In 1863 Henry Smith was added; in 1865 John Fox, and in 1866 James Hayes; in 1869 Isaac I. Oliver and Andrew J. Blakely were added. The last two did not know all that was going on, but they got their "rake in." Then the board of supervisors was abolished. The Tweed ring had nothing to do with the supervisor's ring. The International Cereal Fair.

WASHINGTON, 6.—Dispatches received at the department of state from the United States Secretary of Legation at Vienns, give an account of the opening of the International Cereal Fair on the 10th of August, in the rotunda of the vast edifice in the prater, in which the Exposition of 1878 was held in that Expectation of 1873 was held in that eity. The following average in quality and quantity is given: Good, to very good rye, Hungary excepted; very good barley, better than was expected; good potatoes and beets in excellent condition, although the potato rot has appeared in some districts; hops, good in Bohemia, not so good in other provinces, middling average, although oldium has extended its ravages into many new districts. Good general vintage is expected.

A Vienna correspondent, tele-graphing on Thursday night, says, it is now settled that Count An-drassy and Prince Bismarck will meet on September 12th or 15th, at Salzburg. In ministerial circles it is maintained that this is merely an act of courtesy. It is admitted, however, that the chances of fu-menting upon the abandonment of a public funeral for M. Thiors says, the funeral will assume the character of a party demonstration, and in the present exited state of the public mind it is looked forward to with some apprehensions. Violent articles in the Bonspartist press, especially the Pays, seems designedly to provoke the public to a branch of the peace. Le Dejence says, all political manifestations will be put down with the utmost rigor. Cuirassiers who have been out manceuvering for some days have been recalled to Paris.
