FAMILY RECORDS.

WE ARE NOW PREPARED to receive orders for FAMILY RECORDS of an approved form.

Each book is divided into four orms.

The first form is that of a "FAMILY RECORD," with ruled and printed spaces for births, marriages, and deaths, in each family, also for names, dates, and places, one page acommodating one family.

The second form is a "CHURCH RECORD," with spaces for blessings, baptisms, confirmations, ordinations, endowments, and patriarchal blessings and various particulars of the same.

The third form is a "SEALING RECORD," with spaces for name of person sealed, birth, death, time, place, etc.

The fourth form is a "BAPTISM FOR THE DEAD RECORD," with spaces for names, dates, birth, death, baptism, confirmation, etc.

Each book is furnished with a title page, on which the person owning the record can enter his or her name. An explanation of the forms, or instructions how to keep the record is also printed in each book, and its pages are numbered.

These Records are well printed and ruled on good ledger paper, substantially bound in full sheep, English roan, or Bock. We can furnish them of any size, from one to five quires, or larger, but probably five quires is as large as will be desired. We can also furnish the various forms in a record, proportioned to each other to order.

HIGHEST HONORS

AT THE

UNITED STATES

CentenniaL

World Exhibition, 1876.

MASON & HAMLIN CABINET ORGANS

Unanimously assigned the

"FIRST RANK"

IN THE

"SEVERAL REQUISITES"

of such Instruments!

The MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO. have the honor to announce that the Organs of their manufacture have been unanimously assigned the "FIRST RANK" IN SEVERAL REQUISITES of instruments of the class" by the Judges at the CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION at Philadelphia, 1876, and are the ONLY INSTRUMENTS OF THIS GENERAL CLASS AWARDED THIS RANK. This is after the severest competition by the best makers, before one of the most competent Juries ever assembled.

They have also received the HIGHEST, but, as is well known, medals of equal merit have been awarded all articles deemed worthy of recognition; so thus it will be easy for many makers to advertise that they have received "first medals."

The differences in competing articles, and their comparative excellence, are recognised in the Reports of the Judges from which the following is an extract:—

"THE MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO.'S exhibit of Reed Organs and Harmoniums is entitled to that of the FIRST RANK IN THE SEVERAL REQUISITES OF INSTRUMENTS OF THE CLASS, viz: Smoothness and equal distribution of tone, scope of expression, resonance and singing quality, freedom and quickness in action of keys and bellows, with thoroughness of workmanship, combined with simplicity of action."

(Signed by all the Judges.)

The Mason and Hamlin Organs are thus declared to rank first, not in one or two respects only, but in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of such instruments, and they are the Only ones assigned this rank. This triumph was not unexpected, for the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs have uniformly been awarded the highest honors in competitions in America, there having been scarcely six exceptions in hundreds of competitions. They were awarded highest honors and at which they have been exhibited; being the Only American Organs which have ever obtained Any Award at any competition with best European makers, or in any European World's Exposition!

NEW STYLES, with improvements, exhibited at the CENTENNIAL: elegant new cases in great variety. Prices very lowest consistent with best material and workmanship. Organs sold for cash or installments, or rented until rent pays. Dealers wanted. Organs introduced to gain orders and satisfaction to every reasonable purchaser or THE MONEY REFUNDED. ☞ ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUES sent free.

EVENING NEWS.

Thursday - - December 13, 1877.

PRAYER A LA MODE.

Give me an eye to others' failings blind—
(Miss Smith's new bonnet's quite a fright behind!)

Wake in the charity for the suffering poor—
(There comes the contribution box once more!)

Take from my soul all feelings covetous—
(I'll have a shawl like that, or make a fuss!)

Let love for all my kind my spirit stir—
(Save Mrs. Jones; I'll never speak to her!

Let me in truth's fair pages take delight—
(I'll read the other novel through to-night!)

Make me contented with my earthly state—
(I wish I married rich; but it's too late!)

Give me a heart of faith in all my kind—
(Miss Brown's as big an hypocrite as you'll find!)

Help me to see myself as others see—
(This dress is quite becoming unto me!)

Let me act out no falsehood, I appeal—
(I wonder if they think those curls are real!)

Make my heart of humanity the fount—
(I'm glad I am our pew's so near the front!)

Fill me with patience and strength to wait—
(I know he'll preach till our dinner's late!)

Take from my heart each grain of self-conceit—
(I'm sure that gent eman must think me sweet!)

Let saintly visions be my daily food—
(I wonder what they'll have for dinner good!)

Let not my feet ache on the road to light—
(Nobody knows how these shoes pinch and bite!)

In this world teach me to deserve the next—
(Church out! Charles, do you recollect the text!)

Sixteenth Amendment Convention.

The National Woman Suffrage Association will hold its tenth annual Washington convention at Lincoln Hall, 9th and D Streets, Washington, D. C., January 8th and 9th, 1878.

All Woman Suffrage Associations and all friends of woman suffrage throughout the country who believe that it is the duty of Congress to submit a Sixteenth Amendment to the Federal Constitution prohibiting the several States from disfranchising United, States citizens on account of sex, are cordially invited to send delegates and letters to this convention.

To secure the passage of this amendment by the Forty-Fifth Congress, making allowance for all the contingencies, we need to be sure of fifty votes in the Senate, and two hundred votes in the House of Representatives. It is therefore of vital importance that delegates should be present at this convention from every State and Territory, and that each one should call upon her entire State delegation in Congress and urge them to attend the convention and hear the discussion of the greatest political question of the age.

There are members in both Houses of Congress who assert that no woman has ever personally appealed to them on this subject. Yet these are the men who hold our whole question in the hollow of their hands.

That there may be in time for these personal appeals, the Washington Resident Congressional committee have made arrangements to entertain all delegates for one week. Delegates are requested, upon their arrival, to call and register their names at Riggs' House, 15th and G Streets, where they will be met by members of the local committee and assigned to comfortable quarters.

All delegates are requested to meet at the Ladies' Reception Room of the Senate at 10.30 a. m., Monday, Jan. 7th, 1878.

The committee on privileges and elections have unanimously voted to grant hearings to delegates from every section of the country, upon sixteenth amendment petitions, beginning January 9, at 10.30 a. m. A favorable report from this committee will have immense weight with both Houses of Congress and all the State legislatures. Delegates will also be heard before judiciary committee of House of Representatives.

The Senate committee on Indian affairs has just reported favorably a bill to enfranchise the Indians, who have always made of their women beasts of burden. This is an additional peril to the women citizens of the United States. The Mexicans, half-breeds and ignorant, vicious men voted solid against woman suffrage in Colorado, while everywhere in the United States the dram-seller, the drunkard, the profligate help to make the laws which control the property, the wages, the persons, and the children of the intelligent women of this republic.

The Forty-Fourth Congress spent month after month investigating frauds in remote States, protecting the rights of men who did not know how to read the ballots they cast, while all the wives and mothers, sisters and daughters in the land are forbidden to vote for the party of their choice, or to exercise their right of self-government at the ballot box.

Then let the free-born women citizens of this boasted Republic, defrauded of every right man claims for himself, once more assemble under the shadow of the national capitol, and demand in the sacred name of liberty, an amendment to the Constitution of the United States protecting the rights of women citizens.

On behalf of the National Woman Suffrage Association.

Contributions for Sixteenth Amendment work and for the Convention should be addressed to the treasurer, Ellen Clark Sargent, 1733 De Sales Street, Washington, D.C.; letters to the Convention to Sara Andrews Spencer, Chairman Resident Congressional Committee, Spencerian Business College, cor. 7th and L Streets, Washington, D.C.
