

WILL CONTINUE HARRIMAN POLICY

Made Certain by Election of His Personal Counsel as Chairman Executive Committee.

U. P. WITHOUT A PRESIDENT.

L. F. Lorce of the Delaware & Hudson, Probably Will be Elected To the Position.

New York, Sept. 13.—The continuance of the Harriman policy in the management of the Union Pacific, Southern Pacific and the chain of allied railroads was made certain today, temporarily at least, when Robert S. Lovett, E. H. Harriman's personal counsel and close friend, was elected to succeed Mr. Harriman at the head of the Union Pacific executive committee.

To strengthen further its dominance of the "Harriman idea," Jacob H. Schiff and William Rockefeller were elected directors in place of Mr. Harriman and the late Henry H. Rogers, and were chosen to place on the executive committee.

The Union Pacific remains without a president, as Mr. Harriman occupied this position also. It is understood, however, that an incoming man—probably L. F. Lorce, president of the Delaware & Hudson—will be elected by the stockholders Oct. 12. Proxies for this meeting already are in the hands of Judge Lovett and Alexander Miller, secretary of the Union Pacific, and soon to guarantee that election will be dictated by the Harriman interests.

JUDGE LOVETT'S OFFICE.

Judge Lovett's office is the most important in the management and financial supervision of the Union Pacific. His close association with Mr. Harriman made him, in the opinion of the Harriman lieutenants, peculiarly fitted to assume the responsibilities of the position. He and Mr. Lorce are closely familiar with Mr. Harriman's plans and dreams for the undeveloped territory over which he hoped to push the ascendancy of his railroad systems.

The Southern Pacific directors will meet tomorrow. It is taken for granted that their action is fully forecasted by today's meeting, that Judge Lovett will be seated as chairman of the executive committee also. In Mr. Harriman's place, with Jacob H. Schiff or some other partner in the firm of Kahn, Loeb & Company at his right hand as director and member of the executive committee.

Wall Street manifested more than usual interest in the election, in view of the rumors that a member of J. P. Morgan & Company would be elected to the Union Pacific board. No such change developed and, as it stands today, the executive committee remains in the balance of the street, a Kahn-Loeb-Standard Oil board.

Forbes, besides Judge Lovett, Jacob H. Schiff and William Rockefeller, the members are H. C. Frick of Pittsburgh, Marvin Hughitt, president of the Chicago & North-western, and Frank A. Vanderbilt of the National City bank.

MORGAN INTERESTS IGNORED.

The failure of the Morgan interests to gain a place on the reconstructed board was a surprise to Wall Street.

good health, with its blessings, must understand, quite clearly, that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best, each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to living right. Then the use of medicines may be dispensed with to advantage, but under ordinary conditions in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time and the California Fig Syrup Co. holds that it is alike important to present the subject truthfully and to supply the one perfect laxative to those desiring it.

Consequently, the Company's Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Soda gives general satisfaction. To get its beneficial effects buy the genuine, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and for sale by all leading druggists.

where the last week's rumors had been given general credence. It was pointed out tonight, however, that possibly the Morgan interests, fearing disastrous results from any radical changes at this time, may have purposely postponed the selection of a representative and the regular annual election in October.

Of the two new members, the election of Jacob H. Schiff attracted the widest comment, for the reason that the firm of Kahn, Loeb & Co. formally withdrew a few years ago from active participation in the management of all the railroads for which they acted as bankers. No statement could be obtained from Mr. Schiff as to the apparent change, but it was authoritatively stated that the interests of Kahn, Loeb & Co. and of their powerful foreign connections had become so important in Union Pacific that it was believed unwise for the firm longer to remain aloof from participation in the government of the road.

Judge Lovett, who now becomes for the moment one of the most prominent railroad men in the public eye, came to New York City in 1906. Born in Texas 49 years ago, he entered the railroad business while a boy as a $40 a month freight clerk for the Houston, East & West Texas railroad at Houston. While serving as a freight clerk, he studied law at night and eventually became a country counsel for the road, journeying from village to village and devoting his talents principally to settling cattle claims cases.

Later the receivers made him a district counsel, and his success in straightening out the affairs of the bankrupt company won him promotion to the position of general counsel. His next step was membership in a firm which represented the Southern Pacific. He became so valuable to this system under Mr. Harriman that he was made general counsel, with offices at Houston.

Three years ago Mr. Harriman brought him to this city.

JOHN A. CASTLES COMMITTS SUICIDE

President of Union Trust Company Cuts His Throat in New York Hotel.

LEFT NO NOTE TO EXPLAIN.

Brother Assigns Nervous Breakdown
As Cause of Act—Had Been Under Surveillance.

New York, Sept. 13.—John A. Castles, president of the Union Trust company and a director of other well known corporations, committed suicide tonight by cutting his throat at the Grand Union hotel.

His body was found shortly before 3 o'clock tonight by his brother, Burton S. Castles, who immediately summoned a physician, but Mr. Castles was beyond aid. He left no note in his pocket, and his brother ascribed his act to a nervous breakdown.

