FRAGMENTS.

Decorations day will be observed on Monday, the 18th inst.

One drunk was registered at the City Hall this afternoon.

The thermometer reached 90 degrees in the shade at 1 p. m. to-day.

The "Mixed Pickles" engagement closes at the Theatre this evening.

The Home Dramatic Club will appear in "Guv'nor" at the Theatre on Decoration Day.

The Utah Central northbound passenger train this morning had three Pullman cars attached.

About 25 men went north on this morning's Utah Central train, to work on the Oregon Short Line.

The "Theatre programme," issued by Graham & Co., has been considerably improved in appearance.

A novelty in the shape of a broadsword combat will take place on Washington Square on Saturday afternoon.

The Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone Company will soon issue a new directory, embracing all the names in this circuit.

Do not forget the meetings of the Relief Society of the 17th Ward, to-morrow at 3 p. m. All interested should attend.

The nuisance inspector is looking for the individual who had the old tin cans collected in the streets.

The old tin must go.

Prof. Evan Stephens, who returned from the East on Saturday evening, will leave for his home in Malad this afternoon.

G. E. Stanley, Esq., British Consul at San Francisco, went north to Yellowstone Park this morning. Mrs. Stanley remains in Salt Lake.

The auditorium of the District Court room to-day looked like an abandoned home.

The lawyers spent their eloquence upon empty benches.

There is a letter at this office from Auckland, New Zealand, addressed to Mr. J. S. Williams, Salt Lake City, which the owner can have by calling for it.

AZHO KEECH, the unfortunate fireman who was so badly injured in the accident on the Utah & Northern on Wednesday last, died at the U. P. hospital in Ogden yesterday.

The practice of letting animals roam around the streets is being followed by a number of stockowners. The officers are also gathering the loose cattle and horses into the estray pound.

SOME one brought from a Sanpete mine was assayed here yesterday, and showed, silver, $40.04; copper, $21.25; gold, $1.25. This being from the top is considered by experts as a very fine showing.

Various parties have been indulging in fast and reckless driving to such an extent near Liberty Park and at other places in the city that the officers have concluded to inaugurate a vigorous enforcement of the ordinance violated.

Mr. JAMES SOLOMON, of the firm of Solomon Bros. & Gold, to-day had some specimens of an excellent variety of asparagus, known as the "Conover Colossal." The vegetable was grown in the 10th Ward, and is very fine.

In a drunken row in Brown's Canon, Colorado, on Friday night, Boon Nienmeyer fatally stabbed John O'Malley with a bowie knife, the blade entering in front of the shoulder blade and penetrating through the ribs and into the region of the heart. The difficulty grew out of the bad feeling that is existing between the charcoal burners at Pedrick and Pike's kilns in that vicinity.

JAMES L. HUGHES, who was tried in the justice's court yesterday afternoon for assault on Thos. Gillespie, in Whittemore's saloon, was fined $10. Whittemore, who was charged with an assault on Alex. Gillespie, of the 16th Ward, was discharged, it having been shown that Gillespie was boisterous and that Whittemore was justified in his course. Alex. Gillespie was not arrested, as he had skipped before the officers arrived.

We received a pleasant call to-day from Messrs. Marcus C. Hawley, Fred B. Gurney and George B. Miller, who are viewing the sights in this vicinity, in company with Mr. Arthur Stayer.

Mr. Hawley is of the firm of Hawley Brothers, New York and San Francisco, dealers in agricultural implements and hardware; Mr. Gurney is an importer and dealer in cutlery, New York, and Mr. Miller represents the firm of Wallace & Sons, brass and copper rolling mills, New York.

LOCAL NEWS.

Theatre.—The following attractions are announced at the Theatre for the following month:

May 20—Day Nursery and Orphans' Home benefit.

Decorations Day—Home Dramatic Club in the "Guv'nor."

May 21st and 22nd—"A Pair of Kids" Company.

June 10th, 11th and 12th—George C. Miln & Company.

June 14th and 15th—Birch & Cotton's San Francisco Minstrels.

June 16th, 17th, 18th and 19th—Mile Right.

Welcome Home.—We received a call to-day from Brother Evan Stephens, the well-known and esteemed musician, who returned from Boston on Saturday evening. The hosts and friends of the gentleman will join in bidding him a hearty welcome. We understand he has made excellent progress in his adopted profession, for which he has a devoted and passionate fondness. He is not one of those who will hide his light under a bushel, and the public will doubtless largely have the benefit of his later acquisitions in the theory and practice of music. Utah owes him a good deal already in the line of her advancement in that direction, and we bespeak her farther indebtedness. Brother Stephens purposes taking up his residence in this city.

