On Wednesday, Instructor Best On weahesday, instructor best ice and a subscription of the sector of th turned from Denver, where he went with Oganist McCilelan to take part in the solo. Instructor Best met his classes as usual on Thursday.

Today Prof. Marshall delivered the last of his series of lectures before the Utah County Teachers' at Provo.

On Wednesday the new vaulting poles for the track team arrived from New York.

State Supt. A. C. Nelson visited the university on Monday.

Last night Prof. Stewart addressed the Parents' club of the Irving school.

Supt. Ashton of the Salt Lake county schools gave the fourth year normals a talk on "School Discipline" last Tuesday.

The sophomores are arranging to give a class social some time in May,

At Zeta Gama last night Earl Thompson read a paper on the "Origin of the Standard Oil Company," Messrs Jones and Reese lead in a discussion of the income tax.

Mr. E. R. Morgan, B. S. M. E. '01, who has been working as topographer near Phoenix, Ariz., for the department of the interior, has been transferred to the department of agriculture. He will investigate irrigation conditions néar Hayes, Kan.

5

are studying Edmund Burke's speech in the British parliament, on Conciliation with the American colonies. SALT LAKE CITY SCHOOLS The teachers are all in very much of a quandary as to their summer plans, owing to the unsettled condition of the schools they can make no plans first on account of not knowing definitely the condition of their finances and second not being able to decide as to the time of their vacation.

The parliamentary club of the East Side High school was unable to hold its meeting on Wednesday, evening owing to the absence of one of the debaters.

Misa Ellerbeck sang for the eighth grade pupils at the Bryant on Wednes-day. The song was very much appreclated by all present.

Miss Barbara Hoffer of the Jackson. is thinking of spending her vacation on ranch in eastern Montana.

Miss Kate Reed of the Grant will go to her home in New Mexico.

Miss Cora, Clark of the Webster, eaves for Michigan to visit her parents as soon as schools close.

Mr. and Mrs. Brosser intends to spend most of the summen in Kansas Principal and Mrs. F. D. Keeler of the Webster school will leave for Min-nesota soon after school closes. They will visit in their old home in Minnesota, then go on to Boston to attend the N. E. A. Mr. Keeler will do some special geography work at Cambridge, the emainder of the vacation.

Battalion drill is a new feature for the East Side High school cadets, however they master it quite well.

Miss Sue Clark most delightfully en

Miss Myra Albaugh will return to Kansas City as soon as school is out.

A very interesting letter was by ceived from Miss Mitchell, for many years a prominent primary teacher in our achools but now supervisor of very interesting letter was reour schools, but now supervisor of primary methods in Sao Paulo, Bra-zil. Miss Mitchell speaks most encouragingly of the educational outlok in the south

Miss Mary Yeardley of the West Side High school, will visit in St. Paul. Mr. Gillilan assistant principal of the West Side High school will make his future home in Ohio. Miss Jennie Dodson of the Washington will do some work in the Chicago university, and visit her home in Missourl before returning to Salt Lake.

The Misses Walker of the Bryant and High school will go to Indiana.

Miss Birch of the training school will go to Kansas, while Miss Bond of the ame school remains in the city during the vacation.

Miss Johnson of the domestic science department will also go east as far as Iowa. Miss Morris of the Lincoln will visit a sister in Spokane, Washington.

This is the very latest photograph of the Czarina of Russia, which shows her exactly as she appears today. Reports have been circulating that the Empress is critically ill with aggravated peritonitis. These stories are declared to be absolutely without foundation, the Czarina's health being as good as ever.

·····

Sonneville, Franklin and Webster during the week and spoke in some of the chools on Proper care of the feet. hands, and hair

Miss Wodmansee of the Webster has had completed a very fine pictorial map of South America, having followed the suggestions of Mr. Thorne Thompson of the training school, given to the the teachers' in their recent institute, children have derived much benefit from the work which they received most enthusiastically.

Miss Christensen and Mesdames Underwood, Hocking and Johnson visited the Webster this week.

Notice reached the schools Thursday that there would be no more grade meetings this year.

Mrs. Shepherd of the Sumner will join her husband at Reno, Nevada and probably settle there as soon as the city schools close.

Pupils of room 14, Lowell enjoyed most delightful afternoon in the anyon under the chaperonage of their teacher Miss Knudsen, Miss Youngberg is still absent from the Washington owing to a very serious accident to her hand.

Mrs. King and Mrs. Twigg assisted in the Longfellow this week. A parents' meeting was held at the Longfellow on April 24. Prof. Stewart gave a fine ad.

Not only the pupils but also the teachers are very much interested in physical culture in the Lincoln, a teach-

Especially fine work is being done in spelling in Miss Engleman's room in the Lowell.

Mesdame's Brown, Rogers, Neslin, Young, Knudsen and Miss Johnson, Mr. Tibbey and Mr. Clark visited the Lowell this week.

The Fremont had a parents' meeting on Monday. Ways and means of keeping schools open was under discussion. Mrs. Elliot has visited the Sumner.

Washington and Grant schools this veek.

Mrs. Whitely is absent from the Hamilton, on account of the critical illness of her son.

Miss McManus is taking final writing specimens in the schools preparing for an exhibit later.

Mrs. Elllot, supervisor of art in the chools will spend part of her vacation in California.

In room 6, Lowell, some excellent reading is being done under the direction of Miss Ottinger.

The usual memorial exercises conducted in the schools under the aus-pices of the G. A. R., were held in all he buildings on Friday. The great benefit derived by the children towards nstilling a love of country was felt to e too great to have these beautiful exercises omitted this year atriotic ven under such very adverse circum-tance. A veteran of the Civil war and stance.

one of the Spanish war spoke in each building, while patriotic music was another feature of the program.

