Payson, Utah County, Dec. 20,-In a Sait Lake morning paper of the 18th inst, appears what is supposed to be a report of a meeting of the local board of health, school board and city council. There was no such meeting as described The local board called a meeting: there were present the members of the health board, one member of the city council and one member of the school board. The only business transacted was in answer to a letter from Dr. Beatty; the city physician was re-quested to write Dr. Beatty that the lady thought to be smallpox was fast