Broadsword Combat.—On Saturday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, Washington Square is to be the scene of an attraction new to this locality. The announcement is made that a grand mounted sword contest for $1,000 and the championship of the world, is to take place between Duncan C. Ross and Capt. C. McDermott, Richard K. Fox being the stakeholder. Mr. Ross claims the championship of the world as an athlete and swordsman, and has taken part in several successful tournaments in San Francisco, which place he leaves to-day for Salt Lake. Capt. McDermott, formerly of Boston, has the same of being one of the best mounted swordsmen in the world. He recently arrived in this city from the City of Mexico, and is en route to the Pacific Coast.

HON. JOEL GROVER.

A SKETCH OF HIS CAREER.

By the aid of Brother W. A. C. Bryan

we are enabled to give some details in the relation to the late Hon. Joel Grover. He is the son of Thomas and Hannah T. Grover, was born at Farmington, Davis County, Utah, March 14th, 1849.

He died of hepatic colic (passing of gall stones) at his residence in Nephi, Juab County, Utah, at 11:30 p. m., May 13th, 1892. He was the first white male child born in Davis County. He was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, when eight years of age, at the Annual Conference of 1867 he was called by President Heber C. Kimball to go on a mission to Europe. He crossed on his mission May 12th, 1867, starting the plains most of the way by boat, and arrived in Liverpool, England, July 29th. He labored faithfully in the Kent and Glasgow conferences two years, preaching the Gospel, and after having completed his mission, to the satisfaction of the Presidency, was released on the 14th and departed from Liverpool in the steamship Colorado, homeward bound, July 28th, 1869, arriving at his home in Farmington, August 20th.

December 5th, 1869, he was married to Mary Ann, daughter of Dr. William Richards, upon which occasion President Brigham Young predicted that Brother Grover would occupy prominent positions of usefulness in the Kingdom of God.

He was elected to the office of a High Priest and called to preside over the Juab Stake of Zion. Subsequently there being changes in the presidency, he has been First Counselor therein. He has been a leading figure in the affairs of the Stake, and in matters pertaining to the welfare and prosperity of the Stake.

In 1873 he was elected a Representative to the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah, and has since that time been repeatedly elected Representative and Councilor, and has been well recognized and admired as a wise and able Representative of the people. In 1875 he was elected to the office of Selectman, and in 1878 to that of Probate Judge for Juab County, and he held the latter office at the time of his demise.

He was an extensive stockholder in the Nephi Mercantile and Nephi Mill and Manufacturing Institutions, and held the offices of President and Superintendent of the store and Secretary and Superintendent of the Mill. He was prominently identified in all of the public institutions of the Stake, and was a very liberal subscriber to every legitimate enterprise and industry organized since his arrival in Nephi.

In the First National Bank of Nephi, about to be organized, he was a subscriber for a considerable amount, and at the preliminary meeting was chosen for one of its directors.

As a financier he was of the first order, and his judgment and executive ability were quick and firm. He was a close, affectionate and lasting friend, and while being a faithful Latter-day Saint and having the love and confidence of the authorities and people of the Church, he was broad, liberal and charitable, to such an extent as to gain the admiration and confidence of every class.

On the evening of the 13th inst., Brother Grover and his wife had been out riding and had only just returned home, when he was seized with a violent cramp in the stomach, it being then about 7:30 o'clock. Doctors Don and Ashby were immediately summoned, and the Elders of the Church were sent for and everything was done that could be done to counteract the disease, but nothing seemed to have any effect, and after much suffering in a short time, he passed away at 11:35 o'clock.

The news of his death caused a most sudden shock and spread a gloom over the entire community. The town was draped in mourning and flags put at half-mast.

During his lifetime Brother Grover having expressed his desire that when he should die his remains should be taken direct from his home to the tomb, and that there should be no funeral sermon over his remains, his wish was carried out, the obsequies commencing at his late residence, and after singing by the Nephi Tabernacle Choir and prayer by Apostle H. J. Grant, the multitude assembled to attend the funeral service at the home of the deceased.

The funeral service was held at 4 p. m. and adjourned to the Nephi Tabernacle, where the afternoon services were devoted to remarks in relation to the deceased. The Tabernacle was draped for the occasion, and combined with the devotion expressed, presented a most solemn aspect.

The speakers were President Charles Sperry, George Kendall, Mathew McCune and Wm. A. C. Bryan, personal friends and intimate acquaintances of the deceased.

Deceased leaves a wife, five children, a mother and numerous other relations to mourn his departure. His friends and the entire community retain an affectionate remembrance of the departed, who was loved and respected by all who associated with him in life.

The Coming Benefit Entertainment.—The managers of the Day Nursery and Orphans' Home Entertainment to be given at the Salt Lake Theatre on Thursday, the 20th inst., announce that Governor West has kindly consented to make a short address on that occasion. He is deeply interested in this undertaking and is thoroughly conversant with work of a similar nature elsewhere and a rare treat may be expected.

