One of the affairs of the week in which the Fourth of July idea was carried out in a most charmingly unique way was the luncheon given by Mrs. Fisher Harris. The centerpiece was a basket of flowers in the red, white and blue, and a log cabin of candy sticks in the same colors. Around these were firework "flower pots" and streamers over the table were small firecrackers. The globes of the chandelier were overlaid with firecrackers and skyrockets in the way of shades, and long ribbon streamers stretched from the chandelier to the four corners of the table, and were caught there with giant crackers in the place of candelabra. About 12 guests enjoyed the pleasant affair.

On Tuesday night Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tibbals entertained at a delightful musical in honor of Miss Nettleton and Mr. Nettleton, two young musical people who have come to Salt Lake to reside. The rooms were prettily decorated and an enjoyable program rendered, the numbers being two piano solos by Miss Nettleton, two violin solos by Mr. Nettleton, both of which were accompanied by a vocal solo by Mrs. A. G. Andrews, a violin solo by Mr. Skelton, accompanied by Mrs. Ganz; two piano solos by Miss Mary Olive Gray.

A delightful lawn fete was given at the home of Miss Jessie Christopherson on Wednesday night, the other hostesses being Misses Margaret Summerhays, Ruby and Ivy Young, and Louise McClelland. The lawn was lit with Japanese lanterns and cozy corners and pavilions made pretty nooks. Refreshments were served, and a delightful time was enjoyed. Present were Misses Chloe Brown Ethel and Lou Stewart, Louise Moyle, Birdie Sheets, Rita Taylor, Leona Taylor, Leona Home, Florence Home, Hazen Love, Jennie Summerhays, Lucile Young, Aggie Sloan, Blossom Mitchell, Vesta Williams, Lucella and Lillian Young, Mayne Lattin, Abbie Lou, Jettie McClelland, Lillian and Molly McClelland, Nora Pearl, Nettie and Sylvian Poulton, Edith Peterson, Margaret Ryan and Katie Farrell, Messrs. Commonly thought of in connection with ready-to-wear clothes; you expect to pay extra for it.

You needn't; R & A Clothes are "Tailored-by-hand" as much as the custom-tailor's product; and better done than the most of 'em.

It's one thing that makes these clothes "ready-to-wear," instead of just "ready made."
