

NOTES FOR THE LADIES.

Gen. Jubal Early denies that he has three wives.

"Pass me that crumero." [Rural lady in a tea store.]

It is reported that Foster, the medium, is to marry Miss Weatherby, the actress.

Beecher thinks that piety is the best cure for a scolding wife. Few husbands but have tried something else.

She danced with Washington, and now she is dead. A fearful warning that our thoughtless girls should heed.

The Princess Louise, of Lorne, has been chosen President of the National Union for Improving the Education of Women.

The principal temperance organization in Ohio is led by a woman. It is commonly called a broom-tick.

Mrs. Andrews, of Vermont, said she didn't care a darn whether dinner suited her husband or not, and a justice fined her seven dollars.

It costs an ultra-fashionable New Yorker $8,000 per year to belong to a fashionable club and even then his wife jaws around if he is out after midnight.

The Springfield Republican wants all the girls to learn to swim right away. Yes, but they must not swim too far, and they must swim right back again early.

A Brooklyn man, according to the Argus, who contemplates taking his girls to Europe, next spring is having a Diana swimming-bath dug in his cellar.

Vassalboro, Me., has a prodigal wife, who after nine years among the Shakers, returns to her husband, and has the fatted turkey killed in her honor.

"Are you a burglar, sir? If so, do not come in, as I am all alone," said a Somerville (Mass.) servant girl, when a man called the other day.

It is said to have become the fashion, in Boston, to announce on the invitation cards to gold and silver weddings, that "no presents will be received."

Nice little girl—Oh, Mr. Brown, give me one of the fish you've been catching. Brown (who rather fancies himself and does all he can to keep up the character)—I haven't been fishing, my dear; I've been for a row. Nice little girl—Why, Emily was looking at you through a telescope, and said you did nothing but catch crabs. [Brown retires, smiling painfully.]—Judy.

A Green Bay woman, whose husband kicks her down stairs every second night, says she likes to look over his old letters commencing with: "My dearest, darling little angel Minnie, heaven alone knows the depth of my love for you."

Of "corset" it is not detrimental to health, for didn't it preserve the life of an Indiana maiden the other night! The ball fired by her heart-broken lover glanced off when it hit it, and he is now languishing in jail, while she swaps smiles with the other fellow.

A young lady in Jeffersonville was recently made the victim of a heartless practical joke. She was almost overwhelmed with confusion by the discovery that she had been walking the street with a placard pinned to the back of her dress upon which was printed, "2,000 children wanted."

The editor of the Boston Post, who took his position on the corner early, attired in kid gloves, gold-headed cane, plug hat, and other elegant articles of dress, reports that 11,379 females passed by the corner of Washington and School streets, Boston, on the day before Christmas, between the hours of 12 m. and 5 p.m.

There are many men in existence who deem it no harm to speak slightly of women; according to their idea, it is quite meet that the strong should assail the weak. One of these robbers of reputation received a severe rebuke on a recent occasion. At a dinner at which no ladies were present, this man in responding to a toast, "Woman," dwelt almost solely on the frailty of the sex, claiming that the best among them were little better than the worst, the chief difference being their surroundings. At the conclusion of the speech, a gentleman present rose to his feet, and said: "I trust the gentleman, in his application of his remarks, refers to his own mother and sisters, not ours." The effect of this most just and timely rebuke was overwhelming, and the maligner of woman was covered with confusion and shame.

The British Mission.—In a letter from President L. J. Herrick, dated Cardiff, Dec. 6, concerning his visit to Wales, and published in the Millennial Star, the following passages occur—

"Up to the present time we have held eight meetings, all of which have been well attended by the Saints and strangers.

"To-morrow we have three appointments to fill—two at this place and one at Treorchy, a small branch several miles from Cardiff.

"Elder Rees has done a good work in this Conference.

"We have been kindly received by the Saints in every branch that we have visited. It seems that the people are ready and willing to do all they can for the comfort of the servants of God; in fact, I might say that I never travelled among a more hospitable and warm-hearted people than the Welsh Saints.

"Many are making preparations to emigrate, and quite a number are expecting to go by the first ship that sails next season.

"We hear of no complaints as to lack of labor in this part of the United Kingdom, and, so far as we can learn, fair, liberal prices are paid for every kind of labor."

Two gentlemen of Anaheim, Cal., were weighed on a hay-scale the other day and balanced it at 594 pounds.

The Santa Clara, Cal., Agricultural Society will have no more pool selling on the grounds of the Society at county fairs.

A seven "year" old girl, at Oakland, Cal., fleeing from her father, who had threatened to whip her, jumped out of a window and broke her thigh.

The Chicago Times wants a Millard hall in every church, and claims that better Christians and fresher sermons will be the result.

Sir James Colville recently, in London, gave judgment in the case, "Futtsange Jaswantanji vs. Kullianraji Hakcomatraji," which raised a novel question that was almost as difficult as the names of the defendant and plaintiff.

PRICE $290
You ask WHY we can sell First Class 7 Octave Pianos for $290? We answer—It costs less than $300 to make any $600 piano sold through Agents, all of whom make 100 per cent. profit. We have no Agents, but ship direct to families at Factory price, and warrant 5 Years. Send for illustrated circular, in which we refer to over 500 Bankers, Merchants, &c., (some of whom you may know) using our Pianos in 44 States and Territories.

ZION'S Co-operative Mercantile INSTITUTION

IS DOING THE LARGEST BUSINESS EVER carried on in the Territory of Utah, arising from a uniform system of dealing principally with manufacturers of standard goods, buying in immense quantities and selling on the closest margins.

The largest part of their purchases for the

Wholesale and the Retail Dry Goods Department

Are made through their New York office, from whence all fluctuations in the Foreign and Home Markets are closely watched.

The Institution is complete in all its various departments, and fresh novelties are added to the stock as fast as they are offered in the market. Visitors are shown through the buildings without the slightest importunity to purchase.

The Gentlemen in charge of the several departments are among the most widely and favorably known in the Rocky Mountains, and we commend them to the confidence of the public, promising that no effort on their part shall be wanting to insure a continuance of its patronage.

They are enabled not only to suit the tastes of an intelligent trade, but also to compete successfully with Eastern dealers. In fact no country merchant can afford to pass by this city under the impression that Eastern markets will give him lower prices, better stock or more favorable terms. Their

Grocery, Hardware, and Drug Departments,

For completeness and variety of stock, have never been equalled west of New York, and merchants in the neighboring settlements in the Territories cannot do better than replenish their stock from this source. Their

Clothing Department

Is now opening its magnificent fall and winter purchases, among which is the most varied assortment of Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods ever brought to Utah. Since merchant tailoring has been added to and made a specialty in this department, that branch of the Institution's trade has attained a perfection never arrived at by any similar house in the Territory. Foreign and domestic fabrics of every style and price are made to order or sold in piece. Their

Boot and Shoe Department

Keeps thirty hands constantly employed on all classes of work, and has never failed to secure the Prize Medals at our Territorial Fairs. Their facilities for turning out first-class work have never been equalled by any similar establishment in the Territories, and Gentlemen and Ladies visiting the city would do well to leave their measures with that Department, thus enabling them to order by mail at any time they desire a perfect fit.

The Institution deals in every class of merchandise, and all persons, however remote from business or manufacturing centres, can have their orders promptly filled by mailing them to