This entertainment will be remembered as an appropriation from the Legislature. They are now striving to keep alive until the coming session will relieve them from their present straitened circumstances. The object is a charitable one and besides the entertainment will be of very particular interest. For these reasons doubtless a full house will reward the efforts of the promoters. Admission—parquet, 75 cents; first circle, 50 cents; second circle, 25 cents.

Just the Thing.—A few days ago we mentioned a means of exterminating that formidable enemy to orchards—the codling moth—suggested by the proprietors of the Geneva (N. Y.) Nursery. The material to be used was a small amount of Paris green in a given quantity of water, to be sprinkled upon the trees by means of a portable pump.

Henry Bartlett, of Springfield, Utah County, is agent for "Lewis's combination force pump," a contrivance admirably adapted for the purpose.

Mrs. FREDERICK B. WELLS, editor of the Women's Exponent, who has been an energetic worker for the cause of woman, while in Washington for some weeks past, returned to her home, last evening. Her many friends bid her a hearty welcome.

THEATRE.—For one who wants to

"laugh and grow fat," without regard to the cause or its consistency, "Mixed Pickles" is the hands of the AMERICAN AUDIENCES, as a rule, care little for the moral of a comedy; so long as it amuses them, they will be satisfied. This, no doubt, is the secret of the popularity of such pieces as "Mixed Pickles," its prototype, "The Strategists," and others, which, like "Peck's Bad Boy," are essentially of a famous character.

Mr. Polk, as "Joseph Pickle," was the same jolly, talented, mischievous, mirth-maker as ever, a veritable prince among comedians. Next in merit, Mr. Melville as "Hiram Brown" convulsed the audience. Miss Polk made a very nice "Cherry Brown" and sang the "Nightingale's Trio" with such effect as to obtain an encore.

Carrie Carter, our old Salt Lake friend, appeared as "Lucinda Seigisms," an old maid, which she played admirably. "Deacon Jordan," a caricature on his cloth, was most effectively presented by Mr. Rainford, and Mr. Parker played the Reverent Arthur Pickle, with whom his mischievous, devil-may-care brother got so badly "mixed," as evenly and modestly as the nature of the part demanded. Mrs. Meek as Mrs. Brown, and Miss Cotter as "Susie," did equally good service as they had opportunity. To-night the piece will be again presented, doubtless to another fair house.

The Crusade at Ogden.—About 3 o'clock on Sunday morning deputies visited the residence of A. J. Kershaw, in Ogden, and placed that gentleman under arrest. Afterward, guided by a youth from Riverdale—James Thompson—called at Wm. Stimpson's and served a warrant of arrest upon Mr. Stimpson. These two gentlemen were taken to Ogden, where Mr. Kershaw was yesterday arraigned to plead to two indictments charging him with living with and acknowledging his wives, contrary to the Edmunds law. His bonds were fixed at $1,800, and his plea will be made to-morrow (Wednesday) for which day the trial is also set. Mr. Stimpson's family were taken before the grand jury, who soon returned an indictment, and to-day the defendant was required to be present for arraignment, his bail being fixed at $1,800.

In obedience to an order issued yesterday by Judge Powers, Marshal Ireland took to Ogden, this morning, from the penitentiary, Amos Maycock, Helen H. Tracy, Ambrose Greenwell and John Bergen. Joseph H. Dean and George C. Wood were also arrested and taken to Ogden for arraignment.

Messrs. Dean, Wood and Bergen were called to plead to indictments recently found, charging each of them with polygamy. Mr. Dean answered not guilty, and the others will plead on Thursday.

Messrs. Maycock, Tracy and Greenwell were arraigned on two indictments each, charged with unlawful cohabitation with their wives. These three brethren are the first in such cases additional indictments have been pressed before sentence on the first had expired. W. G. Saunders was also arraigned on one charge of unlawful cohabitation. All of them took until Thursday next at 10 a. m., when their trials will proceed. C. C. Richards, Esq., acting as their attorney.

Mr. Barnard White was placed on trial to-day, on two charges of unlawful cohabitation.

Gladstone's Motion Carried.

LONDON, 18.—Mr. Gladstone, in the House of Commons this afternoon, moved that the House devote four nights out of the five given to parliamentary business every week, to debate on the Home Rule bill. The Premier's proposal produced a sensation, as it had come to be generally believed, without any clear or definite reason why, that the Government had given up the hope of carrying their measure and would bring on a crisis as early as possible.

An excited discussion at once followed Gladstone's motion; during this both sides to the controversy revealed their position.

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach (Conservative) said his party wanted a pledge that the debate would be finished on Friday next. To this Gladstone assented, and a circular of grateful advice to the debate far beyond the date fixed by the opposition. After a long and warm discussion, Gladstone's motion was carried.
