

FRIEND GAVE CUNLIFFE AWAY.

Visited Detective Agency and Said
He Knew Where Thief Was and Asked What Reward Was

TWENTY-FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS

Pinkertons at First Thought He Was
A Crank—Did as He Said and Got
Their Man.

Bridgeport, Conn., Oct. 20.—The chances that the police will recover nearly the whole of the $101,000 stolen from the Adams Express company in Pittsburg by Edward G. Cunliffe, who was arrested here yesterday and taken to Pittsburg today, seems bright. Tonight $9,065 was found in a trunk belonging to a butler of a prominent family at Black Rock, but the butler and the family by whom he is employed are ignorant of the fact that the large sum found was within the house. Although there is a possibility that the remaining $10,500 has been destroyed, the police are of the opinion that another accomplice of Cunliffe may reveal the hiding place of the missing sum. In round numbers $30,000 has been found within the past 24 hours. After figuring on about $500 as the amount which Cunliffe has spent or which was found on him when arrested, there is left a sum of $10,500 yet to be accounted for. The discovery of the money in the Black Rock home tonight was brought about by keeping a close watch on one of Cunliffe's chance acquaintances, George Eisenman, who was with Cunliffe when he was arrested yesterday morning. According to Eisenman's story, he met Cunliffe in a cheap hotel Wednesday night, the two being together for some time. Cunliffe had a package with him and the men were about to leave each other. Cunliffe said that he wanted Eisenman to take care of the package, as it was laundry which he wanted to keep in a safe place. Eisenman took the bundle to his sister's house, 688 Ash street, and when alone opened it and found the big sum of money.

Capt. Arnold of the detective bureau knows Eisenman and saw him with Cunliffe when the latter was taken and went to the house of Eisenman's sister and found the bundle of shirts, but no money, and he suspected that Eisenman had abstracted a part of Cunliffe's plunder. Eisenman was shadowed all today and he was seen to give a small package to his friend the butler. Tonight Eisenman was taken to the Black Rock house and asked the butler for the package. He went to his trunk and turned it over to Capt. Arnold. In fact, the butler had been told what was in the package. Capt. Arnold would not reveal the name of the butler or the family which employed him. Eisenman was taken to police headquarters, but was released later.

Two other new features of the chapter of events in connection with the capture of Cunliffe cropped out today. One being an attempt by Cunliffe to bribe Capt. George Arnold of the local detective force, and the other being the story of betrayal by a friend of Cunliffe for the purpose of securing the reward of $25,000 offered by the Pinkertons for his arrest. During one of the talks last night the prisoner made a proposition to divide the $20,000 which he had sent to his brother-in-law, Joseph W. Boardman, in Bristol, on the promise of secrecy. Arnold was to have $10,000 if the scheme was carried out, according to the plans of the prisoner, who was to tell the Pittsburg authorities that the hiding place of the money would never be known. Arnold led the prisoner on his wild proposition and after Cunliffe's plans were laid bare to the city in which Cunliffe was captured. Last Tuesday Missett went in the Tremont hotel bar room and saw Cunliffe standing at the bar. Missett went up to him and said:

"Hello, Cunliffe, what are you doing here?"

"Cunliffe turned around and pretended not to know Missett, who was sure of his man. Missett then said:

"Why, you know me. I'm Missett. You used to play policy with me in Bristol."

"Cunliffe still denied that he had ever seen Missett. Missett then left the bar room in a hurry, and when outside inquired the amount of the reward offered for the capture of Cunliffe. The next morning Missett went to New York and on reaching there visited the Pinkerton agency. He told the agents:

"Gentlemen," he said, "I know where Cunliffe is, and I want to know what reward is offered for him."

"He was told $25,000."

The Pinkerton people thought at first

that Missett was a crank, but he assured them that he was in earnest, and said that if the Pinkertons would give him a written agreement that he would get the reward if he told them where the missing man could be found, he would do so. This was agreed to and Missett told them. The arrest of Cunliffe followed.

