and graceful hull, the slender masts with their jauntly air and indeed her whole general appearance would have forcibly recalled to a landsman, the mettled thorough-bred steed. As she rose to meet the huge waves that came rolling along, the small masts swaying backwards slowly describing a curve against the leaden colored sky; then hesitatingly for an instant, they pitched sudthemselves into the deep. Simultaneously, the enormous billow came boiling past the bottom before we reached the sheal. But hard what's that? rudder, to break, a few moments after, in thunder on the shore; while the craft rose dripping like a water-fowl after a divo, her hull glistening in the twilight, away back of the gale to her very main-chains.

'Isn't she a beauty?' said one of the spectators. 'Dang it there's not a gal comes here all summer,' he added. entbusiastically, 'that's got the shape of that ar'

His companions laughed, and one of them said after a pause-

'Little Billy seems to have a hard time bailing out, the waves pitch him so.' The lad alluded to was in a small cooklesholl boat, attached by a rope to the stern ter, the light skiff swung about; now loating loosely, now harrying after the large craft.

'Ay,' said the first speaker. 'But he's got to larn his craft and the sooner the better, for he's nothing to depend on but it, either for his manny or himself. But what's that?' he suddenly cried, as the pilot boat shot ahead of the skiff, which immediately turned broadside the waves. 'Whew, if drowned.2 The rope had indeed parted. Instantly all three as if hy one impulse, rushed into the water, only awaking to the impossibility of reaching the lad, when the spent breakers came washing to their waists.

the painter aint broke! the boy will be

They looked at each other in dismay. 'lle's got no oar, not even a sail. If he could hear us, we might tell him to got her head to the wind, said the principle speak-'It's a chance if he thinks of it; but in this wind he would not hear the Angel Gabriel. The Lord help us; he's gone.

As he spoke a mighty roller came advancing from the offing towering higher and higher as it approached the boy, still it seem ed to the spectators as if the mountain of waters would nover cease accumulating. When it reached the little skiff, it hung suspended for a moment, and then rushed you live, my lad,' he cried. downward, like a troop of wolves on its

But while the lookers on, holding their breaths in horror, the lad, with quick sagacity, had wrenched a bit of board from the lining of the skiff, and hurriedly snatched up his coat and fastened the garment to it. With this jury mast, he had managed at the last moment, to bring the skiff's head to the wind, so that at the very instant the wind, so that at the very instant the whom the shoulder. You did what we said and kept your spirit spectators expected to see his boat hurld it mounted the wards them they beheld bird mounts the wave gallantly as a storm

Well done, Billy, show the excitement, he give voice to hearty cheer, in which the others is used.

(The) was a born sailor, said one of the such a brave little fellow die, even if his the craft, and be after him. He can't live long in that rig.

The plan of the speaker had suggested itself simultaneously to the others. But its of last November recorded the self possession and courage of the little hero of our story, exactly as we have told it, only in which itself simultaneously to the others. But its of last November recorded the self possession and courage of the little hero of our story, exactly as we have told it, only in which its the the influence of a steadier gale. Both the tings the substantial oration in the world because the influence of a steadier gale. Both the tings the substantial oration in the world because of the rings the substantial oration in the world will under the influence of a steadier gale. Both the tings the substantial oration in the world because of the range at br. Decker's in the west side of Jorcham and the right of satisfaction of knowing that the winds the little hero of our story, exactly as we have told it, only in the substantial oration in the world will under the influence of a steadier gale. Both the rings the substantial orat on to the shoals, and in half an hour nothing can save him,'said the man who steerthing can save him, said the man who steered, as he stood up and looked for the lad.—

Of as he stood up and looked for the lad.—

Pull away with a will, boys, or we will be too late after all. Ha! he's waving his bound for Kingston, Jamaica. There were some too late after all. Ha! he's waving his bound for Kingston, Jamaica. There were some too late after all.

