

investigation of all history is false. Human power has been used in all cases. Its nature is safe. Despite adverse events, China has relied on men of its value to the interests of the nation.

"Are we to be held like slaves? Can we consent to an instant the infringement of any power shall make us subject to it? and every man of us bid for his life?"—The Patriotic Daily News. Therefore you must see just as strongly as ever that we are not. More difficult, but after that, the question is, what can we do?

The man will still forward as fast as we can build the ship.

"What is the best way to build the ship of the Hawaiian Islands and our Pacific coast? There is no better way than to have the people of the Hawaiian Islands and our Pacific coast share the work of the ship."

"The American people are now that deeper concern. If we are not willing, there are essential steps to take for a defense of our Western coast from the Japanese. We must be prepared to defend the coast against the enemy."

"When do you think of the capital of the Hawaiian Islands and the Pacific Ocean?"

"They are timely and welcome. The return of greatness has come."

"Will the Chinese govern themselves?"

"They go on. We have made them free from the Spanish and their destiny is in their own hands."

WICHITA, KAN., Aug. 28.—Twenty soldiers of the 24th U.S. Cavalry, who were returning from their tour in the Philippines, were en route to the coast when they were attacked by a band of rebels. Five officers and twenty privates were injured, but none seriously. Four horses were badly damaged and the men all got scattered.

Miss Elizabeth of Korea was sent over by Dr. John Price, surgeon of the regiment, to the hospital at Quezon, where she is now located.

George Morrison, Mrs. Morris, of Wichita, arrived from his tour in the Philippines.

M. F. Terry, another soldier, came back to town.

The Indians were here on Wednesday.

Waiting the Queen.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—John May, the representative of Sir James, who has been engaged the services of a secretary of state at Washington in connection with the negotiations of the United States and other countries, went to London, last Friday, to meet the Queen, who is to leave for Queen Victoria's estate, which is at Windsor.

Sir May was also invited to Osborne House to wait for him, owing to the fact that she was about to leave the country.

The Queen is to leave on Saturday at Plymouth and will convey him to Cowes.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., Aug. 28.—The first death from last night's accident on the Louisville & Nashville railroad, which caused a train to run off the track, was reported to be Captain W. C. McGehee, who was killed in the accident.

J. H. Manning, of Birmingham, was taken from a comatose fracture of the skull and is expected to die.

W. D. Scott, of Birmingham, was admitted to the hospital, although about twenty-five persons are at the hospital, and are receiving medical treatment, drugs, and other articles.

A number of the regiment left here for Birmingham at 4 o'clock this morning.

Postponed for a Week.

BANFF, CANADA, Aug. 28.—The habeas corpus proceedings for the trial of the two men who were arrested from the service of the British Columbia Mounted Police, were postponed for a week.

Mr. McGehee, of Birmingham, will appear before the court on Sept. 4.

White House Destroyed.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—The White House was almost destroyed today. The absence of the President kept the public in suspense, but the news of the marked daily routine of the President's life in the past few weeks, and even the number of sightings who got through the secret service, had given the public some idea of what was to be expected.