Tonight Missett returned from New York with the $25,000 reward, and proceeded to spend it lavishly throughout the lower part of the city.

Why don't we advertise coffee? We do in the Knowledge Book.

that Missett was a crank, but he assured them that he was in earnest, and said that if the Pinkertons would give him a written agreement that he would get the reward if he told them where the missing man could be found, he would do so. This was agreed to and Missett told them. The arrest of Cunliffe followed.

Tonight Missett returned from New York with the $25,000 reward, and proceeded to spend it lavishly throughout the lower part of the city.

Why don't we advertise coffee? We do in the Knowledge Book.

that Missett was a crank, but he assured them that he was in earnest, and said that if the Pinkertons would give him a written agreement that he would get the reward if he told them where the missing man could be found, he would do so. This was agreed to and Missett told them. The arrest of Cunliffe followed.

Tonight Missett returned from New York with the $25,000 reward, and proceeded to spend it lavishly throughout the lower part of the city.

Why don't we advertise coffee? We do in the Knowledge Book.

that Missett was a crank, but he assured them that he was in earnest, and said that if the Pinkertons would give him a written agreement that he would get the reward if he told them where the missing man could be found, he would do so. This was agreed to and Missett told them. The arrest of Cunliffe followed.

Tonight Missett returned from New York with the $25,000 reward, and proceeded to spend it lavishly throughout the lower part of the city.

Why don't we advertise coffee? We do in the Knowledge Book.

that Missett was a crank, but he assured them that he was in earnest, and said that if the Pinkertons would give him a written agreement that he would get the reward if he told them where the missing man could be found, he would do so. This was agreed to and Missett told them. The arrest of Cunliffe followed.

Tonight Missett returned from New York with the $25,000 reward, and proceeded to spend it lavishly throughout the lower part of the city.

Why don't we advertise coffee? We do in the Knowledge Book.

that Missett was a crank, but he assured them that he was in earnest, and said that if the Pinkertons would give him a written agreement that he would get the reward if he told them where the missing man could be found, he would do so. This was agreed to and Missett told them. The arrest of Cunliffe followed.

Tonight Missett returned from New York with the $25,000 reward, and proceeded to spend it lavishly throughout the lower part of the city.

Why don't we advertise coffee? We do in the Knowledge Book.

that Missett was a crank, but he assured them that he was in earnest, and said that if the Pinkertons would give him a written agreement that he would get the reward if he told them where the missing man could be found, he would do so. This was agreed to and Missett told them. The arrest of Cunliffe followed.

Tonight Missett returned from New York with the $25,000 reward, and proceeded to spend it lavishly throughout the lower part of the city.

Why don't we advertise coffee? We do in the Knowledge Book.

that Missett was a crank, but he assured them that he was in earnest, and said that if the Pinkertons would give him a written agreement that he would get the reward if he told them where the missing man could be found, he would do so. This was agreed to and Missett told them. The arrest of Cunliffe followed.

Why don't we advertise coffee? We do in the Knowledge Book.

that Missett was a crank, but he assured them that he was in earnest, and said that if the Pinkertons would give him a written agreement that he would get the reward if he told them where the missing man could be found, he would do so. This was agreed to and Missett told them. The arrest of Cunliffe followed.

TWENTY-FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS

Pinkertons at First Thought He Was
A Crank—Did as He Said and Got
Their Man.

