Civil Service Commission Edgerton Indulges in Some Sensible Talk.

The Railway Mystery Cleared Up.—Prize Fight—Gould's Big Suit, Etc.

By Telegraph to the News: The Lincoln States.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—The statue of Abraham Lincoln which is to ornament the southern entrance to Lincoln Park, was placed in its permanent position this morning. The statue, which will be one of the most artistic ornaments of the city, is the gift of Eli Bates, a long-time resident of Chicago. It will be unveiled and formally presented to the people on Saturday afternoon.

Bad Situation.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.—By order of the Shoemakers' Assembly No. 70, 9,000 hands engaged in the manufacture of shoes quit work to-day, and the factories paid off their hands and closed their doors. This means that the situation was not looked upon by the manufacturers as a strike, but as a discharge.

Cholera.

QUARANTINE ISLAND, N. Y., Oct. 19.—Health Officer Smith states that all are well at Hoffman Island. Eight of the Alaska passengers now at the hospital are able to return to Hoffman Island. The passengers on the Albatross are all well. She is now being thoroughly cleaned and disinfected.

Railroad Rumors.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Concerning the $50,000 suit against Jay Gould, his attorney, Judge Dillon, said to a reporter to-day:

"There is nothing new in this whole matter, and every fact on which this action is based has been known for years. The railroad company and Mr. Gould are engaged in a struggle, and the result will be decided by the courts. I believe what was done in accordance with the law, and I believe in good faith and for the best interests of the company and of the bondholders, and the great loss so far as the security of the Kansas Pacific bonds is concerned has been prevented. In fact, the security of the Kansas Pacific bonds was greatly strengthened by the action of the United States court in the case of the Denver Pacific stock, and its proceeds to their own use is a mistake."

THIS SUIT.

It is brought upon the basis that as a trustee he had no right to sell the stock of the Denver Pacific stock, and that the proceeds of the sale should have been paid to the bondholders. The suit is for $50,000, and is for the proceeds of the sale of the Denver Pacific stock, and its proceeds to their own use is a mistake."

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—At a meeting of the managers of the Western States Passenger Association to-day, all lines were authorized to supplement the present form of which are issued at 25 cents per mile, with additional mileage good for 2,000 miles at two cents per mile, limited to one year from the date of sale.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Nothing definite was accomplished at the meeting of the transcontinental lines to-day.

Brought To It Finally.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 19.—The Tribune tomorrow will publish an account of the error it committed in publishing any matter uncomplimentary to Mrs. Cleveland during her visit to the city. The error was made by a member of the Tribune Company, who assumed over her signature the entire responsibility for the Cleveland editorial, and entirely exonerate Mr. Blethen from all knowledge, participation or responsibility in the same.

Miss Rothchild Married.

PARKS, Oct. 16.—The wedding to-day of Albert Edward Rothchild and Alice De Rothchild at the synagogue on Roe Vothschild, was a brilliant affair. Four thousand invitations were issued. The diplomatic corps were largely represented. Baron Gustave De Rothchild gave away his daughter. The bride party consisted of the bride, her mother, and her two sisters, and a large number of friends.

STILL MOVING.

The President and Party Leave Atlanta for Montgomery.

ATLANTA, Oct. 19.—The day was rainy throughout. The President and Mrs. Cleveland entered a carriage at 11 o'clock and made their way through the mud to the Exposition grounds. The procession brought up in front of the grand stand, where it was intended that the distinguished party should alight, but the President, after considering the mud, determined not to venture. There was a delay of one hour before anything happened, although several futile attempts were made to start the procession. Finally the troops, perhaps a thousand strong, came marching and alighting past in the mud.

THE PRESIDENT.

standing up in his carriage with an umbrella to review them. When the column had passed the carriage was suddenly some difficulty attracted from the side and the proposed military review having been abandoned, the party returned to town.

In the afternoon the President was entertained by Hon. Julius Brown, son of the late Senator Brown. At the house the most magnificent entertainment given Mrs. Cleveland on her trip was provided by Mrs. Henry W. Grady. For two hours the ladies of the city gathered around the president and his family, and a general public reception was given at the executive mansion by Mrs. Grady.

The great event of the day was the torchlight procession of the Young Men's Democratic League of the State.

DRENCHING RAIN.

was falling, but that did not dampen the ardor or the enthusiasm of those who thronged the streets with flaming torches.

When the torch-bearers had gathered around the stadium wall where the President stood, he arose and said:

"I shall not soon forget the friendly, cordial and enthusiastic welcome of the people of Atlanta and the State of Georgia. I shall remember it not as a personal tribute, but as an evidence of the love of the people of United States bear for the office which is their sovereignty. I have seen in the past that in all time to come the government will be a government of the people, by the people, and for the people. You have illuminated in our presence to night the path of the future of the people. This is the determination of the people that the man occupying this high office shall be President of the people."

WHOLE PEOPLE.

responding to all their wants and needs and guided in his official action by the dictates of the people, and the people, which we are all bound to obey. You well know that I am not a man
