Next Legislature is to Be Asked To Take up Creamery Misdemeanors.

BILL IS TO BE PRESENTED. Senator John Seely Has Been Sc-

lected to Champion the Cause Of the Domestic Housewife

The next legislature is to be asked to take up the matter of butter weight, and labels on alleged pound packages of the product. This is because of growing complaint that the practise of short weighting pound packages of butter is again, getting extensive vogue in Salt Lake, following its abandonment because of too much publicity two years ago. A housewife who lives in the southern part of Salt Lake bought a few days ago a package of butter wrap-ped in a heavy cardboard case. The declaration on the package was that it was packed by the Jones company and the state law demanding that but-was packed by the Jones company and the state law demanding that but-ter packages show the weight of the contents was fulfilled in the original manner of tacitly admitting short weight by declaring that when leaving the factory it "weighed" to a figure under a full pound. Actually the but ter weighed 12 ounces when stripped of its outer coating of cardboard, which is just three-fourths of what it should have weighed. The agitation will probably take the next legislature strengthening the pres-ent law concerning full weight pack-and as he is a holdover senator, he will probably he asked to present amend-ments to the present law, which is of his own drafting. He declares that he so far as the defense of the short-weight practise by urging that the but-ter has "shrunk" in weight after loav-ing the factory, has any basis in fact it is because the butter was "water-bogged" by being surcharged with mole-ure which had evaporated between the date of leaving the factory and being which is and measures will be the end ought by the new amendments.

LAST PERFORMANCE.

The floral festival closes this afternoon with a repetition of last night's noon with a repetition of last hights program, which included the perform-ance of mearly 500 children. Fancy dancing was the feature of the festivi-which a specialty by Miss Afton Jones. "Love's Young Dream" was re-peated, and the mikado dance was giv-en by the boys. Later in the evening dancing was provided for all present.

INSPECTED AT FT. DOUGLAS.

Major General Franklin Bell, Chief Of Staff, Visits Barracks.

Major General Franklin Bell, chief of staff of the army and wife arrived from the Yellowstone yesterday, and were met at the depot by General Manager Bancroft and General Pas-senger Agent Burley of the Short Line, who showed the visitors around the city in an automobile, after luncheon at the Alta cub. Generai Bell then visited Fort Douglas which he in-spected. He said work on the two new double barracks for the garrison and ordnance store room would begin in the near future. He was entirely uncer-tain as to the probable action of Con-gress in the proposal to restore the canteen, and said army officers had lost heart in the matter, as they were convinced that agitation did no good. from the Yellowstone yesterday, and Miss Berkhoel's program was selected from a wide range of songs, including English, German, French, Latin and Italian, and ran from the light "nonsense" rhymes" up to difficult numbers like the aria from Mozart's "Titroughout the whole range, Miss Berkhoel acquitted herself delightfully, and her fine mezzo-soprano tones were given beautiful play in the selections she made. It would be hard to select the especial number deserving of highest praise, but generally speaking her most artistic work was done in the German songs, "The Saphitsche Ode" by Brahms, and the "Moonlight" song by Haile, being specially charming. The latter was a gem of exquisite feeling. Hardly less notable was the French number "TEsclave," by Lalo and "The Years of Spring" was a fine burst of melody. Miss Berkhoel was capably assisted by Mrs. Peters, whose high soprano volce blended excellently with her own in the "Stabat Mater" duet, the runs in which were the grace-ful "Stolen Wings," and the telling numbers, best of which were the grace-ful "Stolen Wings," and the telling number, scellently rendered by Miss Berkhoel, she was called back and made to bow to the plaudits of her friends. After Years of Suffering Wellknown Business Man Succumbs to Cancer.

After several years intense suffering from the ravages of cancer of the face, George H. Snelgrove, a well known busi-ness man, died shortly before 1 o'clock this morning, at his residence, 326 Fifth East street. Of all deaths occurring here in recent years, this one seemed to be a blessing as ending the physical anguish of an affileted man. It is now several years since Mr. Snel-grove was stricken with the slow but sure germ of death. He withstood its in-roads manfully and patiently, going about his daily duties faithfully and seeking every known remedy for relier. His friends saw his heroism and were witnesses of the fact that day by day his once splendid physique was dwind-ling and his step becoming less elastic. Many a less coursgeous man would, with his own hands, have ended the struggle long ago, but Mr. Snelgrove awaited the natural termination of his suffering. His last trip from home was two weeks ago, when he went to a new building he was having erected on First South street. There he fainted and was taken home in a carriage, no more to leave the prem-ises allve. Mr. Snelgrove is survived by a widow

A most amazing state of affairs was discovered late yesterday afternoon when the case of the city vs L. D. Marin, "American" city councilman, charged with using abusive language toward Charles Crane, was tried. The motion made to dismiss was denied by Judge Diehl and the trial was proceeded with. After the testimony was all in Judge Diehl found Martin guilty and was about to pass sentence upon him when Atty. Joseph Lippman sprung the sur-prise of the day in making a motion in an arrest of Judgment on the grounds that the defendant had never entered a plea of guilty or not guilty. The rec-ords were examined, and it was found that the prosecuting attorney had en-tirely overlooked this important feature and therefore no sentence could be pro-nounced and the motion was sustained and Martin discharged.