Bridgeport, Conn., Oct. 20.—The chances that the police will recover nearly the whole of the $101,000 stolen from the Adams Express company in Pittsburg by Edward G. Cunliffe, who was arrested here yesterday and taken to Pittsburg today, seems bright. Tonight $9,065 was found in a trunk belonging to a butler of a prominent family at Black Rock, but the butler and the family by whom he is employed are ignorant of the fact that the large sum found was within the house. Although there is a possibility that the remaining $10,500 has been destroyed, the police are of the opinion that another accomplice of Cunliffe may reveal the hiding place of the missing sum. In round numbers $30,000 has been found within the past 24 hours. After figuring on about $500 as the amount which Cunliffe has spent or which was found on him when arrested, there is left a sum of $10,500 yet to be accounted for. The discovery of the money in the Black Rock home tonight was brought about by keeping a close watch on one of Cunliffe's chance acquaintances, George Eisenman, who was with Cunliffe when he was arrested yesterday morning. According to Eisenman's story, he met Cunliffe in a cheap hotel Wednesday night, the two being together for some time. Cunliffe had a package with him and the men were about to leave each other. Cunliffe said that he wanted Eisenman to take care of the package, as it was laundry which he wanted to keep in a safe place. Eisenman took the bundle to his sister's house, 688 Ash street, and when alone opened it and found the big sum of money.

Capt. Arnold of the detective bureau knows Eisenman and saw him with Cunliffe when the latter was taken and went to the house of Eisenman's sister and found the bundle of shirts, but no money, and he suspected that Eisenman had abstracted a part of Cunliffe's plunder. Eisenman was shadowed all today and he was seen to give a small package to his friend the butler. Tonight Eisenman was taken to the Black Rock house and asked the butler for the package. He went to his trunk and turned it over to Capt. Arnold. In fact, the butler had been told what was in the package. Capt. Arnold would not reveal the name of the butler or the family which employed him. Eisenman was taken to police headquarters, but was released later.

Two other new features of the chapter of events in connection with the capture of Cunliffe cropped out today. One being an attempt by Cunliffe to bribe Capt. George Arnold of the local detective force, and the other being the story of betrayal by a friend of Cunliffe for the purpose of securing the reward of $25,000 offered by the Pinkertons for his arrest. During one of the talks last night the prisoner made a proposition to divide the $20,000 which he had sent to his brother-in-law, Joseph W. Boardman, in Bristol, on the promise of secrecy. Arnold was to have $10,000 if the scheme was carried out, according to the plans of the prisoner, who was to tell the Pittsburg authorities that the hiding place of the money would never be known. Arnold led the prisoner on his wild proposition and after Cunliffe's plans were laid bare to the city in which Cunliffe was captured. Last Tuesday Missett went in the Tremont hotel bar room and saw Cunliffe standing at the bar. Missett went up to him and said:

"Hello, Cunliffe, what are you doing here?"

"Cunliffe turned around and pretended not to know Missett, who was sure of his man. Missett then said:

"Why, you know me. I'm Missett. You used to play policy with me in Bristol."

"Cunliffe still denied that he had ever seen Missett. Missett then left the bar room in a hurry, and when outside inquired the amount of the reward offered for the capture of Cunliffe. The next morning Missett went to New York and on reaching there visited the Pinkerton agency. He told the agents:

"Gentlemen," he said, "I know where Cunliffe is, and I want to know what reward is offered for him."

"He was told $25,000."

The Pinkerton people thought at first

that Missett was a crank, but he assured them that he was in earnest, and said that if the Pinkertons would give him a written agreement that he would get the reward if he told them where the missing man could be found, he would do so. This was agreed to and Missett told them. The arrest of Cunliffe followed.

Tonight Missett returned from New York with the $25,000 reward, and proceeded to spend it lavishly throughout the lower part of the city.

Why don't we advertise coffee? We do in the Knowledge Book.

that Missett was a crank, but he assured them that he was in earnest, and said that if the Pinkertons would give him a written agreement that he would get the reward if he told them where the missing man could be found, he would do so. This was agreed to and Missett told them. The arrest of Cunliffe followed.

Tonight Missett returned from New York with the $25,000 reward, and proceeded to spend it lavishly throughout the lower part of the city.

