

All Now Ready for Opening Of the Food Show Tuesday

Work is being rapidly pushed at the big Auditorium in Richards street where the Greater Salt Lake Food and Industrial exposition is to be held, beginning Tuesday next. Nearly all the booths have been put in place and the work of decorating is going on. There is a large force of men at work day and night.

The place is to be brilliantly lighted and wire men are engaged in stringing colored lights from Main and First South west to Richards street and thence to the Auditorium.

That the show will prove a revelation to Salt Lake is confidently predicted. There will be many varieties of food stuff on exhibition and the public will learn much about home products.

A splendid program has been arranged for the first week. Tickets are being distributed down town at the Utah Gas & Coke office, Schramm's and Smith drug companies.

The grand opening comes Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock when there will be an address by Mayor John S. Bransford. He will be accompanied to the show by city officials.

There will be a souvenir matinee for women and every member of the fair will receive a handsome tray.

Tuesday—Grocers' and butchers' night.
Wednesday Afternoon—Shoppers' afternoon.
Wednesday Night—Salt Lake night.

Thursday Afternoon—Thanksgiving matinee.
Thursday Night—Utah manufacturers' night. One hundred prizes will be distributed free by the manufacturers.

Friday Afternoon—Baby show, three gold prizes.

Theatre Co. Holds Scion Of Ducal Family Unawares

George Cohan doesn't know it, but he has as a member of his company one who is of a ranking family of King Edward's ducal blood, a wild youngster of the house of Guest, whose own brother, Ivor Guest, was best man when Edward Carson married Mary Leiter, the eldest daughter of Levi Leiter, multi-millionaire of Chicago, and afterward became, the two of them, the viceroys and vicereines of India.

And today the little page who officiated at this, one of the few happy international marriages, played the part of the policeman with George Cohan at the Salt Lake theater in the "Yankee Prince." And this clean-faced, broad-shouldered young man, who disports himself with a huge star upon his breast, and has but a few lines to say, dates his ancestry back to the time when William came over from the shores of Normandy and left his imprint in courage and art, for all time upon the Anglo-Saxon race.

The man who wears the star wears it modestly, as he wears his great name and his innate gentlemanliness. He is listed on the theater bill of fare as "Arthur J. Engel," from a Schleswig-Holstein mother. But on this printed face there is no legend of his course at the great Canadian university at Montreal, a post-graduate course in the German schools, a few very swift years in the Vienna and Washington embassies. There is no mention of an "affaire du coeur" which was of family note and an interruption which drove young Guest to answer to the "call of the wild."

But that man, Arthur J. Engel, who was a petted pink-cheeked boy of the embassy ladies in Washington, and whose real name is James Alden Guest, is working his way up to be something upon the stage, to a position where he will not have to wear a star upon his breast to tell the audience who he is and what part he is playing.

Young Guest has had all sorts of trials and tribulations. The lot of a younger son did not appeal to him after he had seen a few seeds of the family estate and he shipped to Canada. There by his family and afterward, through a bequest on the maternal side of the lineage, was enabled to amble about all over the world for a few years. Then, "broke," he again "hit the trail," and after various vicissitudes, made up his mind that he was to become a comedian. He started at the bottom of the ladder and is still there, as a matter of fact. But he is studying and climbing and his goal is that he is going to get there, and it is sincere, for he is working on his merits.

And the peculiar thing of it all is that the "sopoe" and a few of the conspicuous discerning members of the company call him "my lord."

Important Happenings in Millinery

Sufficient is the cause there of to make woman-kind marvel, and in happy spirits. Come to the store.

The first big reduction in Millinery at Keith-O'Brien's is an event. Not to participate in it is a disappointment. For 'tis a flow of style and a feast of prices.

Includes what we call popular-priced Millinery, which ranges from $5 to $15, and our finer importations and patterns.
$20.00 values, $13.50 || $15.00 values, $ 9.75
$12.00 values, $ 8.00 || $ 8.00 values, $ 5.00

Headwear of this character embodies style in the highest degree. The materials are first-class. There is not a shoddy hat or an off-style in stock. The hats are of velvets and silks, trimmed with roses, laces, wings and ribbons.

All headwear selling at prices above
$20.00 will be offered at half-prices

Considering the season has six weeks to run, this sale becomes emphatically the most extraordinary event millinery circles have known.

All untrimmed shapes in felt and made-shapes, silk tops and velvet facings, which sell from $3 to $9, will be sold at half-price.

Sale Starts Monday.

Furniture and Other Necessities

We have a limited quantity of the celebrated Cowan Cabinet-work Furniture, which we will close at most attractive prices. It is of the finest mahogany, of uniform color, finish and quality. The models are of the best period of furniture history, and each is equal to a collector's piece. This is an opportunity for connoisseurs, as they will not be duplicated.

