A New York dispatch to the "News" says: There were expressions of satisfaction by officials and members of the New York Yacht club when it became known that Sir Thomas Lipton's new challenge was coming on the Germania. The Yacht club officials have felt sure that Sir Thomas would make a second attempt to "lift the cup" next year. They were not quite prepared, however, to believe that the challenge would be sent before December, as that would cover the necessary ten months' notice required by the club. Evidently the trials of the Shamrock in October weather last year have caused Sir Thomas Lipton to wish for the match to be sailed much earlier. The race may be sailed in August, it is said.

August is a busy month with the New York Yacht club. Its eagerly cruise takes place then, and before the squadron is disbanded one-half of the month has expired. The eagerly cruise and its squadron runs have always been favored occasions for trials of the cup candidate or the new yacht built to defend the cup. During the cruise, the great races for the Golet cups have taken place in the past, and now these have given way to the Astor cups.

After the cruise there was another month or so in which to remedy defects, if any, and complete the hard work of fitting up the boat for her meeting with Sir Thomas. It is now a matter of time, if it is made, that the races for the cup be sailed in August next year, is, therefore, a matter of conjecture.

Mr. J. Frederick Tamm, a member of the New York and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht clubs, said:

"I have no doubt Sir Thomas Lipton's challenge will promptly be accepted. Sir Thomas is very popular with American yachtsmen, and he certainly deserves another chance to the cup."

"Of course, it is too soon to express an opinion whether or not a new yacht will be built to defend the cup against the new Shamrock, but I honestly think it will be very hard to build a better boat than the Columbia. It would certainly take a much faster yacht than the old Shamrock to beat her."

"But if it is deemed best to build a new defender there will be no trouble in finding plenty of men ready and willing to furnish the necessary money. I am thinking Sir Thomas will have a better chance next year than any of the challengers that have crossed the ocean in years passed. You see he will have the benefit of last year's experience, and if he has Captain Crispin, who sailed the Shamrock last year, and the Minnie this year, his boat will have a great advantage."

"The race be sailed in August, I believe. As for his reported request that the race be sailed in August, I believe it should be granted. There is always a better breeze in August than in October, and the chances for an exciting race are far more favorable. In August there would be small chance for the succession of fukes which proved so vexing last year."

"I am delighted that the prospects for a race next year are so good, and I am sure every good yachtsman shares my sentiment on this subject. Sir Thomas may be assured of the best of treatment over here, and if he wins the cup it could not be in better hands."

"Will some one build a new yacht to defend the cup?" said Mr. Chester Griswold.

"Well, it is rather early to talk about that, but I should think it likely. Americans are not in the habit of using old things if they can have better; they are too enterprising. There would be no difficulty about raising money for a new defender if it is decided to build one."

Summaries at Boise.

Boise, Ida., Oct. 10.—The following are the summaries of today's races:

PABLO TECSON'S PRISONERS.

American Soldiers Paroled by Him Say He Has Treated Lieut. Alsldtter and Party in a Very Humane Way.

Manila, Aug. 24.—[Correspondence of the Associated Press.]—A claim has just been presented to the secretary of the military governor by Senor Manuel Prado for the recovery of the sum of $22,000 from the United States government for seizure, confiscation and sale of the steamer Toning, which was seized by the United States authorities in January, 1899, condemned as a filibuster and sold to McLeod company for $22,000. Senor Prado claims that the government officials were deceived by false testimony. He says he can show that his steamer never carried nor transported any arms and at all times he has been friendly to the United States government. The claimant only asks for the sum the steamer sold for, so the government will not lose anything in the event of the claim being allowed.

Word has been received from San Miguel, to the effect that two men belonging to Lieut. Alsldtter's party were given their liberty on parole a few days ago. They report that the lieutenant and the other prisoners are now in the hands of Pablo Tecson and are well cared for. Fagan, the deserter from the Twenty-fourth infantry, is supposed to have planned the ambush. The treatment of prisoners by Tecson has been most commendable and all the reports brought from within his line indicate that Pablo is most humane in his methods. The two men who were given their parole were required to sign a paper, written in Spanish, the full import of which they did not know, but which they understood to be a sort of parole.

Two horse thieves and deserters from the Twenty-ninth infantry U. S. V., stationed on the island of Maabate, were killed by a party of soldiers who were sent to capture them. As the little party approached the deserters the latter opened an ineffective fire which was returned and the two deserters fell dead. One of them was named Curran, but the name of his companion has not been learned. Two other soldiers who were intimidated into joining the deserters made their escape and returned to camp.

A band of ladrones recently visited the home of an old Spaniard living about twenty miles from Maabate, and murdered the entire family, which consisted of father, and mother, six sons and six daughters. The terrible wholesale butchery was reported to the commander of the post and a detachment of the 29th was sent to capture the bandits. A hot fight ensued, which resulted in fifteen dead rebels and the capture of eight rifles. The American suffered no casualties.

Small bands of ladrones are committing depredations in many sections of the archipelago. Lieut. Col. Bryan of the Twenty-seventh infantry, raided Santolan, a small pueblo lying between Tavyta and Maraguim, last Wednesday at midnight and captured forty-eight ladrones. This capture winds up a bunch of water pirates that had infested the mouth of the lake and the marshes of the vicinity.