Why don't we advertise coffee? We do in the Knowledge Book.

that Missett was a crank, but he assured them that he was in earnest, and said that if the Pinkertons would give him a written agreement that he would get the reward if he told them where the missing man could be found, he would do so. This was agreed to and Missett told them. The arrest of Cunliffe followed.

Tonight Missett returned from New York with the $25,000 reward, and proceeded to spend it lavishly throughout the lower part of the city.

Why don't we advertise coffee? We do in the Knowledge Book.

that Missett was a crank, but he assured them that he was in earnest, and said that if the Pinkertons would give him a written agreement that he would get the reward if he told them where the missing man could be found, he would do so. This was agreed to and Missett told them. The arrest of Cunliffe followed.

Tonight Missett returned from New York with the $25,000 reward, and proceeded to spend it lavishly throughout the lower part of the city.

Why don't we advertise coffee? We do in the Knowledge Book.

that Missett was a crank, but he assured them that he was in earnest, and said that if the Pinkertons would give him a written agreement that he would get the reward if he told them where the missing man could be found, he would do so. This was agreed to and Missett told them. The arrest of Cunliffe followed.

Tonight Missett returned from New York with the $25,000 reward, and proceeded to spend it lavishly throughout the lower part of the city.

Why don't we advertise coffee? We do in the Knowledge Book.

that Missett was a crank, but he assured them that he was in earnest, and said that if the Pinkertons would give him a written agreement that he would get the reward if he told them where the missing man could be found, he would do so. This was agreed to and Missett told them. The arrest of Cunliffe followed.

Tonight Missett returned from New York with the $25,000 reward, and proceeded to spend it lavishly throughout the lower part of the city.

Why don't we advertise coffee? We do in the Knowledge Book.

that Missett was a crank, but he assured them that he was in earnest, and said that if the Pinkertons would give him a written agreement that he would get the reward if he told them where the missing man could be found, he would do so. This was agreed to and Missett told them. The arrest of Cunliffe followed.

Tonight Missett returned from New York with the $25,000 reward, and proceeded to spend it lavishly throughout the lower part of the city.

Why don't we advertise coffee? We do in the Knowledge Book.

that Missett was a crank, but he assured them that he was in earnest, and said that if the Pinkertons would give him a written agreement that he would get the reward if he told them where the missing man could be found, he would do so. This was agreed to and Missett told them. The arrest of Cunliffe followed.

and blew his brains out. So far he has not been identified. The woman is a well known frequenter of the music halls. She was married some time ago to Nesbitt, but left him subsequently when he lost both arms in an elevator accident and assumed the name of Daly. The police are now looking for a woman named Price, who, it is said, was present during the occurrence but who fled when the shots were fired.

THIEF CUNLIFFE STARTS ON WAY BACK TO PITTSBURG

Bridgeport, Conn., Oct. 20.—Edward George Cunliffe, the Adams Express employee who disappeared from Pittsburg with $101,000 and was arrested here yesterday, started back to Pittsburg with the detectives today. He seemed more low spirited today than when first captured. He explained this by saying that he had hoped to arrange for lenient treatment after reaching Pittsburg by trading on his secret as to the whereabouts of the stolen money, but the fact that the detectives recovered $30,000 of the money at Bristol, Conn., last evening, removed the prisoner's hope in this respect.

After having been told by the detectives of the recovery of the money, Cunliffe said that he had burned the rest of the amount stolen, about $20,000, because the bills were all of large denomination and all on a certain bank.

T. L. HALLIDAY, Gen. Manager.

NEW STOCK. New Store. Everything the best. Our staff of employees are efficient and obliging.

Call and see our beautiful Soda Fountain.

When you have prescriptions entrust them to us, we guarantee satisfaction to all.

Make our store your headquarters before or after the theatres, or while waiting for street cars.

A delicious wholesome summer dessert.

Served as "Blanc Mange," according to our recipe book. Mailed free on request.