had only disappeared in the gloom of the The passengers he had picked up at Boston seaboard, or whether she had been eapsized, no one could tell, for all had been too alter his original intentions as to steer for Kingmuch occupied to notice the exact moment slon, whither the larger portion of them were when she passed from sight. But the fears, bound. Leave a live Yankee alone to find out or at least doubts, exceeded the hopes. It who he is dealing with, and to provide means of with a sensation of relief that the nilot boat to be in mother. Our skipper had not the graw felt that the nilot boat to be in mother than exact the nilot boat to be in mother. The two vessels were now running parallel, with about equal speed, making perhaps two with about equal speed, making perhaps two kinets ad hour. In a few minutes, three boats of armed men put off from the schooner, and, for a median put off from the schooner, and, for a median put off from the schooner, and, for a median put off from the schooner, and, for a median put off from the schooner, and, for a median put off from the schooner, and, for a median put off from the schooner, and, for a median put off from the schooner, and, for a median put off from the schooner, and, for a median put off from the schooner, and, for a median put off from the schooner, and, for a median put off from the schooner, and, for a median put off from the schooner, and, for a median put off from the schooner, and, for a median put off from the schooner, and, for a median put off from the schooner, and, for a median put of from the schooner, and, for a median put off from the schooner, and, for a median put of the means of t much occupied to notice the exact moment sion, whither the larger portion of them were it! the crew felt that the pilot boat to be in motion, and as the waters whizzed past, their spirits rose. The very schooner seemed to share in the general anxiety. No grey-the least, could have be defined was brisk, and Captain the least, could have sprung forward more eagerly or swiftly.

The night had now shut in. The winds sighed mournfully up in the sky; a wild was long. The winds were light and variable, sound wont flutting overhead, now hiding, and the skipper did not appear to make as much ning the narrow but tumuluous prospects, drink our way into port, the major was the man to lead the enterprise. the skiff and its occupant. As the schooner left the shore, out of sight behind ber, this scrutiny became sharp; but alas! to no

'Don't you see anything yet?' oried the master, at last, hailing the principal look-out at the holm. Surely he's in sight some-

"There's no sign of him, sir."

soon go about. Can we have passed him?' 'Can't say. Don't think we have,' la-conically replied the man. 'It is dark enough, but I have looked sharp, sir.'

At this moment a dull roar was heard close ahead, and a long line of foam suddenly whitened the gloom in that directions and along line of foam suddenly whitened the gloom in that directions and a long line of foam suddenly whitened the gloom in that directions are linear li dealy whitened the gloom in that direction, proclaiming that the schooner was perilously near the shoal. 'Ready about,'shouted the master, and instantly every man sprung to his station; on deck.

'Ilaul in, let go, belay! Round she is cheerIt was breakers at a safe distance astern.

lar-board shrouds, while those to windward were so tight that a landsman would have dealy forward headlong, as if to precipitate either missed him, or else he went to the hark! what's that?

They listened, not daring to breathe.— Nothing reached their ears but the sound of the water thumping agianst the bow, and with a long drawn sigh, the master was preparing to break the silence, and propose taking towards the shoal again.

cheering voice out of the darkness.

'Its Billy, shouted the master electrically. of the schooner. At every pitch of the lat-

His voice rang clear over all the uproar of the winds and waves, like a trumpet-call of succor in the crisis of battle.

'Here I am,' stoutly replied the little hero, his skiff dancing up suddenly out of the

'Luff a little, or you'll be over me.'

All rushed to the side of the schooner, ex-cept the helmsman, who called up all his skill to shave the skilf, as he afterwards said, her direct course, curtesing up towards the wind like a lady to a dance; and then fall-ing off again dashed forward on her old his eye, and a flush spread over weather besten and, seeing the destruction, pulled for the sur course, like the same gay beauty, coquetting a partner. But during that second, the intrepid lad, watching his opportunity, had sprung to the bob-stays and clambered dripping on deck, just as the schooner fell handing the helm to another, eaught him in his arms as if he had been his own child. 'You'll be as great a man as Decatur, if greatest person that over lived.

are as wet as a musk-rat, -dang it." the boy, proudly, his eyes brightening, and his little figure expanding perceptibly.—

You'll tell mother so, won't you, sir?'
That I will,' said the master, slapping what was right, and kept your spirits bravely, if you hadn't my boy, yo'd been food for the sharks, maybe, by this time, I should have been seeered myself, Billy, if I had heen in your place.'

looked up by the dim light of the cabin lamp. 'Oh, I know you wouldn't. But I was glad, I tell you,' he added quickly, his others, when the first burst of joy had pas-ed. It would be a mortal shame to let such a brave little fellow die, even if his poor old mother didn't look to him for her living. We must launch a surf-boat, board burst into a flood of tears. But they were living. We must launch a surr-boat, board the craft, and be after him. He can't live tears sacred to a mother's memory, and the long in that ric.?

