DEATH OF JUDGE REED.

Well Known Jurist Succumbs to an Attack of Cancer of the Stomach.

Judge Christopher Reed, a member of the law firm of Reed & Hartley, died yesterday, the cause of death being cancer of the stomach. He underwent an operation a few days ago, which for a time appeared to be successful, but the disease had made such inroads upon his constitution that death resulted.

Judge Reed had resided in Salt Lake four years, coming here from St. Louis. He was born in Pasquotank county, N. C. He was graduated from the University of Virginia and took up the practice of law, becoming more or less prominent in that profession. He was a district judge in Kansas for two terms, and was tendered a third nomination, but declined the honor, in order that he might follow his profession. He refused also a nomination as governor of Kansas.

The deceased is survived by two children, R. W. and Miss Lila Reed. His wife, who before her marriage was Miss May Williams, died in 1894.

INTO ONE DISTRICT.

Boxelder Commissioners Consolidate County Schools.

(Special to the "News") Brigham City, June 18.—The county commissioners, by unanimous vote, granted the petition of the citizens of this county that the schools of the 25 districts in the county be consolidated. A number of the trustees from different parts of Boxelder county met with the commissioners and some of them protested against the consolidation; but after listening to talks by Matt Thomas of Benning and explanations by the commissioners as to the benefits to be derived under the new law permitting the consolidation of the schools of a county into one district, the trustees were convinced that to unite was the best thing to do.

The commissioners will meet in special session next Thursday to appoint a board of five school trustees for the county district to act until the general election in the fall.

FACES DEFICIT OF ELEVEN THOUSAND

Error in Estimating Work by Engineering Department Plunges City Deeply Into Debt.

MORE BILLS YET COMING IN.

Council Again Resorts to "Robbing Peter to Pay Paul" Method of Meeting Obligations.

Owing to an underestimate of the depth of the sewer being laid in the northeastern part of the city there is now a deficit in the fund for the payment of that improvement amounting to the total sum of $11,637, which the city council will have to find some way to pay. This information was given to the city council last night by the board of public works and the members of the administration, particularly the finance committee, will have something to worry about in finding a way to meet the deficit.

When the contract for the sewer extension was let the estimated depth of the sewer was 10 feet but it appears that in some places the depth had to be increased to 13 feet thus making quite a difference in the cost of the work. The final estimate of Contractor Kennedy has not been submitted yet and when it is in it is believed that the total deficit will amount to fully $15,000. It is believed that the administration will have a caucus in a few days and consider the matter of paying the deficit.

The transfer act was put through again last night upon the suggestion of City Auditor Alf. The total of $15,000 was ordered transferred from the street fund to the special improvement fund for the purpose of paying the city's portion of the public improvements authorized by the act. The transfer act at the present rate, the street fund will certainly be depleted in very short order as it is simply a game of "robbing Peter to pay Paul" and the final result will be bankruptcy.

Should the council attempt to enforce the resolution adopted last week ordering the building inspector to enforce the transfer act and remove the sheet iron shacks recently built at 305, 324 and 336 South State street, it will undoubtedly have to pay the cost of the shacks.

A communication was received last night from Atty. Breeden, Sullivan & Barnes stating that the owners of the buildings at 305, 324 and 336 South State street, which are being used as shacks, are willing to remove them from the building inspector as required by the city ordinance, and that the council had no right to remove the buildings. The proposition will be considered by the committee on Thursday night.

A communication was received from McGurkin & Company asking that an investigation be made of the action of the street department in preventing the construction of sidewalks in front of property owned by them on Ninth avenue between C and D streets. The McGurkin & Company are building some residences on the property and secured a permit and grades from the city engineer for the construction of the sidewalk. In extending the work for the construction canal along that street was stopped up and the sidewalk is some two or three feet below the bottom of the ditch. Complaints were made against closing up the ditch and the city supervisor made an investigation and ordered the work stopped on the sidewalk and the canal restored to its former condition.

able trouble over the matter between McGurkin and the street department, so the former now asks the council to make an investigation, which will be done by the street committee on Thursday night.

H. G. Tyrell sent in a claim of $600 to the council for special work done in the construction of the new bridge over the Jordan river. There was some misunderstanding in regard to the salary to be paid him and he claims that the finance committee will look into the matter.

The council passed the ordinance introduced last week and laid over until last night, which prescribes the forms of notices of special tax assessments to be sent out by the city treasurer. The matter was drawn in accordance with the new law on this subject.

The matter of advertising for bids for the construction of sidewalks in extension No. 124 was referred to the streets and sidewalks committee. The extension is bounded by Third and Ninth South streets and First West and the Jordan river.

The council accepted the invitation of William M. Roylance, chairman of the executive committee, to attend the annual outing of the United Commercial Travelers' association at Provo on June 21 and 22. It also authorized the recording of a telegram an invitation on behalf of the council to the Travelers' Protective association now in session at Norfolk, Va., to hold its next convention here.

A communication was received from the Utah Federation of Labor favoring the passage of the new electrical ordinance now under consideration by the council. The federation also asked that the new bicycle ordinance now under consideration be amended so as to allow bicycles to be ridden on the sidewalks outside the business district between 6 and 8 o'clock in the morning and 5 and 7 o'clock in the evening.

The average man cannot afford to employ a physician for every slight ailment or injury that he may be subjected to. He can afford to neglect them, as so slight an injury as the scratch of a pin has been known to develop into a serious illness. Hence every man must from necessity be his own doctor for this class of ailments. Such ailments are common and prompt treatment, which can only be had when suitable medicines are kept at hand, is essential to recovery.