In two pound packages. Sealed to protect its purity and flavor. All good grocers.

Pacific Cereal Association
San Francisco, California

and making it dangerous for him to carry them about.

The discovery of the shipment of money to Bristol came about through a local driver for the Adams Express company, who after Cunliffe's arrest remembered that on Oct. 12 he was called to the Arlington hotel where Cunliffe had a room and was given a suit case to be shipped to Bristol, care of the Electric Express company. The driver informed the local manager of the Adams Express company yesterday of this circumstance and detectives were at once sent to Bristol, where they located the suit case at the home of a relative of Cunliffe, Joe W. Boardman. It had not been opened and contained $30,000 in bills together with some clothing.

Cunliffe, according to his own statement, did not spend more than $150 during the ten days which intervened between his departure from Pittsburg and his arrest.

Refined Sugar Reduced.
New York, Oct. 20.—All grades of refined sugar were reduced ten cents a hundred pounds today.

Man Confesses to Murder.

Cripple Creek, Colo., Oct. 21.—Geo. W. Plekens yesterday confessed to Sheriff Bell that he was guilty of the murder of P. E. Walsh at Leadville 12 years ago. He said he made the confession in order to save an innocent man who had been arrested in Iowa for the crime. The Leadville authorities have been communicated with, and in the meantime Plekens is in jail. Sheriff Bell does not attach much importance to the confession for the reason that Plekens had made untruthful confessions before.

State Fair Judges
give Husler's High
Patent and Husler's Graham First Prize Gold Medal.

The Halliday Drug Store. Finest in Utah

OPPOSITE SALT LAKE THEATRE.

Now Open To The Public and Doing Business.

INTERIOR HALLIDAY DRUG CO.

Photo by Shipley.

J. G. JACK, Secy. and Treas.

WE HAVE taken great care in the selection of Perfumes. Our supply is large, and the odor of every favorite flower can be had.

SOAPS.

All the well known manufacturers have been patronized by us, and it will be a pleasure for us to show you the goods.

Also all other Toilet preparations in the market.

SOME Great BARGAINS Saturday & Monday at Teets'

WE HAVE SOME SPECIAL VALUES FOR YOU IN GLASSWARE AND CROCKERY, HOSIERY AND UNDERWEAR, TIN AND GRANITWARE, ETC., ETC.

Glassware Bargains.

25c Water Bottles for.....15c
Large Berry Bowls worth 20c for.....10c
Nice glass Dessert Dishes.....3c
Salt or pepper Shakers each.....3c
Glass Butter Dishes worth 25c for.....10c
Good White Tea Cups and saucers.....5c
7 inch white plates.....5c

LADIES' HOSIERY and UNDERWEAR.

Ladies fleeced lined hose.....10c
Extra heavy fleeced lined hose.....15c
LADIES' ALL WOOL HOSE ONLY.....18c
Children's good seamless hose.....8-13 and 10c
LADIES' LONG SLEEVE UNDERWEAR.....12-14 and 10c
LADIES' MERCERIZED UNDERSKIRTS WORTH $1.50 FOR.....68c

Big Bargain in Soap.

10 BARS ROYAL LAUNDRY SOAP FOR.....25c
1 BOX OF ROYAL LAUNDRY SOAP OF 100 BARS FOR.....$2.30
WHICH IS LESS THAN THE MERCHANTS BILL IT.

Special Towel Bargains

200 Doz. heavy Turkish Towels 20x50 inches each.....12c
Extra heavy Turkish Towels 23x50 inches only.....20c
BEAUTIFUL 75c AND 85c TABLE DAMASK FOR.....55c
12 1-2c linen Crash for Towels.....8-13c

IF YOU WANT A BARGAIN IN CARPETS OR RUGS COME AND SEE US.

Men's Underwear

We have an immense line of Men's Underwear at prices ranging up from 25c

COME AND SEE WHAT WE HAVE.