AN ADVENTURE OF A YANKEE CAPTAIN.

[From the Sunday Times.]

too late after all. Ha! he's waving his handkorehief as I live. Ho sees us and says he is hearty yet—he's a trump and no missistake—pull navry—here we are—look all he's maving his is hearty yet—he's a trump and no missistake—pull navry—here we are—look all he's he's one of mine to the deck, and as soon as possible the another was hove—the sail set—and the schooner put before the wind. The anxiety of all had been considerable by this time, for the delay had been considerable, notwithstanding every effort at haste; and in the interval of the skiff had vanished. Whether she had only disappeared in the gloom of the set of the passengers he had picked up at Boston. The passengers mostly young men, had been considerable, here were some had only disappeared in the gloom of the self-base at trump and no missing house the regiment, two heads the skiff had vanished. Whether she had only disappeared in the gloom of the self-base at the self-base at trump and no missing house the regiment vessel, the deter comply.

The passengers mostly young men, had been considerable, had been considerable. There were some had been considerable at the Creles returning house, two here is she war, what right has she to bring, had been considerable. The possengers mostly young men, had been considerable at the crew were on the crew and when the site of the crew were on tight the self-base t

Jonathan was correspondingly polite and affi-

Out voyage was not exactly tedions, but it deek, gentlemen, said the skipper, who showed as long. The winds were light and variable, an activity and coarage which elicited our adnow revealing a few faint stars; and the sea headway in his sailing as he might. Indeed, was as black as ink; where the white caps the English major—a jolly, whole souled fellow, flashed up for an instant; ominous of a com-with a deal of humor in his composition—slyly hinted that we shouldn't see Kingston until the

We were sitting around the cabin table, enjoying the Englishman's porter, and investigating the merits of some excellent cheroots—it was our tenth day out-when the captain put his head down the hatchway, and called out to me:

I say, Mr. Brace-you're a man-o'-war'sman-will you jist step on deck, and see what you can make out of this stranger?

Captain Jonathan had soon found out my pro-"We're close on the shouls now, and must fession, and, with that easy nonchalance so peculiar to the genus Yankee, put me to various uses during the voyage. Here, skipper, sang out the major, never

'I rather guess the stranger'll be after minding

yeon, drawled Jonathan, the looks uncommon

And as he finished, his light craft light, and came in those fitful puffs denominated danced away to the other track, leaving the breakers at a safe distance astern.

The strange sail, which had been made decks there appeared some stir. Look lively now, mind we don't leave from the most head two or three hours previous, 'Stand by, now, gentlemen, said the skipper, him, cried the master, as the shoal rapidly faded in the darkness behind. 'You don't taking advantage of these, had come up with us land over fist, and was now about two miles. 'Stand by, now, gentlemen, said the skipper, as he gave a few turns to the wheel. 'Pick that fellow off who is steering, major, the first one.' Our intention was now understood on board simultaneously a quiver ran throug the hill of air, and winged her with noiseless and almost grappels were thrown, and, leaving the nate from stem to stern, and the masts creaked audibly. Far out to lee-ward bellied the lar-hoard shrouds, while those to windward clumsy craft was flapping her sails and crawling with the rest of the men, and cut down two or expected to see them snap.

Nothing yet? Those were the words with which the helmsman broke another long silence.

Sy jove: now sne comes up: erred the ready the ready the mand were equally prompt, and in less than major.

Waal, you see, she fetches the breeze with three minutes, the decks were cleared, and the her, said Jonathan, with that excusable pride schooner in our possession.

Which even the master of a seew may fiel in Now, however, came the tug of war. The the wind in their rigging, and the dash of though what her present occupation is, I would Well soon see that,' said the captain. 'Mate, show your bunting.

The stars and stripes were quickly floating tking towards the shoal again.

at our peak, and in a few moments, as if to reBut suddenly close at hand there rose a fute my assertions, the meteor flag of England ose majestically from the stranger's deck, 'Hills there! hillo! Don't run a feller fluttered aloft, stirred by a wanton breeze that pared to fire.
own.' 'There, sir, said the major, pompously, 'I told

Its the boy himself. Hillo, it is! Where you so; I knew there could be no vessel of came round almost broadside to the boats, are you my hearty?

His voice rang clear over all the uproar

On the vessels of the Royal Yacht Club carry

I applied the match. The forenment a long Tom' nn a pivnt, major?" asked l, taking which I had brought within range of my piece, the glass from my eye, with which I had been was some distance ahead of the others. The examining the schooner.

