

TWIN SULLIVAN IN BAD REPUTE

Fighter Jack is Not Thought Well
Of by Los Angeles
People.

ABOUT BOSTON PRODIGAL.

Johnny Wise Unburdens Himself and Gives Out a Few Surprising
Facts Concerning the Pug.

This is what John E. Wise has to say about Jack (Twin) Sullivan: Jack (Twin) Sullivan got nothing in his round battle with the Pueblo freeman the other night in Los Angeles.

As a matter of fact, Jack (Twin) Sullivan is "in bad" with the Los Angeles people. He is a bird who can sing but does not seem to care for music.

The Boston Prodigal is the man who wrote the old hit-and-catch game. He can fight all right without once being lured into a genuine exchange of wallops.

It is almost a cliché that every time Jack Sullivan starts he will be there at the end of the twenty rounds—and what is worse, so will the other fellow. Sullivan knows how to put a man away—

—better—but he is always harping on come back and fighting the same fellow again. He does not believe in running a good customer by skipping the sleep poke off his point.

John Twin has about worked Los Angeles to a standstill.

His fight before the Flynn affair was so bad that he should have been handed the black ball forthwith and chased out into the bush circuit. This was the Joe Thomas affair. Three times in that fight Sullivan had Thomas helpless and on the verge of a knockout, and every time this happened Jack began to back up and stall and help Thomas to recover and make some sort of a showing.

The only man that Jack ever knocked to sleep in Los Angeles was Jack Palmer, the former bum, who was defeated by Tommy Burns the other day in England. And then Sullivan nursed him along for eight rounds more than he should have lasted.

Another thing about the Massachusetts spendthrift, he is as foul a fighter as ever lived and never overlooks a chance to slap a man on the nose with the same rap as his forearm across the throat or to do a little backheeling. Jack has a most peculiar way of using his arms and clinches. He folds his forearm across his stomach and then throws the whole arm in, securing results with the whole length of his forearm. If he misses with the glove he lands with that whalebone wrist of his, which is worse than an up-percut delivered with the glove.

Eton, the Los Angeles referee, has been in nearly all of Twin's contests in Southern California and now he declares this sort of an ultimatum before the fight begins.

TWIN, I'M GOING TO TELL YOU BEFORE YOU START THIS TIME. LET ME SEE YOU USE THAT ELBOW JUST ONCE AND I'LL KICK YOUR BUTT INTO THE AUDIENCE."

And then the Twin rolls his pale eyes. "This is the third time I've told you, let me see you use that elbow and I'll discipline you," says Eton. "Third time," says Sullivan, rolling his skin-milk eye. "Excuse me, mister Eton, but I don't hear very good in that ear."

Jack Twin has worn out his welcome in Los Angeles. He is a dead one in San Francisco, because of his rotten fight with Kaufman, and it would appear that the bald-headed hit-and-catch boy is up

BASEBALL COMMISSION.

AUTOS IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, Feb. 26.—The Italian car and the French car No. 1, the first of the foreign entrants in the New York-to-Panama automobile race to reach Chicago, arrived at 6:30 tonight. The American car, which came in last, was the San Francisco car.

The French car No. 2 and the German car were reported in the vicinity of South Bond, Ind. The start on the second stage of the journey was delayed to permit of repairs to the automobiles after their experience with the almost impassable roads over which they have come. The contestants were escorted from Hammond, Ind., by an imposing file of cars of all descriptions, which had gone out early in the afternoon. The number of cars composing the escort grew as the city was approached, until when the foreign cars swept down Michigan avenue and into Jackson boulevard, they headed a procession of fully a dozen cars that extended along the avenue for nearly a mile.

From Hobart, Ind., which was passed at 1:30 this afternoon, the contestants fought for the lead with varying success. When they pulled up in front of the club house of the Chicago Automobile club honors were even.

The occupants of the cars will be guests at a banquet tomorrow night to be given by the Chicago club. It is expected that the French, Italian and German contestants will attend.

The new record was made in a match race with C. D. Truett, who had the New York Athletic club but was beaten by five or six inches by Daniels.

With Title.

WORTH SIXTY MILLIONS.

On Eve of Her Marriage She Makes
Gifts Amounting to $685,000 to Many Relatives and Societies.

New York, Feb. 26.—Mrs. Anna M. Weightman Walker of Philadelphia, one of the richest women in America, was married today to Frederick C. Penfield, in St. Patrick's cathedral. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Penfield sailed for Europe. The ceremony was performed by Archbishop Farley. There were two witnesses.

Mrs. Penfield is the daughter of the late William Weightman of Philadelphia, who is said to have bequeathed to her almost the whole of his estate, estimated to have been worth $60,000,000. Mrs. Penfield's first husband was Congressman J. C. Walker who died four years ago. Mr. Penfield was formerly connected with a Hartford (Conn.) newspaper, was vice consul to London, United States consul to Egypt and is an author, fellow of the Royal Geographical society and a member of the best known clubs in New York.

Philadelphia, Feb. 26.—Within a few hours after the marriage of Mrs. Anna Weightman Walker to Frederick C. Penfield in New York today, her attorney in this city announced on behalf of the bride the following gifts to relatives and institutions:

A deed of trust under which $600,000 is set aside for the benefit of her nephew and five nieces, and $200,000 for the benefit of her great-nephews and nieces in equal portions.

Fifty thousand dollars to the College of Physicians in this city, as a memorial to her father, the late William Weightman.

Forty thousand dollars to the Franklin Institute in this city to carry out a contract gift made as a memorial to her father.

Fifty thousand dollars to the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, as a memorial to her first husband, Robert J. C. Walker.

Twenty thousand dollars to the Society to Protect Children from Cruelty of Philadelphia.

Twenty thousand dollars to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

Five thousand dollars to the Professor George Allen memorial in the University of Pennsylvania, and a similar amount to the library fund of the Perkins Memorial Seminary of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Penfield is a daughter of the late William Weightman, a wealthy manufacturing chemist of this city. As the only surviving child, she was the sole heir to Mr. Weightman's great fortune, and her wealth has been estimated at from $40,000,000 to $60,000,000.

Mrs. Penfield's first husband, the late J. C. Walker, who was a Pennsylvania member of the Forty-seventh Congress, and a well known lawyer of Williamsport, Pa., he died in 1902.

Mrs. Penfield had two brothers who died, leaving six children. After the death of Mr. Weightman, Mrs. Jones Wester, wife of one of the brothers, attempted to break the will in the interest of her daughter. In making her gifts, Mrs. Penfield says that but for the attempt to break her father's will she would have previously made a deed of trust for the benefit of the nieces and nephews similar to one which had been provided by Mr. Weightman.
