

The students of the college joined a campaign against the practice of organizing a residential society. Their letter was submitted to the board and a decision reached in the affirmative.

Miss Helen Deane was chosen as general chairman, having first secured permission in the curriculum of the students.

A number of the women are now working. Just how much is understood yet, will be seen as the work of the year is completed.

The cause is ethnographic, not only racial progress.

[illegible]