Why, sir?

Because our friend seems rather heavily armed for a pleasure yatht ' Yatht be darned!' exclaimed Captain Jourthan, 'she's a bloody piratel and I rayther guess' bloody Spanish this ves, without showing fight, and destruction among them.

We now made haste to secure the pirates who off.

He was surrounded at once, and borne shouting in triumph, aft, where the master shouting in triumph, aft, where the master actly the kind of prize for him, and these follows over to my charge, allowing me two of his saidon't like to throw away their ammunition; but lirs-the rest of my crew being made up of vo-skipper, 'and no' show too much strength, or he struck me as a queer sort of humanity too, may pepper us at long tow; though these fellows which saved men from drowning to consign don't like to use their big guns when they can them to the gallows. With the assistance of a truck work quietly—there's too many cruisers in these latitudes.'

del brumnet. 'The 'Mary Anne,' of Portland. What schoon-

'The Black Snake! Heave to and send a boat on board. 'Can't doit; my boats are all on board, and bright on before the wind, it was perceived on board the schooner, while made a corresponding movement, while another fierce bail came, ordering us to theave to? - As our skipper was about to raise his trumpet to reply, the major interfered:

ATTENTION ALL!

Now Gents and Ladies Iwish to give you timely notice, that if you want LIKE with hip and shoulder with a large T, also on the left hip and shoulder with a Spanish brand.—
The owner is requested to come and prove property, pay charges, and take him away.

Perhaps she is a government vessel, and you

Perhaps she is a government vessel, and you perty, pay charges, and take him award better comply. M. BRINGH blazonry of a skull, supported by cross bones.

'Do her unjesty's cruisers sail under that sort bant ng, maj ir??

'A pirate! By heaven; we must fight for niiration,

The plan of the boats to attack us from different points at once, necessarily delived their operations. In the meantime, as is often com-For a long time, the rush of the hull, as skipper's small stores were exhausted; and there it glided through the waters, was the only sound heard. Every eye, meantime, scan-sound heard. Every eye, meantime, scan-disk our wester appears the minimum in those seas, a current of wind struck the big, pressing her rapidly through the water. An idea—a bold and happy one—flashed on the brain of our skipper.

'Quick! gentlemen, I have it! We are safe!' exclaimed he, seizing the wheel. 'Mr. Brace, jump forward if you please, take what men you want, and stand by to grapple the schnoner—then take charge of her long Tom? Major, will you command the sharpshooters, and pick off thore fellows if they come too near? By the great Jehosophat! I Il show that fellow a Yankee rick he never saw before,"

The idea was a brilliant one. There was every chance of our carrying the schooner, if we could lay her aboard while the greater por skipper steered with such caution as gradually to approach the schooner, of which we had the advantage in the first effects of the breeze, with out exciting auspicion of his intention on board. 'Hillon-what's that? -- a pirate, eh? By Jove It was some minutes before the boats perceived there's some sport at last?' and we all hustled the increased speed of the brig, and even then n deck.

It was not exactly a calm, but the winds were endeavoring still to preserve their plan of attack.

The brig had now full steerage way on her,

THE LITTLE HERO.

A TRUE NARRATIVE OF THE SEA BOARD.

[From Peterson's Magazine.]

The November evening was closing in death of a storm, when three men stood on the beach near Cape May, watching a pilot boat that lay at another in the offing. Her dark and graceful hull, the slender masts with

The SILTTLE HERO.

The pilot boat was no longer gliding distant, on our weather quarter. A more beautiful specimen of naval architecture never floating distant, on our weather quarter. A more beautiful specimen of naval architecture never floating specimen of naval architecture at a scarce ly perceptible small's pace. three pirates who were endeavoring to make 'By Jove! how she comes up!' eried the ready the slnng gun.' The major and his com'

'Nothing sir!'
'He can't certainly be inside us. We've ither missed him, or else he went to the ottom before we reached the sheal. But ark! whnt's that?'

Was a sir!'

We've ither missed him, or else he went to the ottom before we reached the sheal. But ark! whnt's that?'

Was a sir!'