Graniteware & Tinware

THESE ARE VALUES YOU DON'T FIND ANYWHERE ELSE.

25 and 30 Granite Coffee Pots Sale Price.....19c
Granite Dish Pans.....29 and 39c
COAL HODS.....20c
Double Granite Rice Boilers.....39c
SOLID COPPER NICKEL PLATED TEA KETTLES.....98c
Best Flour sifter made only.....10c

Notion Specials.

12 Doz. Shirt Buttons for.....5c
12 Doz. Pant Buttons for.....5c
COAT'S THREAD, PER DOZ.....48c
Rubber fine Combs.....3c and 5c
Metal back horn Combs.....5c
Hair Curlers.....5c
Kid Curlers.....5c
Stocking Darners.....3c
Ladies' Side Combs from 5c up

BARGAINS FOR THE KITCHEN.

These are bargains that YOU need.

Steel fire shovels.....5c
Tack Hammers.....5c
Tack Pullers.....3c
Can openers.....3c
Tea Strainers.....10c
Wardrobe hooks.....10c
Best sewing machine oil.....5c
Enamel Coffee Pot knobs.....10c
Paring Knives.....3c
Butcher Knives

LADIES' GOLF GLOVES 19c, 25c, 35c and up

Ladies' Hand Bags 25, 48 85c up

MEN'S CANVAS GLOVES 8c.

COME AND SEE US IF YOU WANT A BARGAIN IN HARDWARE OR ANYTHING ELSE.

REMEMBER THE PLACE F. M. TEETS, 122 SOUTH MAIN ST.

FIVE WITNESSES.

After struggling against Bright's Disease 18 years, Mrs. Adeline Sweet of San Francisco, aged 71, was told by her doctor she could not live. Under the treatment of the Everitt-Nash Fruit Co. she recovered. We asked several of the friends to attest the facts. Here they are:

San Francisco, Dec. 12, 1904. J. J. Fulton Co.—Dear Sirs: As requested, we visited Mrs. Adeline Sweet of 34 Oak street and found her a charming old lady, bright and sunny, her every word carrying conviction. She suffered from Bright's Disease for eighteen years and had been under the care of the best physicians, including Drs. Allen, Van and Irvine of Minneapolis and several others.

Early in November, 1902, they decided she could not live three days. Her next-door neighbor, Mrs. J. A. Everett, president of the Everitt-Nash Fruit Co. procured Fulton's Renal Compound for Bright's Disease and insisted upon her taking it. She commenced to rally, and is today a living testimonial to the value of this life-saving Compound. She took dozens of it, and although 74 years of age she is now well enough to visit friends, assist in the housekeeping and can do her own shopping. She closed, "I hope my story will reach and impress many suffering ones." Facts certified and approved by:

Witnessed, MRS. NEVADA PASTERER, 430 Geary St.

Witnessed, MRS. J. WADLER, 430 Geary St.

Witnessed, MRS. J. F. NOTMAN, 204 California St.

Witnessed, MRS. M. N. YANNOY, 204 California St.

Also by J. A. Everett, president Everitt-Nash Fruit Co., 312 Van Ness Ave.

In the discovery of Fulton's Renal Compound there was no cure for chronic Bright's Disease. Admitted medicine has claimed to cure it, but any of them have been no cure. Under Fulton's Disease about $7 per cent recover. Read for pamphlet.

F. J. Hill Drug Co., agents, Salt Lake.

Will Use Rockefeller's Money.

Northampton, Mass., Oct. 21.—The trustees of Smith college last night voted to use a fund donated by John D. Rockefeller for the erection of an assembly hall and a dormitory.

Lillian Daly Killed by a Man.

San Francisco, Oct. 20.—A woman named Mrs. Lillian Nesler, otherwise known as Lillian Daly, was shot and killed tonight by an unknown man in a rooming house at 338 Eddy street. After firing two shots at the woman the man turned the pistol on himself