the streets committee last night in be-half of the company and explained that the company would take steps at once to grade and gravel Fifth West street, as agreed in its franchise, and would also remedy the evil complained of on Fifth West and Fifth South streets of allowing cars to stand on the crossing while being repaired and thus block the street. As to building a viaduct over its tracks on Second South and Fifth West streets, Mr. Dun-bar stated that the company feit that the Western Facilic, San Pedro and Short Line companies should join in its construction, and that it should extend Short Line companies should join in its construction, and that it should extend over the tracks from Third West street to Sixth West street. At present he stated that the company would not build a viaduct over its tracks. The committee decided to lay the matter over for four weeks so as to further in-vestigate the plan proposed by Mr. Dunbar of having the other railroads join in the viaduct.

FIVE MORE FURNACES.

The sanitary committee decided to economid the installation of five adrecommend the installation of five ad-ditional furnaces at the city crema-tory at an expense of $1,000, so that it will be able to handle all the refuse how being removed from the city. This will make 10 furnaces at the crematory and will double its present capacity. The committee has not decided on the new dumping grounds yet so the offers to handle the city's garbage were laid over until a site is secured.

The oratorical contest at the High school yesterday was a highly interesting event. The program as arranged was rendered without a hitch. The attendance was large und interest was maintained all the way and interest was maintained all the way through. The winners of the medals were Miss Dorothy Weber and Roy Dean Coates, the stirl's medal being offered by the Daugh-ters of the American Revolution, and the boy's trophy being presented by the Sons-or the American Revolution. The sub-jects treated were all patriotic, this being a condition imposed by the organizations offering the prizes. Miss Weber handled the subject. "A Tribute to American Volunteers," which the judges pronounced to be the best ora-tion of the evening. The speech of Miss Nora Wanless, "A Tribute to American Historians," also received praise from the judges, who considered the merits of the debates under three headings, namely, choice of subject, delivery and material. The judges were Mrs. W. R. Wightman, Mrs. A. J. Gorham and Mrs. J. M. Dart. Mrs. Kinney, president to the D. A. R. presented the medal to Miss Weber, after congratulating all the girls who had tak-en part. Roy Coates, who won the boys' medal