We've ither missed him, or else he went to the overhaul the Mary Anne quite so slick no how. way, and the breeze which had served us so well was dying out, while the pirates' boats, containing about forty armed and desperate man like, to appropriate all excellence for his wretches, were fast coming up with us. They purposes. As he spoke, what seemed a faint cry came out of the gloom ahead. Was it a child's voice! or was it only a modulation of the gale

They listened, not daring to breathe.—
Nothing reached their ears but the sound of coulty retained his statum at the wheel, 'can you let her yaw off when I give the word?'

'Ayel ayel' was the reply.
Taking two men whom I had recognized as men-of-war's men, and one mr two others of the crew incward with me, I cast off the long gun, which was loaded, and ramining home another and charge of grape, I depressed the piece, and pre-

Now captain, I sang out
The vessels obeyed their licims promptly, and

I applied the match. The forenmet boat, schooner trembled under the shock of the explosion; a wild shrick was heard, and, amid the spray and foam, which the plunging shot stirred up, fragments of timbers, over, and a few bleed-ing wretches struggling in their death threes, spray and toam, which the prunging shot stirred up, fragments of timbers, oars, and a few bleeding wretches struggling in their death threes, were all that was left of the boat and her crew. Never did a single shot do such havoe! It was the grape and canister which destroyed the first bout; but the round shot, with which the gun was leaded, ricocheting, took another of the terroroble.

Any ET OR STOLES, Stock to most employee the cities and white OR, red head and neck branded W Seely on the left him. Any person giving auformation that will lead to the recovery of said ox, shall be rewarded for the recovery of said ox, shall be rewarded for their trouble.

R. B. MARGETTS, of the work of the public.—

They respectfully submit the following cast of the public.—

They respectfully submit the following cast of the public.—

They respectfully submit the following cast of the public.—

They respectfully submit the following cast of the public.—

They respectfully submit the following cast of the public.—

They respectfully submit the following cast of the public.—

They respected to arrive, which will make the stock the most complete ever offered to the cit.

They are the cities to the cit.

They respectfully submit the following cast of the public.—

They respectfully submit the following cast of the public.—

They are the cities to the cities that we'll soon know more about her.'

Never did a single shot do such havoe! It was 'Do you think he'll attempt to capture us, skipper? asked the major, 'and have you an idea bout, but the round shot, with which the gun without hitting it.

An interval of thrilling suspense succeedof resisting?

I watched the captain closely as these quesad. The pilot boat deviated a little from

I watched the captain closely as these quesand slove her in, killing several of her crew, unseye, and a flush spread over weather besten and seeing the destruction, pulled for the sur otherwise, at the Prove Woolfen Factory.

'Idea of resisting? Jerusalem! I rayther guess I have! Do you think Renbeu Jonathan is going to give up his brig and carre to the

if the worst comes, we must fight.'

We all agreed readily with his propositions, whom, from enriosity or the love of change, and under his direction proceeded to arm our-

Docatur was, in his master's opinion, the greatest person that over lived.

But now come below, he continued, 'you are as wet as a musk-rat,—dang it.'

You think I wasn't scared then, sir,' said the boy, proudly, his eyes brightening, and his little figure expanding perceptibly.—

and under his direction proceeded to arm our desired to go with me.

The vessels were cast off, and I hauled up for the shortest notice and the best style.

The vessels were cast off, and I hauled up for the shortest notice and the best style.

The vessels were cast off, and I hauled up for the shortest notice and the best style.

Produce, Tithing Orders, &c. taken in pay. out for the pirate's crew. We might have the brightness of the pirate's crew. We might have the their fate, and surely they deserved such treatment, but humanity forbade it; and it.

We must keep down, gentlemen, said the shortest notice and the best style.

Produce, Tithing Orders, &c. taken in pay. out 5-30-3mo WM. H. DARGER.

NOTICE.

THROUGH the Winter Season I intend work at Gravest as Engraving. Person work at Gravest as Engraving. Person work at Gravest as Engraving. Person work at Gravest as Engraving. in these latitudes'
By this time, the schooner had come up within hailing distance astern of us.

survivors up, and, naving secure out our prisoners for greater safety, we made sail for our destination.

'Brigahoy!' sangout a voice from her deck.
'Brigahoy!' sangout a voice from her deck.
'Hilna!' replied our skipper, through a monthe best of his way into port. We found a earlie best of his way into port. We found a earlie best of his way into port. pital larder on board the schooner, and wines able. In three days we anchored in the harbor at Kingston; the pirates were handed over to the authorities, and the schooner adjudged a prize and sold. The skipper was honorable stowed for the voyage.

