

TELEGRAPHERS' FUNDS EXHAUSTED

So Says President Small in Meeting of the New York Local Union.

WAS MUCH BETTER FEELING.

Accused by Chairman of Board of Strategy of Doing All He Could To Lose to Enemy.

New York, Oct. 13.—The New York local of the telegraphers' union today voted unanimously to continue the strike against the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies.

The vote was taken upon the suggestion of President Small, who, in messages to subordinate officers yesterday, pointed out the inability of the general assembly to further finance the strike.

When the meeting opened, President Small said the other speakers. The latter charged the national leader with inconsistency in first declaring that the strike would be successfully financed and yesterday admitting that the general assembly was without funds.

President Small has utterly rejected to properly approach the subject of raising money, and now he comes before you and tells you that we have no more money. This strike cannot be lost if we have a national president with any ability.

There were cheers for Thomas, and as Small arose to reply shouts of "resign" greeted him.

"I have no intention of resigning," he said when he could be heard. "To resign is the last thing that I will do, and I want to tell you that personal attacks on me won't get you bread and butter."

"As for assessments of other labor organizations, I want to tell you what they amount to. The Order of Railroad Telegraphers, with a membership of 40,000, was assessed first $2, then $1, and has turned in about $32,000.

Small sat down, Daniel Russell, chairman of the local board of strategy, sprang to his feet.

"Up to last night," he said, "this was all striking, and up to last night he did everything he could to lose. Today it is your strike, and you will win."

Other speakers followed in a similar vein, after which the resolution declaring that the strike be continued and calling upon the national executive committee to act once remitted $30,000.

Small says that in the recent telegram he merely wished the locals to act intelligently.

"Should the locals throughout the country, or a bare majority of them, vote to continue the strike, it will be quashed with greater vigor than ever, and the members being in possession of the facts regarding negotiations and finances, no doubt will work with greater determination."

They want to continue the fight they will have to furnish the funds. That is simple. But if you were in our shoes, you would be supporting a strike that would be a financial disaster.

"Percy Thomas says you have $15,000 in the treasury," was suggested.

"In whose treasury?" asked Mr. Small. "We have $15,000, but not for strike use. That is a mutual benefit fund for insurance.

"What if the locals decline to call it off?" he was asked.

"Well, there will be nothing to do but to keep up the fight as long as they can, but it will be up to them to provide the funds.

"Then the strike is hopeless, and it might as well be abandoned."

Chicago, Oct. 13.—National President Small of the Commercial Telegraphers' union and his associates, who are being taken on the question of calling off the strike, were repudiated by members of the Chicago local union at a meeting held this afternoon.

Under article 14, section 7, of the constitution of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America, any national president is suspended from the office of president, to take effect immediately.

WORRIED OVER AUSTRIAN EMPEROR

Condition of His Health Seriously Preoccupying Diplomats Gathered at The Hague.

FALSE ANXIETS SENT OUT.

This So As Not to Alarm the People, But Doctors Are Very Anxious.

The Hague, Oct. 13.—The news concerning the condition of Emperor Francis Joseph's health is seriously preoccupying the diplomats gathered here, especially the Europeans, but more particularly those belonging to the triple alliance.

The general depression of the emperor's health is being exaggerated, it is believed by the diplomats, because of the cough. The fever is not above 99, which is not mentioned in the official communication, comes from the heart, which may be too weak to withstand the general depression.

The infant's Isabella, aunt of the king of Spain, who has been at The Hague for a few days and expecting to meet King Alfonso and Queen Victoria after their proposed visit to Vienna, has received a dispatch saying that the emperor's health was so seriously impaired that the visit of her majesty is abandoned.

Natural conversation of the delegates in the peace conference is almost entirely on the question of what would happen in case of the death of the old monarch, who next year would celebrate the sixtieth anniversary of his accession to the throne.

The diplomats, some of whom know the situation in Austria thoroughly, say that just because the dismemberment of Austria and Hungary at the death of the emperor-king has been so often predicted, it will not happen. The authorities being prepared for such an event and having long since planned the severest measures in order to keep the internal and foreign policy of the government, as his successor will not command the same influence over the army and navy, and the emperor's policy they have accorded Francis Joseph.
