A YOUNG TOUGH SENTENCED. Four Years fot Intimidation - Thornton Goes Free - Standerer Fined $180.

Special Correspondence. Parowan, Utah, Sept. 30.-In the case of the state vs James Thornton, charged with grand larceny, which has been in progress for the past three days, the jury just brought in a verdict of "not guilty," and the defendant was discharged. A new set of jurymen was partially empanneled to set on the case of the state vs Nathaniel Pryor, charged with assault with deadly weapon, court adjourned until Thursday at 10 a. m.

SENT UP FOUR YEARS.

At the trial yesterday the defendant was found guilty and was this morn-ing sentenced by Judge Marioneaux to four years in the state prison. Pryor is a young man, only 19 years of age, but is evidently a bad character accord-ing to the evidence. He met two young man on the Cedar mountain last 24th men on the Cedar mountain last 24th of July and asked them if they had seen some horses he had lost, and being told by the boys that they had. Pryor went to the place indicated by the boys, not finding them, the return-ed in pursuit of the young men, and after finding them and telling them in no uncertain terms that they had not told him the truth, ordered them to go back to his camp. This they refused to do so he took a shot at one This they of the young men, barely missing him. He then marched them at the point of his rifle to his camp to give an account of themselves for telling falsehoods.

A SLANDERER SENTENCED.

Walker, the slandered, who was brought up on a charge of imputing unchastity to a very estimable young lady of St. George, came into court this morning and withdrew his plea of

The fellow's excuse for this offense was that he had been drinking that day and did not know what he was saying. Walker was fined by the court $150, and in default of payment is to serve the fine out in the county jail at the rate of a dollar a day for each do, far of the fine,
