NEWS OF THE DAY.

The yacht A. B. Thompson was captured by a heavy sea while crossing the bar opposite Atlantic City, N. J., yesterday afternoon, and five persons aboard drowned.

The Rev. Henry Ward Beecher has demanded an investigation of the charges made against him at various times by Mr. Tilton, and in accordance with his wish the investigation has commenced, being conducted by several of the representative men of the Plymouth Church Society.

Miss Fulton, of Fort Wayne,

Ind., was burned to death yesterday, by the explosion of a gun, from which she was kindling a fire.

News has been received at Washington, of further warlike manifestations on the part of Indians.

The loss by the fire in San Francisco yesterday was over one hun-dered thousand dollars, instead of thirty thousand as previously reported.

Late Japanese news says that the son of the Belgian minister to Japan accidentally shot and killed himself at Yokohama, June 15.

The smallpox has been very prevalent at Klotz, Japan, twelve hundred persons having died of it between October and April.

In the forthcoming Congress at Brussels, to revise and codify the laws of war, it is said that serious charges will be presented, each against the other, by France and Germany, in relation to acts committed during the late war.

A correspondent of the Vienna

New Free Press has been shot by the Carlists.

The body of James P. Everett, a U. S. Deputy Marshal, was found near Lynchburg, Va., yesterday,

Blaine, Senators Anthony, Cameron, Chandler, Edmunds and Thurman; Representatives Buffington, Coffey, Edwards, Egan, Hendricks, Pierce, and Williams; General French, sergeant-at-arms; Congressional Printer Clapp; Col. Wm. W.
Clapp, editor of the Boston Journal; and Messrs. Wm. H. Huse, C. C.
Dames, Richard Plumer, N. N.
Willingham, George Creasey, H. A.
Wilson, and J. C. Russell, all of Boston. The gallant Major was taken by surprise, but returned his acknowledgments in a suitable manner, and expressed the wish to re-visit the Mount of the Holy Hill during the coming season.

THE DOWNWARD ROAD.

AT A recent Gaiety celebration in Clermont County, Ohio, as reported in the Cincinnati Times, Mr. Britton, a farmer and a plain blunt man, "made a very sensible speech notwithstanding." He first sketched the early history of the fathers of the Republic, dwelling especially on their honesty of purpose and self-sacrifice in favor of the new free Government they established, and the contrasted with those the selfish and dishonest character of politicians generally who now seek to rule the country to the ruin of its people.

Mr. L. A. Hine "followed in a more scholarly style of speech," upon the questions of "Whether we are going, how fast are we progressing, and when will we get there?" Some points of his speech are thus presented:

"If a young man finds he is going in the way of the drunkard, he should stop at once, or so diminish the quantity and frequency of his libations as to insure a speedy reform. The nation that governs the destiny of a nation are much the same as those governing the individual. The nation that gives up to extravagance and reckless intoxication, is on the sure road to ruin, and must change its course or suffer defeat and death. A nation ought to live a thousand years, the ancient republics did; but at the rate the American Republic is rushing on its headless course, it will not survive half that length of time."

"The tendency of our population is to rush into the towns and cities, the hotbeds of disease and demoralization. In the last ten years their population has increased 150 per cent, while the population of the agricultural districts has increased only 10 per cent. The result is that the country is being depopulated.
In the days of our grandfathers and grandmothers, such a thing as a married couple without children was hardly known, and most of them had five or six; but now childless couples could be counted by the score in every community."

"One third of the people of Massachusetts are foreigners; two-thirds are natives; but the one-third are blessed with more than the children of the State, showing that the American people are losing their vigor and prosperity."

"The poor are growing poorer, and the rich richer. The number of prosperous farmers is not so great, in proportion to the whole population, as it was twenty years ago."

TOO MANY GIRLS—WHAT IS TO BE DONE?—Not only in Britain and Europe generally, and in New England and other eastern States are the girls getting "too many" for the men, numerically as well as otherwise, but the same startling fact is manifest also in California, according to the following from the Oakland Transcript of July 9:

"Can anybody give the reason for the disparity in numbers between the sexes born into the world? For instance, in San Francisco there are 354 more girls than boys between the ages of five and seventeen. In Oakland, between the same ages, there are 146 more girls than boys. About the same average is observable in Sacramento and other towns. Now, why is this?
How are all these extra girls to get husbands, unless they emigrate to Mormondom?"

Add to this the statement, made in the Old World, and also in the New World, both on the Atlantic and Pacific slopes, that the girls are showing themselves really apparently smarter than the boys, and the matter truly becomes somewhat alarming. The sex must look up to both as to moral immigration, or they will certainly lag in the rear of the race.

DISCOURSE

PRESIDENT BRIGHAM YOUNG,

DELIVERED IN

The Bowery, at Brigham City,

Saturday Morning,

June 26, 1874.

REPORTED BY DAVID W. EVANS.

A few of us have come to talk to the people of this place upon the things of the Kingdom of God, and calling to the coming of the Son of Man. We have come to organize, I will say truthfully, the Kingdom of God on
