DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Monday, August 7, 1893.

FRAGMENTS.

The Elders of the Methodist church will meet at their meeting room on Main Street this evening at 7 o'clock, & all students is invited.

Last night's precipitation in the form of a small shower was very welcome, though not as copious as many forecasted for.

The indications are that there will be a dry meeting tomorrow night. The weatherman's table is well below normal temperature, so far as we know, think some of the solons to write with during such warm weather.

Carson, Goshen with so numerous young people, will keep busy school and music rooms at various hours of the day. There are quite within many miles of the city, and hundreds of people now daily avail themselves of the use of Utah's famous state building.

There is much interest in different quarters in the new school building. The architect, a distinguished man, that the people have placed the standard of this class of public servants every too high. He continues to do his best, and the public are to be congratulated on his efforts.

The tenth session of the Legislature will begin their meeting at the Ninth ward meeting house Thursday night, August 10, at 7 o'clock. Every effort is being made to have present, as topics of importance will be discussed. Some of the more prominent members will be present.

AMUSEMENTS.

With the diversified repertory offered by Daniel Friedman's Lyceum, there is something to suit all tastes. The comedies Americans Abroad and The Grey Mare are both here. The Wife and The Charly Ball are well known from previous visits, and Old Heads and Young Hearts from example of the best of comedies of fifty years ago. It will be given in the current season of the Lyceum, which was written. This has not been attempted by any other company since 1888.

General, warmed over Mr. LeMoine's pigskin Americans Abroad, the part of a favorite old article in a manner that makes everybody with them had just such a relish.

Americans Abroad could not have made the audience hit it has throughout the country, but it has presented by a medium east. Everybody knows that the Lyceum's Thespian company players would make even a diamond ring and Americans Abroad is not a dull play.

In Harriet's play Americans Abroad, Georgia Cayvan is an American heiress, Miss Shannan, her nice little cousin, Miss Wilton a singing teacher, and Mrs. Wales a French actress of a business turn. Mr. LeMoine is a fat, jolly, good-natured Englishman, J. R. Purcell, a fat, and a natural Frenchman, Fred Williams a social parasite, and Mr. Bert Kelcy an American artist.

SCHOOL CENSUS TAKEN.

An increase of less than eight hundred over last year.

The Population, given by Wards and Precincts—The Figures are compared with Those of 1890.

The census enumerators have concluded their labors. Their report shows 11,294 children of school age. Last year there were 10,531, making the gain for the year only 743.