Miss Pollock has made a collection of and number work. The work is to be as follows, to the tune of "Won't You come to My Tea Party?": exhibited at the coming State fair. Come and join the Third Year party, up by Mrs. Dusenberry and the form

Mr. Clark of the G. A. R., spoke in a happy reminiscent mood at the Lowell on Friday, recounting many thrilling situations in the Civil war.

Will Kneess, formerly a pupil of the Lowell, now a Spanish war veteran, al-so entertained the pupils with a very graphic account of the recent war.

Wasatch visitors were Mesdames S. B. Shelp, Fouiger and the Misses Comrad.

Miss Cooper was absent from the Webster this week and Miss Conner from the Wasatch on Monday.

The Franklin is grateful to Messrs. Hegney and Fisher for their generous contributions to keep the schools open the regular time.

Miss Smithen's 2 B of the Franklin, had a Japanese day; with a wonderful exhibit.

The Franklin baseball team beat the Jackson and East Side High school

teams on recent dates.

L. D. S. UNIVERSITY.

Elder J. C. Jensen, a former teacher in the L. D. S. U. and now a member of the Wasatch Stake presidency, was a visitor at the school this week and a visitor at the school this week and spoke to the students in devotional ex-

Friday afternoon the L. D. S. U. track team held a preliminary track meet with the team of the city High school at the grounds of the latter institution.

Thursday afternoon the Normal so-clety held a session in Barratt hall. The program consisted of instrumental selections by Miss Davis, remarks by John Call, and an address on the secret of government in the school by President Paul.

Announcements for the business college summer school are now in course of preparation and will shortly be issued. The summer session in business will include English and elementary mathematics and will extend from June to September.

Miss Georgia Whitehead, a student in the department of stenography, is at present employed as stenographer in the law office of Stewart and Stewart.

A report from the Sewing department shows that the following articles of wearing apparel have been made by the students since the beginning of the school year: 18 night dresses, 4 aprons, 13 corset covers, 3 dressing sacques, 42 waists, 18 skirts, 4 walking suits, 3 wrappers, 1 little boy's suit, and 1 little girl's dress.

These articles have been cut by the young ladies themselves from their own designs.

Student Harlow Grow is in receipt of very friendly letter from one of the lolorado basket ball players. The following is an extract: "Give all the boys our regards and tell them we shall never forget the royal treatment we received during our stay there; also, that we hope to see you out here next year and we will do the most in our power to repay you."

Wednesday morning, in general assembly, Bro. Willard Done, formerly president of the institution, addressed the students. He made an earnest. eloquent plea for higher education, particularly in the direction of ancient languages and the humanities. The address was listened to with intense in-terest. Miss Josephine Spillsbury, a former student, sang several beautiful solos

On Friday morning the third-year students invited the school to their party in a unique and attractive manner. Miss Stella Paul sang a song of invitation, in which choice words of welcome

Come and join the Third Year party, All your school friends will be there; ome and wear your own class roses On your coat or in your hair; ome ome where music, softly sighing, Breathes sweet tones of praise and love:

While the pleasant hours are flying, And the stars keep watch above."

There is now being manifested, ere-ially among the older students, was quiet enthusiasm over the news that Miss Emma Ramsey, our own bas Ramsey, who has brought such basis on the academy-is soon to be with a in a series of concert roles. BRIGHAM YOUNG ACADEMY tentious title of the new play being the up by Mrs. Duschberry and the kin is garten girls, was to have come off is Friday evening, but is Dostponed at is suggestion of Mr. B. S. Young, for is

President Cluff has had preparel a

President Cluff has had prepared a series of 100 stereopticon views depicing scenes and places of interest visited by the South American expedition. They will perhaps be seen for the first that during the Book of Mormon convenue soon to be held in the academy.

Last Friday evening, in lieu of the regular five weeks Polysophical ball

Should the U. of U. athletes with the implice awe in our students, they will do well to brush up a little in baselat their defeat by the Provo team last Saturday. on a score of 11 to 2 kar them down several notches in our has of competitors to be feared. Frovo-The track team is in excellent condition, so reports Manager Roberts. The boys are looking forward with enthusiasm to the Inter-college meet on the U. of U. campus on the 9th of next May. Elder Jacob F. Gates was present with the students on Tuesday morning, and gave a short but interesting talk on a recent visit he had made to the old land marks of the Church, especially in and around Nauvoo.

President Joseph F. Smith will preside at the Book of Mormon convention, which is now definitely arranged for Saturday and Sunday, May 23 and 24. Efforts are being made to secure half rates for the occasion on all the railroads.

An enthusiastic contest in recitation took place between the members of sec-tion 1 and section 2 of the election class. Such was the spirit of rivaly and emulation evoked, that this fea-ture will be continued every Friday The academy campus in the city park, has recently received a thorough reno-Dilworth Woolley, one of the college students, met with a painful accident while performing on the dying rings in the gymnasium. His hand slipped and he fell to the floor, breaking his wist. He will carry his arm in a sling during the next few weeks. He is also wise. vation by members of the athletic as-sociation. Not least difficult of the work onsisted in cleaning out the drains. Manager Roberts reports that the grounds will be dry enough for service in a few days,

And now the kindergarten girls are to seen by the public-they have been heard from a long while-that is to say. they are having their picture taken for publication in the White and Blue. An admirer of the sex will go far to find a prettier aggregation of interesting femininity.

the brass band was permuted to give a party with a view to raising funds for music, etc. Somehow the attendance was very small—owing perhaps to the fact that students reserved their dance "The National Woman's Husband ing energies for the matinee next day, and pain left me. It worked wonders in my case and hereafter I shall always keep it in the house."-I. R. Robbins, Chief of Police, Foxcroft, Me.

25 cts. a Bottle at all Druggists

