CORRESPONDENCE. SAN JUAN COUNTY.

Vast and Rich District, With Very Few People. BLUFF, San Juan Co., Utah,

Editor Deseret News:

The past season has been a prosperous one for the Saints of this, San Juan Stake of Zion. Health and good peace have been in our midst and upon our borders, our farm products have been good throughout the land, our stock and dalry interest has riso been quite prosperous. The Indians have been quiet and peaceable, no outbreaks having occurred during the past season tol in any way jeopardize the lives or property of the eattless. This is the or property of the settlers. This is the first season for seven years past that no Indian outrage has occurred, and for all these blessings we feel to thank the Lord and pray for a continuance of the same.

We have now about 2,000 head of hornstock on the range, having summer herded them on the Elk Mountains, the first stock ever ranged there; on account of the Indians, who have always objected till last spring, when we succeeded in making a treaty with them ceeded in making a treaty with them that permitted us to take our stock there. It is a magnificent summer range, and our winter range is adjoining on the south extending to the San Juan River, a distance of some 60 niles, where snow rarely ever falls From this range we are enabled to send beef in the spring and early summer to the market of Durango, Colorado, where it beings a very fair price. We are now negotiating for 6,000 head of eep to place on our range. We be gin to learn that there is more profit in raising sacep than cattle, where you have a suitable range, and we surely have that here, and a good market for wool and mutton at Durango, as we can send our mutton there in the spring when it is in demand. Our farm products here on the river are principally corn, beans, sugar cane, tomatoes, and all kinds of vegetables except the "Irish" potato; it does not do well as the climate is too hot; it was almost an entire failure the past season, small, few in the hill and bitter to the taste, like the green sun-burnt potato of the north when they protrude above the ground while growing. The tomato is right at home here; they have a long season to mature in and will leave till way into October. The sweet potato would do well here, no doubt, but we have not yet been able to get seed and try it fruit of all kinds will grow here in great abundance, but the people have not, as yet, been able to do much in that line; a few grapes and peaches have been raised, but owing to the breaking of the water ditch every year in July when the rains come on, and not be ing able to keep water to the trees during the latter part of the summer, fruit raising has not been attended with much success. More attention will be given to it in the future as the settlement increases in strength. Canning and drying of fruit would be a very profitable business for this ward; we hope to soon be able to establish ourselves in this business, as also in the tanning of the goat and sheep sking, so abundantly produced by our neighbors, the Navajo Indians.

The Saints here are enabled to make a very comfortable living. They have raised quite a surplus of corn and sorghum; the sorghum sells in Mancos, Colorado, 90 miles east from here, at o cents per [gallon; with this we purchase flour at $3.25 per hundred, and corn sells to the "cowboys" at two cents per pound, here at our doors. Corn yields 60 bushels and sorghum from 100 to 125 gallons per acre; besides this the people have a little co-operative store, and almost every one has an interest in it; it does a very lu-crative business in trading with the Indiaus for their wool and skins, and this furnishes labor in the way of freighting this to market at Durango, 130 miles and loading with goods back. On the whole, this little settlement is in quite a prosperous condition as to things temporal. The place is small and will not admit of very extensive growth; it is good for a trading post.

the Grounds, and every accomedation and a home for the brethren engaged in stock-raising. It is a most excellent place to raise Saints, there being no saloons, gambling hells nor gilded palaces stained with shame to LUMBER YARD palaces stained with shame to be found within one handred miles of here, our children can grow up without contamination by these civilizing adjuncts of an apostate Christianity, and for this we feel to de-voutly give thanks.

We desire to commence two new settlements in this vast country, nearly 100 miles square, the coming season; one will be situated in a climate and aititude where all the cereals and hardy fruits will grow in abundance, water is easily obtained from mountain streams, and good pine saw timber in abundance is easily obtained within four to six miles of the settlement;

there are good roads to market in Colorado, where good prices prevail for all farm products. Snow will probably fall here from a foot to two feet deep in February. Here also may be found one of the best places for extensive dry farming I have ever seen, there being thousands of acres of the choicest soil situated near enough to the base. soil situated near enough to the base of the mountains to afford rains enough, as I believe, to produce crops without irrigation. The other settlement will be situated about twelve to fifteen miles distant from the former and in a milder climate, where all the finer fruits can be raised in abundance. This place will be situated in ance. This place will be situated in the midst of a fine winter range for stock or sheep. Adjoining to it on the south is situated a fine summer range for either sheep ar cattle or both, on for either sheep ar cattle or both, on the other side of a mountain, where dry farming can also be carried on. Water and timber are easily obtained from mountain canons and streams. These settlements could be of great advantage to each other through an exchange of products. Why will the people of the north continue te live crowded up on small farms, half enough to cultivate, and no range for their stock, and hundreds in cities looking for a day's work, when so many opportunities of making comfortable homes are found here awaiting the settlers. These are some of the mysteries of the Kingdom to me.

In my next I will describe some of the other settlements in this Stake situated in Arizona, New Mexico and Colorado, and having many advantages rado, and having many advantages peculiar to each.

Wishing you and all your associates in the office a merry Christmas and happy, happy New Year, that you may live to see your every enemy powerless to harm or persecute you for daring to live according to the commands of the God of Haeven in this day and generation.

generation,
I am your brother in the bonds of love and fellowship in the Gospel of peace,

UTAH COUNTY M. I. A. SPANISH FORK, December 13, 1886.

The southern district of the M. I. organization of the Utah Stake of Zion was held in Salem on Saturday and Sunday last. Among those present were the presidency of the Stake Association the various efficient of the stake Association the statement of the statem ciation, the various efficers of all the branches in the district, except Santa-quin, Brothers Burton and Badger, of

The statistics showed a marked im provement in regular attendance, in crease of numbers, punctuality, appli-cation of the mind to study, interest cation of the mind to study, interest and results.

The instructions received were all practical in their application. Round dancing was denounced as being immoral, injurious to health, a stepping stone to bad conduct, and as being directly inconsistent with the high aims of Latter-day Saints.

The Word of Wisdom was presented from three points, religious, moral and hygienic, with tellingliorce and effect, and all present seemed to realize the hygienic, with tellingiforce and effect, and all present seemed to realize the necessity of leading better lives by abstaining from all evil habits and degrading practices, by exerting the best energies for the accomplishment of the greatest good to all mankind.

It is with pride we now record the progress of the young people of this Stake by stating that their advancement is conspicuous everywhere. A spirit of carnestness, honest zeal and religions interest is marked in their public gatherings, in their private associations and individual conduct.

There is very little snow in this valley. The weather is mild. The people are pursuing the even tenor of their ways, despite the efforts of their enemies to the contrary. There is a general prevalence of health and prosperity in the land, the blessings of the Lord are everywhere mani-ings of the Lord are everywhere man! fest and the Saints rejoice both in their public and private assemblies. Elder George C. Parkinson has jus made a tour of the Stake in the inter est of the young. His lectures have been listened to with a great deal of interest and a vast amount of good will certainly follow his teachings. Many local improvements have been made the last season; the country steadily gaining in many respects Work on the Stake House at Paris has been suspended for the winter, with the exception of getting out timber; this labor is being prosecuted with commendable zeal, the roads and weather being favorable.