'Heave to, then, while I send my boat on board of you.'

'You'd better not—we Yankees don't admit brought was considerable, in addition to some Large Lot of splendid English Woollen Shawls at Jarvis's. Ribbuns, Feathers, and Flowers. Gentlemen are invited to inspect Jarvis's magnificent selection of plain and embroidered Cravats and Ties, in silk and satin, being the most One block south west of Temple.

dence, on bro. Thomas Bullock's city lot. Also found, a hay fork, one week ago, near Mill Creek bridge, on the State Road. ROBERT CAMPBELL.

To Traders, Emigrants, and Freighters.

that they will constantly keep on hand at their Laran station, a good supply of fresh animals, geoceries, Blue. provisions, and general assorted merchandise, which they will furnish on reasonable terms.—
They will also trade for eattle, mules, and horses.

fortable. WARD & GUÉRRIER. NOTICE.

Court of Great Salt Lake County, at the December term, for the privilege of turning a portion of the water of Big Cottonwood, from the usual channel, into a canal to be cut, which tion of her erew were in the boats, and the breeze which had sprung up, and which proved steady, was a providental interposition in our besteady, was a providental interposition in our besteady. turned to be used for mill. machine, and other purposes.

SIDNEY ROBERTS. nov13-36-3t

SIDNEY ROBERTS. SIDNEY ROBERTS. nov13-36-3t

BRUSHMAKING!

day work. Many facts which it contains, and never before published, are of great importance to the world, and the work constitutes a valuable acquisition to the libraries of the saints.

The above named work can be obtained from pied by General James Ferguson, 14th Ward, S. W. Richards, 14th Ward, Joseph Cain, at the part of the saints and respectfully scaling the party and contains and the party of the saints.

Horse Hair [articles which are now generally thrown away), for which he will give a fair received. rice.

A few copies of 'The Pearl of Great Price' N.B. Old paint and whitewash brushes bought. are also on sale. Price, 75c.

SIX or eight Boot and Shoemakers; one Clog maker; one Suddier, and one Saddle-tree maker to whom steady employment will be given, nov 2-31-4t WM. FIELD.

MILL WORK OF ALL Kinds forged to order at my Establishment, north east corner of Union Square, 19th Ward, G. S. L. City.
nov9 35-3t R. B. MARGETIS.

nov-2-34-6in TAKEN UP:

ONE Reddish Beindle Heifer, supposed to be 3 years old; no marks or brands visible. The owner is requested to call, prove property, pay charges, and take her away.
WM. B. ADAMS,

nov 9-35-3t Tooele City. BUTCHERING.

THE subscriber wishes to inform the citizens of G. S. L. City that he has re-commenced Butchering at his new shop on his lot. East Temple st., where he will constantly keep on hand-Beef, &c., of the first quality.

BRIANT STRINGAM. N.B.-Cash paid for Beef Cattle. oct26-33tf

NOTICE. HAVE in my charge a Cow 4 years old, line back, black sides with white spots, white face, some white on her belly, is rather slimbuilt; has a split in each ear no brand visible.

The owner will prove property, pay charges, and take her away. JOHN W. HESS, nov 9 3#-31 Pound-keener. STRAYED OR STOLEN,

Price for carding, 10 cents pr lb. or one sixth Provo. Utah Co., May 1,-13-6:n

TAILORING. THE Subscriber begs leave to inform the citizens of Great Salt Lake City that he has re-commenced business at the Whip Factory,' opposite Elder Orson Hyde's provision store, where all kinds of work in Tailoring, such as Cutting, Making-up. &c. &c. will be done on the shortest union and the hest style WROUGH the Winter Season I intend to work at Gravest as Engraving. Persons is thing to erect tombstones to the memory of heir friends can see specimens in the grave their titlids can see specimens in the grave yair, or designs at my house, two-end-a-half blocks west of the Tubernacle, or at the Stone Shop, on the north-east corner of the Temple block. If early application is made, 1 will take pay in fire wood or wheat.

NOTICE Shereby given that I shall apply to the County Could for Great Salt Lake County, at the next session. to be held on the 1st Monday in December next, in behalf of the Trustee in Trust for the exclusive privilege of making a road into a small kanyon immediately north of P. Winte's saw mill, in Mill Creek Kanyon, and taking wood thursefron for the cook of the therefrom for the use of the Sugar Works, 36-2: A. O. SMOOT.