Col. Hood, Sixth U. S. Infantry, accompanied by Captain McIndoo, has returned from Abulug, and reports that everywhere was manifested the greatest loyalty and enthusiasm. The colonel is well pleased with the conduct of affairs at Abulug and vicinity.

for ever and aye the dispute as to which team was rightfully entitled to the name of "Second Team" and right merrily did the battle rage. The Second team will still be known as the Second team because victory perched upon its banner to the tune of 15 to nothing. In the first half it took them 18 minutes to score the first touchdown. Four minutes later the pig skin was in the center of the battle field and no one else. The real hard work was done in the second half as Editha Brown of the Second team was forced to retire for several reasons, but principally because some opponent had "affectionately" jabbed his heel with more force than was expected. The crowd, however, of Mr. B. Davis was substituted and held his position down well.

On end runs McMillan, of the Second, was the star, while Weber for the Third was the best runner. Editha Brown, the number about 500 and a very enthusiastic crowd it was.

The teams lined up as follows:

Second. Thirds.
Davis Harris
Folland L. T. Manning
Berro L. T. Manning
Hardy L. T. Manning
McMillan L. T. Manning
Brown L. T. Manning
Clay L. T. Manning
Adams L. T. Manning

After the High School conflict yesterday afternoon a district school league game, the first of the season, was played between the Grays and Fremonts. The former won by a score of 10 to 0. The youngsters lined up as follows: L. Hanan, center; H. Brown, right guard; H. Weiser, left guard; H. Levy, right tackle; R. Weiser, left tackle; C. Foster, right end; M. Wheeler, left end; H. Thomas, right half; S. McMurrian, left half; H. Corless, full back; L. Smyth, quarter back.

The First and Second All Hallows teams held an interesting and beneficial practice game yesterday afternoon on their campus. Every player showed up. The game was played at that Coach Canning could expect. He is very much pleased with the team's work and looks for a successful season for them.

Sam Browning made the best score at the gun club's shoot yesterday afternoon, killing 48 out of a possible 50. J. P. Sharp came next with 46. Following is a full score:

Birds Dead, Lost.
Browning 48 48 2
J. P. Sharp 46 46 4
Clive 40 40 13
John Sharp 34 34 16
Dr. Dart 30 30 20

One week from next Saturday the High School and Ogden High School football teams will meet at Walker's field. Manager McPherson yesterday afternoon completed arrangements for the game.

It is said that P. H. Moore of this city is endeavoring to organize an athletic club in this city, one that will be made permanent. A meeting is called for next Monday evening to talk over the proposition. Polo, basketball, cycle and football teams will be organized.

Tom Sharkey, the gallant cabin boy, is nothing if not original. Of late he has been putting in about an hour a day studying elocution in the basement of his saloon and the other day astonished all his customers when he recited these well known lines, which it must be admitted are an improvement on the well known quotation: "When you laugh the world laughs with you, and when you cry you cry by yourself."

George Siler, the premier referee, has accepted the offer of the Colorado club and will be here to referee the Parker-Gans bout, which takes place on November 16th at the above club. As the contest is of such importance in the lightweight world it was thought best to secure the best referee in America to officiate at the same. Siler was suggested by Al Hereford, the manager of Gans, and immediately accepted by Parker.—Denver Post.

AMUSEMENTS.

That laughable farce comedy, the best of all Mr. Broadhurst's creations, entitled, "A Man From Mexico" will be seen at the Theater tonight and tomorrow night.

The fifth presentation of "The Mandarin" drew another big house at the Theater last night. The audience was more generous than ever, and the number of encores demanded prolonged the performance until after 11 o'clock. The farcical presentations will be given on Saturday afternoon and evening, and the matinee is already nearly sold out. The American plays in Ogden tomorrow night, and the Oregon Short Line will run an excursion up at 6 o'clock, returning after the opera. Professor McIndoo, the orchestra, and the state hands, go up with the scenery tomorrow morning.

At the Grand "A Black Sheep" continues to do excellent business. Mr. Mulvey will remain in control of the house until January 1st, filling all his contracts. The deal for the transfer has been closed, and no one is in a more complacent frame of mind over it than Mr. Mulvey himself.

A VERY THIN STORY.

Young Man Claims to Have Been Robbed to Avoid Marrying.

Another prospective bridegroom has left suddenly for parts unknown, two days prior to date set for his wedding, and the circumstances surrounding the case indicate that he deliberately planned to avoid marriage. His name is John Robinson, 26 years of age, and the young lady who was to wed him is Miss Emma Lang of 637 North Second West. A few days ago Robinson called at the police station and told a very "fishy" tale about being robbed of $71.50. He said that some man owed him the money and met him on Sixteenth South and Fifth West, and paid him the money. Soon after, he said, a stranger accosted him and thrusting a gun in his face demanded the $71.50, and some besides. Robinson was asked how the robber knew that he had been paid the $71.50, but was at a loss to explain the whys and wherefores. The police paid no attention to the fellow's story, and unhesitatingly pronounced him a "scoundrel" and his story a "fake," told as an excuse to escape marrying Miss Lang. He didn't have any money, hence no marriage! It is evident that Miss Lang has been most woefully deceived.