In general furniture we have unusually good selection, especially in oak and in the various finishes fashionable today. For the living-room, small suites; chairs, rockers, odd divans, desks, magazine stands, waste baskets; also book-cases, china closets, buffets, etc. We have sold down to many odd pieces, and REAL, SUBSTANTIAL REDUCTIONS are in order. To close the balance we mention in part:

One 3-piece Parlor Suite, covered in figured green silk plush loose cushions; frames hand-carved. Regularly priced $125. Special for $87.50.

One 3-piece Massive Mahogany Parlor Suite, covered in green silk velour. Regularly priced $177. Special for $100.

One 3-piece Mahogany Suite, upholstered in reseda silk armchairs; a dainty parlor suite; colonial style frames. Regularly priced $150. Special for $98.50.

One 3-piece Mahogany Parlor Suite, frames Marquetry inlaid; upholstered in Gobelin tapestry. Regularly priced $75. Special for $49.

Everything in the department will be found specially priced.

Specials in Pictures

We have too many high-priced Pictures. Any Picture above $5 in our line will be closed for One-Third Off of our regular price. This is a real pre-Christmas snap. We will hold them for you and deliver when wanted.

The line is better today than it ever was, but we want the room for more popular-priced goods. This is your opportunity.

TRUNKS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION

WARDROBE TRUNKS. If you are not familiar with the character and merits of our Wardrobe Trunks it is your loss. This specialty of ours is winning popular favor with the traveling public daily. If you will look at them they will induce the desire for immediate possession. We have the four leading makes of America: The "Innovation," the "Lilly," the "Drucker" and the "Murphy." Each has some pretty little conceit in construction that the other hasn't. Any one of them opened up in your room will reveal your clothing in perfect order, ready to wear, without pressing or other attention. There is a place for every feminine, as well as for every masculine article of adornment, instantly accessible; no rummaging necessary.

In our general line of every-day Trunks we carry only standard makes, in both the "General-Purpose" and "Steamer" sizes. These, in all their respective grades, represent the very highest type of modern trunkmaking. There are a thousand and one ways in which the designer and workman co-operate and produce the smartest and most artistic-looking, most practical and convenient, roomiest, lightest and most serviceable trunks in the world. WE HAVE THEM and they are all MODESTLY PRICED.

In the Carpet Department

The sale prices hold for the balance of the week on the lines last advertised in both Carpets and Rugs, and we have added other special makes not usually put in at sale prices. All odds and ends and remnants at about half.

In the Drapery Department

To those who wish to be forehanded in their holiday preparations many interesting remnants and cushion pieces are ready and we will make them up, or you can. The Lace Curtains also offer inducements; all the one-pair lots are cut in half in price.

THE UNEXPECTED HAS HAPPENED Silk and Velvet Specials

Our good customers, knowing there are no inside prices at the store, graciously paid regular prices for weeks for Silks and Velvets. So fine were the qualities they had to have them—and the prices were reasonable. Now comes a happy surprise. To those women who felt, for obvious reasons, they must forego the pleasure of a made-to-order suit—for down tumbles the prices. Beautiful Silks, rich Velvets, of texture fit for a queen—of that degree of quality that is most sought, most cherished. And the saving differences will count—on Christmas expenses.

27-INCH DIAGONAL SILK—This new Silk has a cloth effect, and is specially adapted for making the new one-piece suits. It is shown in twelve fashionable colorings, besides black and cream. $1.75 quality. Special $1.35.

36-INCH LINING SATEN THAT IS GUARANTEED FOR TWO SEASONS—Shades of covert, medium and dark gray, brown, tan and cream; full yard wide. Special 85c yard.

BROKEN LINES OF VELVET—18-inch silk velvet, in a good assortment of staple shades, $1.00 quality. Closing price 69c yard.

DOUBLE BORDER SCARF SILK—Very choice line of novelty effects in Persian designs and gold lace effects; in light, dainty crepe weaves. A dozen combinations, in shades that are desirable for many occasions. 85c quality. Special 69c yard.

24-INCH ALL-SILK CHIFFON VELVET—Almost as soft and supple as a satin is the beautiful chiffon velvet; handsome and rich for gowns; in shades of navy, myrtle green, old rose and Burgundy. $3.25 quality, one-half price. $1.63.

24-INCH COSTUME VELVETEENS—Shades of brown, navy, wine and Burgundy, $1.50 and $1.75 quality. Closing price 90c yard.

NOVELTIES AND FAVORS FOR THANKSGIVING—Artificial Fruits—they look like the real fruit. Oranges, Apples, Peaches, Pears, Bananas and some smaller fruits. They are worth 20c, 25c, 35c and 50c. Thanksgiving special, 10c each.
