

FIFTY-FIRST YEAR

ANGLO-RUSSIAN
TROUBLE BRIDGED

The Troops of Both Countries Will be Withdrawn from the Ground in Dispute at Tien Tsin.

London, March 18, 6:40 p. m.—On the latest official authority the Association of Press is authorized to announce that the difficulty at Tien Tsin between the British and Russian troops has been bridged.

The troops of both countries will be withdrawn from the ground in dispute.

There is a disposition here to think that the Anglo-Russian incident at Tien Tsin is a more hopeful view.

This is the statement contained in the dispatch from Tien Tsin.

The dispatch from Tien Tsin, which reached London today, states that the combined forces of the two countries have been ordered to withdraw from the ground in dispute.

C. A. White from Philadelphia for Boston yesterday off Aberdeen, N. J. This clears up the mystery of the collision between the British and Russian ships. The life-saving station at Great Egg Harbor, N. J. All of the crew of the White were rescued by the Roper and brought to this city. Capt. Crammer says the only damage his vessel sustained was the loss of her jib boom. The collision occurred at 12:15 Sunday morning.

Explosion in Carbon Works.
Cleveland, O., March 18.—A terrific explosion of chemicals in the laboratory of the National Carbon Works early today partially wrecked the large brick building. Fire broke out immediately. Explosion, but was soon extinguished. Two men were caught under the debris. Both were thrown without serious injury. Loss, $70,000, partially covered by insurance.

AM BASSADORS' CREDENTIALS.

Mr. Choate and Others Hand Them to King Edward.

London, March 18.—United States Ambassador Choate and the other ambassadors and ministers to Great Britain, presented their credentials to King Edward at Marlborough house at noon today.

Each member of the diplomatic corps arrived in a royal carriage drawn by two horses, and was attended by three royal servants in long scarlet cloaks. All the diplomats were levee dress, with orders and decorations with the exception, of course, of Ambassador Choate, who wore evening dress.

The foreign secretary, Lord Lansdowne, introduced the visitors to the king, who was attired in a field marshal's uniform.

Then followed an address by Rev. Dr. R. G. McNeice, the president of the Sheldon-Jackson college, on "What should be our estimate of Daniel Webster and his Career." The address was most eloquent and successful. The presence of Webster as a lawyer, orator and statesman for a period extending over forty years. As to his intellectual attainments, and his integrity, and his un-Christian-like, but notwithstanding this, Webster died a good Christian and the influence of his career in forming the moral spirit of loyalty and union can never be forgotten or its value underestimated.

WEEK OF SELF-DENIAL.

Period of Prayer and Partial Workship by Salvation Army.

The members of the Salvation Army in Salt Lake City pursuant to the annual custom which has been practiced for years by the general organization of which it is a part, has entered upon a week of prayer and self-denial which comprises from March 17th to 24th inclusive.

The object of this idea, the remarkable success of which is the best testimony to its excellence, is to furnish the sinners of a work whose branches every day are going into wider and wider fields of labor.

During this special week every member of the organization is expected to deny him or herself (some more or less) to his or her usual pleasures, and to devote his or her time to the service of the Lord.

The general public whose interest in the Army's philanthropic institutions may not be willing to follow its members along the lines of personal self-denial, are however, not to be deprived of an opportunity to assist in the effort. Contributions will be made in many special manners, and those of our citizens who believe in feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, helping the fallen, extending the hand of opportunity to those with whom life has dealt roughly, and in every way assist and benefit mankind through the precepts of Jesus Christ will not turn the Salvation Army collector away empty-handed.
