Prosecuting Whisky Sellers.

Mr. Hines, proprietor of the Palace drug store and the Palace saloon, was fined $10 by Justice Weigand for selling liquor on Sunday. He stated when asked that he was trading under the impression that his saloon license permitted him to sell liquor in the drug store.

Frank Carter, bartender for Jim Duggins, entered a plea of guilty and in the court was set to inquire if Mr. J. Jones a minor. He will be tried next Monday.

Notes.

At a special session of the city council, a resolution was passed providing for the giving of Capitol Hill grounds, with water and sewerage, water from the Provo waterworks system to Utah Territory, if an act should be passed by the Legislature making Provo the capital of the Territory.

Mrs. Hannah Carter was arrested on the charge of whipping her own child, a boy of 15, the complainant being son of Mrs. Charles Carter. A jury found Mrs. Carter not guilty and Justice Weigand fined $5 costs to the prosecuting witness.

Littie Cecilia Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gates, has fully recovered from the attack of diphtheria, and the quarantine has been raised.

The tabernacle choir will give a concert on the evening of February 26th, 1894.

Read Stout has returned from a trip to the Midwest Fair.

The suit of Jang & Faian vs D. C. Reed et al. is still in progress in the First District court.

BEAR LAKE CONFERENCE.

Enjoyable Meetings and Valuable Instructions.

Bear Lake Stake conference convened as per appointment at Paris, Idaho, on Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 3, and 4, 1894; Elder Wm. Dudge, Stake president, presiding.

SATURDAY, AT 10 A.M.

Meeting opened with the customary devotional exercises. Elder Dudge expressed his pleasure at meeting with the Saints and elaborated upon the subjects of and benefits accruing from these conferences. He spoke of the autonomy and independence within themselves of the organizations of the Church.

Elder Wm. Hyman, of Liberty, reported that the members of the Stake saints had been so blessed with God's Spirit, it was very necessary that the Elders instructing them should speak under His influence. Rejoined to living here, this was a sacrifice to come quite a distance through the cold and the exposure to more than rewarded before the close of the conference. Know that that had blessed these assemblies. The influence of His Spirit he had, for himself, enjoyed. God had always justified the conditions and reliance required in Him by His people.

Hence Elder McMinnis of Randolph said he felt that God's Spirit had dictated the previous speakers remarks at the hands of the people here. That the people were the hands of the Council of the Apostles, not addressed the conference. Quoted Isaiah 2nd chapter, and showed that the prophecy contained therein had been fulfilled by the gathering of the Saints to the Tabernacle where they gathered to Zion. Could not enough their manifold goodness to him. Felt that his every effort should be exerted to repay to the best way, the love leaving him.

Wrote all men desire to worship some greater power, we know that God lives and has revealed His plan for the salvation and exaltation of mankind—those who now live, have lived, or may live in this world, fall into various pitfalls and snare. The clear duty of the Elder of Israel is to labor for the dignity and righteousness of Zion.

Elder Wm. L. Bush, of Paris, addressed the audience, telling upon his soul the saints not meet to be taught of man except so far as they set by the authority imposed upon them by God. By this authority only should the people of God be taught.

After the choir and congregation had sung,

God, my Father, I sang.
