INCREASE IN SEVERAL COUNTIES.

State Board of Equalization Sits Orders and Adjourns Until Friday.

The state board of equalization met as per call yesterday afternoon and continued in session all day. Before doing so however, it ordered:

An increase of 4 per cent in the assessed valuation of real estate and improvements and personal property, except money, in the following counties: Sanpete, Beaver, Carbon, Morgan, Davis, Utah, Salt Lake, Washington, Wasatch, Juab, Tooele, Summit and Box Elder.

In Weber county an increase of 3 per cent was ordered on assessments and assessed property.

The assessment of all other counties was approved.

The board closed up some of the business of state and its work for state purposes, and a note for state schools will result.

To Those Who Visit Bingham Young's Grave.

Strangers who entered without ceremony, in himself noted, upon the little military grave, refrain by thoughtlessness, and consider, gentle in the valley, that beautiful city administrative work of that man who at the very scene is generally considered to be the creation, now all the marvels and beauties of the Holy City, and if any consideration of the character of truth which God has placed in them, does not choose the base to admire and respect another, then let them remember that it will be a lie.

CITY COUNCIL MEETING.

Councilmen Morris and Patrick Make an Explanation with Respect to the Bond Vote.

NEWSPAPER REPORTERS ARE CRITICISED.

And Tell What They Should Chronicle--City Land Leased to Taylor's Canyon Saloon Keepers.

The city Council held its regular meeting last evening with Councilman Collett in the chair. There was very little business of public interest before the meeting. Before an adjournment was taken Councilman Morris said that Councilman Morris made an explanation with reference to their having the Council meeting before the vote was taken on the bond question, and Mr. Morris said:

"I had occasion to leave the Council chamber last Tuesday evening before the votes were taken on the finance committee's report recommending the issuance of the refunding bonds. And the ordinance authorizing the exchange and sale of them on a basis of money basis, instead of gold, as recommended by the committee. It has been intimated to the public press that I left for a purpose. I want to say that I did not leave to avoid voting. I am willing to assume the responsibility and to stand by it, nothing in my official acts. When the matter was up before the committee at first all the members were a unit for issuing gold bonds, but every member personally favored a basis of money bond if it could be floated to advantageously as a gold bond. The press reports as failed to give the report and have changed his mind, and stood for lawful money. Now, I wish to go on record as favoring a lawful money bond, inasmuch as I believe it can be floated. I am for the restoration of silver as much as any man in the Council, but no one has yet been able to show us that by the insertion of the gold clause would the value of a millionth part of a grain be taken from silver. Nevertheless, I now favor the issuing of the bonds on a lawful money basis, and to that end
