While you repudiate the teachings of the Bible by wholesale, no people on earth adhere more closely to them in faith and practice than the Latter-day Saints. Why, one of the speakers of the convention, undertook to throw mud at them because of their belief in and practice of such New Testament doctrines as the laying on of hands, miraculous gifts of healing, etc. What an inconsistent individual he must be to join in the advocacy of the spread of Bible doctrines to overthrow "Mormonism", and in the same breath denounce the "Mormons" for their acceptance of what the good book teaches. Another "wise man of the east" who has come west did not seem to relish the idea that the Saints should believe in revelation, in apostles, prophets and other commissioned and inspired officers, such as characterized the Church established by Christ himself. All this incongruous mixture of an audience when witnessing the deplorement and repudiation is ex- mimic war upon the stage, or ceedingly peculiar, and very far from listen to the flerce shouts of

Let them be taught the Christian religion, that they be not swallowed up in the slough of error, and fall over the precipice of de-struction. The Bible and the Chris-tian religion should be the watchword of every Christian, that the light may at last dawn upon these misguided people. If they can only be Christianized the victory is won, and many who now sit in darkness will bask in the sunshine of divine truta, as it existed in the days of the Savior and his ancient apostles and Saints, and as it has been revealed anew in

Dear Sir: More than two years have elapsed since Rabbi Lichtenstein first came to see me in this city, and I have had con-tinued intercourse with him since. Through the reading of the New Testament he was led gradually into the light, and he was soon moved mightily by the desire to testify to his brethren that Jesus is the Christ.