GREAT EXCITEMENT. TRAYED or stolen from the subscriber about the 17th of August last, while running on the range at br. Decker's no the west side of Jorprove property, pay charges, and take them away.

C. BOREN, Pound Keeper. Provo City .- 36-3t

GOOD NEWS To the People of this Territory:—The under-signed begs leave to inform the residents of this city and neighborhood, that he has opened a Hat Establishment on Emigration street, 2 blocks A BOUT 25 miles this side of the crossing of Pacific Creek, on the left hand cut off, by the last company, an Ox, in good condition. From the brands he can, be well described by the last company, and the second of the crossing of the manufactures all kinds of Beaver, Otter, and Rough-and-Ready Hars, and guarantees them to be of the best material and of the most fashionable styles.

Cash, wood, and all kinds of produce tak-Wanted to Purchase-Fox and Wolf skins; merino, Saxony, and Lamb's Wool.
nov9-35-3t JAS. SHELMERDINE.

Mail and Passenger COACH between G.S. L. City and Independence, will leave Hawkins' Hotel in G.S L M ESSRS. WARD & GUERRIER, at Sandy Point, 7 m les west of Fort Laramie, on the main emigration road, would inform travelers to and from the States, and the public generally, Fort Bridger, Green River, Dewits Gate, Fort Laramie, the Bridger, Green River, Dewits Gate, Fort Bridger, Green River, Gate, Gate Fort Bridger, Green River, Devil's Gate, Fort Laramic, Ash Hollow, Fort Kearney, and Big

> Every facility and attention will be extended to passengers to render their trip speedy, and com-For further particulars apply to the following J. M. HOCKADAY, G. S. L. City, Utah. Agents:-ISAAC HOCKADAY ang24-24-1y Independence, Mo.

LITERARY NOTICE. which ditch Smith, the Prophet, and his progenitors for shall commence near where the irrigation ditch now is, and run through the lands owned by Parks, This new and highly interesting work should and respectfully solicits the patronage of his post office, J. M. Horner & Co., Descret Store; numerous friends and the public generally.

G. C. carnestly desires the inhabitants of this city and Territory to Save their Pigs Hair and Harrand Harr

nov16-36LP

HAVE just purchased, and now offer for sal at my house 21/2 blocks west of the Temp Block, a large assortment of Liquors, equaling quality to any ever brought into this Territor, consisting of Brandy, Monongahela whisky, Madeira and Teneriffe Wines, at my former low prices. Those who love a good article at a low price, will not be dissapointed by giving me call.

W. C. STAINES. au17-23-6m

FRESH ARRIVAL.

IVINGSTON, Kinkead & Co. have receive assortinent of Groceries, Dye-Stuffs, &c., and eapect their first Ox Train to arrive here between the 10th and 15th of July, when they will be prepared to open and offer for inspection and sale, pared to open and offer for inspection and sale, a assortment of Goods, comprising almost even article in demand, in Staple and Fancy Dr. Goods, Clothing, Groceries, Paints, Oils, a Dye-Stuffs; Hardware and Cutlery, Queenswar, Glassware, Boots, Shues, and Leather, Hab, Caps, and Bonnets; School Books, Stationer, &c., &c.

On arrival of their Third. Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Trains, which they expect weekly thereat ter, they will be able to present at once the larger Stock and best assortinent of Goods ever offered this market, and of such quality and prices, as will compare very favorably to their advantage LIVINGSTON, KINKEAD & CO. jv13-18-6m

J. M. HORNER & CO., Tithing Buildings,

OPPOSITE STATE HOUSE, have received O per train of 36 Wagons an assortment of General Merchandise—37 additional wagons an shortly exfected to arrive, which will make the stock the most complete ever offered to the citizens of Utah, which will be sold wholesale at

of the publica DRY GOODS:

3000 ps. Merrimac, Cocheco, and other Staph prints; 150 ps. Furniture and Curtain Prints; 95 ps. Lowns and Chintz; 91 ps. English and French Ginghams;

113 ps. Mouslin and Barege de Laine, and Bril. 81 ps. French and English Merinoes and Alpaecas; 87 ps Figid., Plaid and Plain Swine and Jacon-ettes; 6 doz Ladies Dress Skirts; 40 ps Irish Linen; 75 ps White and Brown Plaid and Plaid Line Drillings; 100 ps Table and Towel Diaper; 100 ps S lk and Cotton Hdkf.;