According to the hotel management, Mr. Castles, accompanied by his brother, as and a friend, Ed Spring, came to the hotel three days ago and secured adjoining rooms.

The brother intended, according to the hotel authorities, to look after Mr. Castles while he was in such a nervous condition, and Mr. Spring volunteered his assistance.

TRAGEDY REVEALED.

For some reason the banker was left alone and on returning Burton S. Castles found his door locked. In alarm the door was forced open and the tragedy revealed.

Mr. Castles is survived by his widow, Elizabeth, and a daughter and two sons, Francis and John A. Castles.

The Union Trust company, of which Mr. Castles was president, is one of the largest institutions of its kind in the city, and is situated at No. 80 Broadway, in the heart of the financial district. Up to 1905 it was paying dividends of 50 per cent, and is now considered one of the strongest banks in the country. Its surplus and profits amount to $8,797,770 and its loans and discounts to $33,184,690, while the deposits total nearly $60,000,000.

Mr. Castles also was a director of the Central North Park and East River railroad company; the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway company; the Hanover National bank of this city, and other corporations. He was United States trustee for the Northern Assurance company, limited, London.

John V. P. Taylor, secretary and vice president of the Union Trust company, said tonight that Mr. Castles had been in poor health for some months, suffering with a general nervous breakdown. He said that financial matters had no bearing whatever on the case.

DID HE TAKE POISON?

On a dresser near the bed there was an eight-ounce bottle unlabeled, but containing a pungent acid. Whether Mr. Castles had taken any of this before cutting his throat had not been ascertained tonight.

Mr. Castles had little connection with the Union Trust company since assuming the presidency of the institution on Jan. 1 last, when he succeeded Edward King.

Not long ago Mr. Castles' condition became so serious that he was sent to a sanitarium at Kerkira, N. Y., where he remained for three months. At times he returned to New York accompanied by an attendant. On Wednesday last he came down on the latest of these trips and for the first time during his illness was allowed to go to the bank today unattended.

Alexander S. Cochran, a director of the Union Trust company, speaking officially for that institution, declared the suicide had no bearing whatever upon financial matters. He was simply an overworked man, was Mr. Cochran's explanation.

Coming originally from the south, where he was well known in Texas and Louisiana, Mr. Castles moved to New York to assume the presidency of the Guarantee Trust company several years ago. But in the latter part of last year he resigned this position and on the opening of the New York became president of the Union Trust company.

The Union Trust company numbers among its directors the most prominent men in the city, including W. Edwin Ross, James S. Taylor, Walter Douglas, Adrian S. Kelly, and others. Augustus W. Kelley, the first vice president, has conducted the affairs of the institution during Mr. Castles' illness. Mr. Castles has large interests in Texas and was at one time president of the Hibernian Trust company of New Orleans.

SICKLY SENTIMENTALITY.

Does as Much as Anything Else to Promote Crime, Says Illinois Judge.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"Sickly sentimentality" does as much as any other one thing to promote crime, according to William N. Gammell in an address delivered last night before the Douglas Neighborhood club.

"During the last two years a wave of sentiment has spread over this entire community that does nothing less than foster anarchy," he said.

"It is a weakly, silly, give-a-man-another-chance idea that is virtually knocking the props from under our laws. There are 200 professional pickpockets in Chicago. They are brought before me day after day in court and always they ask for a jury trial. I have kept count of these trials and nine times out of 10 these pickpockets are set free and go back to ply their nefarious vocations again."

"Maudlin sentimentality is to blame for all of this. This must cease or society will go to pieces."

Many people delude themselves by saying "it will wear away," when they notice symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble. This is a mistake. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy, and stop the drain on the vitality. It cures backache, rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble, and makes every trace of pain, weakness, and urinary trouble disappear. F. HORSE SPREADS HAYOC AMONG A BIG CROWD

New York, Sept. 14.—Mounted Patrolman William Thompson is believed to be dying in the Coney Island hospital, another officer is there suffering from severe injuries, and Walter Staude and his wife and son are under care of doctors following an accident which spread terror through the enormous crowd at Coney Island. The celebration of Mardi Gras week, which closes the season at the popular resort, had just begun when some one threw a handful of confetti at Mounted Policeman Charles Stevenson's horse.

The frightened animal threw his rider and fell on him. Getting to his feet again, the horse started through the crowd, pursued by Thompson. As the latter attempted to stop the runaway he was dragged from his own saddle and both horses fell on him and knocked a number of merry-makers down. In rising the horses kicked over an automobile in which the Staude family were riding. Thompson's skull was fractured and three ribs were broken and at the hospital it was said he would die. Stevenson was internally injured. It required the entire police reserve to restore order.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Edgar N. Bayliss, a merchant of Robinsonville, Del., wrote: "About two years ago I was thin and sick, and coughed all the time and if I did not have consumption, it was near to it. I commenced using Foley's Honey and Tar, and it stopped my cough, and I am now entirely well, and have gained twenty-eight pounds, all due to the good results from taking Foley's Honey and Tar." F.