59 ps Cu?d Cambric; 31 ps Super, silver Daciens, and Bosio Robs. 7 ps Black Cloths; 53 ps English and French Cassimeres; 155 ps ass'd colors Satinets and Tweeds;
175 ps Cottonades and English Velveteens;
23 ps Marseilles, Satin and Woollen Vesting;
9 ps Drap de Ete;

20 doz Shawle 220 ps Red, White, and Canton Flannels; 50 ps Apron Check; 275 ps Bine, brown and Corset Drills; 50 ps Bed Tick; 500 ps bleached Muslin; 30 hales Appleton 4-4 Sheetings; 500

5 do Surting stripe;
5 do heavy cloth Overcoatings;
118 doz gents and ladies Cotton and Wool is siery; do Gloves. 50 doz

50 doz do Gloves.
300 dvz Coats' Spool Thread;
190 lbs Linen, Cotton and Silk Sewings;
3 doz Marseilles Quilts;
10 ps Oil Coth. LADIES DRESS TRIMMINGS Consisting of black and white silk and cotton laces, Braids, Gimps, Fringes, Dress Buttons, Bonels, Ribbons, and Artificials. NOTIONS.

A large assortment of Pus, Needles, Binding, Hooks and Eyes, Violus & Strings, Shell, Imitatio and Gutta Percha Tuck and Side Combs, Fine, Readding and Siamese do., Toys. &c., &c. PERFUMERY & JEWELERY. A very choice lot of Finger and Ear Rings, Pa Brooches, Port Monaies, Hair Oils. Extracts, &c.

BOOTS AND SHOES: 100 cases men's kip and calf Boots; 100 doz men's Pumps and Slips;
10 doz men's Pumps and Slips;
10 doz men's Congress gaiters;
25 cases boys and youths Boots; 25 cases boys and you'ds Books; 15 doz "kip and calf Shoes; 250 doz women's kip,calf and morocco Books; 50 doz ladies latest style Slips and Guiters; 56 doz misses and child Shoes ass'd.

HATS AND CAPS: 10 doz men and boys' eleth and silk Caps 80 doz men and boys' Kossuth Neapo Planter, Mexican, Metropolitan, and lim ters' Hats;
5 doz gents fashionable Moleskin;
2 doz misses white and black Beaver war
Plumes; children's Faucy Turbans, wh

Hats; CLOTHING: 48 doz prs Cassimere and Satinet pants; 10 doz Satin, Velvet and Cassa Vests; 5 doz Frock an I Dress Coats; 5 doz cloth and tweed Sacks; 8 doz Lion, Pilot, Beaver and Blanket Overcoats; 100 doz hickory shirts: 20 doz Undershirts and drawers; 12 doz white and col'd shirts. STATIONERY. The stock is large and complete, embracing fools eap, letter, and note Paper, approved School Books, Cards, &c., &c.

QUEENSWARE.
992 sets Teas and Coffees;
638 doz Plates of all sizes and colors; 91 doz Bowls and dishes; 30 doz Mugs and Pitchers; 18 sets sugars, cream and tea Pots: 15 sets Ewers and Basins; 10 doz. Chambers; A fine quantity of Glassware.

HARDWARE: 100 doz Rowland's polished steel Spades Shovels; 25 doz manure and hay Forks;

2500 lhs Plough, spring, and cast steel; pocketed table Cullery; building materials; tools; coand wrought Nails; and in short every to ticle usually found in the line. DRUGS AND PAINTS; 200 kegs Charless' pure White Lead; 200 boxes window Glass; 400 gals Oil and copal Varnish;

100 gals Turpentine; 30 baskets Olive oil, a pure article, with a well selected stock of Paints, such as ultra Maline Blue, Carmine, and Paris Green.018, Essences, Brushes, Thompsonian. Patel Medicines, and Dve stuffs GROCERIES: Selected with earc, consisting of fine Teas, Segars, Coffee, Spices. Soap, Candles. Pickles, Fruits. Tobacco, Sunffs. Segars, and choice Wines and Brandles for Medicines.

STOVES AND CASTINGS; A few charter Oak Stoves; An assortment of Tin Ware; 25 sets Fan. Mill irons; 138 lhs do 300 lhs Flat irons; Wire;

20 doz brass and tinned iron Kettles and Sauce Pans; A lot of Castings, consisting of Bakers, Skillets and extra Lids.

G. S. L. City, Nov. 9-35-3t