Provement Associations of Utah very interesting and instructive ence of the Young Men's Mutual vement Associations of Utah was held in Provo, March 29th,

Saturday evening, at a business of the officers, the reports of missionaries, the treasurer and ary were presented. The officers discussed the advisability of hav-grand excursion in the mountains Fourth of July, and concluded one. Committees were appointed to locate grounds, build bowerhouse.

Sunday's meetings the presidents verbal report of their respective missions, explaining the method of conducting meetings, plans and programs, and the general feelings of the members. These reports showed encouraging results and a steady improvement among the young men. The conference was addressed by Brothers F. Wells and R. Badger, of the Territorial Superintendency; both of gave good instructions, and encouraged the young men to further improve. At the evening meeting the conference was crowded. After the program, which consisted of three ten-minute lectures on the first principles of the Gospel, songs, etc., was finished, the Lyman and President David gave some valuable instructions to the young, showing them how to prepare their speeches.

all, this was one of the most successful conferences the young people have ever held. The Spirit of God poured out upon them, and all felt renewed with the great future before the rising generation of the Latter-day Saints.

B. Y. ACADEMY.

the closing exercises of the third of the ninth academic year of the Academy were held at Provo on Friday, April 3d, at 10 a.m. After the closing exercises, the teachers made able reports of the departments classes under their charge. The reported drawback to the successful term being the gradually decreasing attendance.

The principal's report was also read showing a highly successful result.

Brother W. H. Dusenberry, secretary of the board, made a few interesting and encouraging remarks.

The choir and the two singing classes enlivened the proceeding by songs, and altogether the exercises were interesting and instructive. After dismissal the visitors were allowed to examine the students' work placed on exhibition.

The fourth term will begin Tuesday morning, April 7th, 1885, at the usual time.

WILLARD DONE,
Secretary of Examination.

THE STOCK CONVENTION.

THEY JOIN, DISAGREE AND SEPARATE.

Soon after our reporter left the stock convention in the Opera House yesterday afternoon with his "copy" for last evening's issue, the association from the City Hall, the members of which had been invited to attend, arrived and were seated on the west side of the building, which had been vacated for that purpose.

The committee on invitation reported and were discharged.

At the request of Mr. Hatch, Mr. S.
J. Jones, of Provo, took the chair.

Mr. Jennings wished to know before proceeding any further, what was meant by the term "faction;" he did not consider his association such, and wished to know to whom that term referred.

This remark seemed to create some surprise, but more disappointment, as it was hoped an amicable amalgamation of the two conventions could be made, but this seemed an impediment in the way of accomplishing that end.

Mr. Faust moved that the past be forgotten, but Mr. Jennings repeated his question.

Mr. Hatch explained that the word "faction" had been stricken from the minutes and the term "interest" substituted, and had been used in referring to certain differences that had existed. He then made a strong speech in favor of conciliation and union of interests.

Mr. Faust also spoke in a similar strain, after which Mr. Jennings dis-claimed all ill-feelings on the part of himself and association, and wished to know for what purpose they had been invited.

By way of explanation Mr. Woolley made a motion to proceed to organize a Territorial Association, but Mr. Young said that there was one already organized—the one visiting the building —and desired that their by-laws be read and adopted by both conventions, as they are, or that they be amended if necessary, and then be adopted. Considerable discussion followed.

Mr. Hatch, having an engagement to meet elsewhere, stated that he would be obliged to retire, and were it possible for him to remain, he would take pleasure in nominating Mr. Jennings as president of the Territorial organization.

Mr. Jennings said he had not come to be insulted and insisted upon the precedence of his association as it was the first organized in the Territory and had been in existence for several months and he did not wish to have it ignored.

An hour or so was spent in a somewhat disorderly wrangle and discussion, with a view to uniting the two conventions, but the breach between them grew wider, until at length Mr.
Jennings took his hat and departed, followed by most of the members of his association.

The motion to proceed with a Territorial organization was finally carried, and after some further discussion, Mr.
Jennings was elected President of the Association.

Mr. Abram Hatch was chosen first vice-president and here the organization stopped amid a general feeling of disgust at the wrangling discussion and personal feelings of the different factions. Several members of Mr.
Jennings' association desired to have all the stockmen meet in the evening at the City Hall, which arrangement was finally agreed upon and an adjournment was taken until 7.30 p.m.

At about 8 o'clock Mr. Jennings called the meeting to order.

Mr. Leavitt explained that the members of the convention held in the Opera House met in the City Hall by invitation extended in the afternoon after the withdrawal of Mr. Jennings.

On motion, Mr. Mercer, of the Northwestern Live Stock Journal, addressed the meeting. He made a telling speech, referring to the advantages Utah possessed as a stock country, and strongly urged his hearers to form one firm, aggressive association, and not to waste their strength and vigor by forming a myriad of societies, and taxing themselves out of existence by paying dues to all.

Mr. Farr asked whether this was a meeting of the association which had been formed at the Opera House, of which Mr. Jennings had been elected President.

Mr. Jennings responded that this was a meeting of the Utah Horse and Cattle Growers' Association.

Mr. Young moved that the meeting go into a joint committee of the whole to hear, read and discuss the articles and by-laws.

Considerable discussion followed, after which Mr. Grover, the secretary of the Utah Horse and Cattle Growers' Association, read their by-laws.

A clause in them relating to sheep-growers formed another bone of contention, and another lengthy squabble followed, lasting until the joint session broke up.

Here the question was sprung as to whether there was one or two associations in session, and after more discussion, the matter was decided by the adjournment of Mr. Jennings' association, leaving the Opera House cattle men in possession of the room.

Mr. Farr pertinently asked, with some amazement depicted on his countenance, if they stood then where they started—unorganized? No one seemed able to supply the information, and after some more talk, it was decided that they meet in the Opera House in the morning and make a permanent organization.

This morning, at 10 o'clock, the Utah Cattle and Horse Growers' Convention assembled in the Opera House, and proceeded in a business-like manner to effect the organization of a permanent Territorial association. The following officers of the permanent organization were elected: H. J. Faust, president; J. Q. Knowlton, secretary; Charles French, assistant secretary, and D. B.
Brinton, treasurer.

Mr. Faust moved that R. N. Baskin, Seth Fletcher, A. J. Stewart, A. O.
Smoot, Mr. Murphy, H. J. Faust, John L. Houtz, E. D. Woolley, Aaron Farr, A. Nebeker, A. Robinson, W. C. Ry-dall, Jos. Hatch, F. Armstrong and Jas. Bean be elected as executive committee for this branch of the national organization. Carried.

A motion that a committee of three on constitution and bylaws be appointed and instructed to report at next meeting was carried.

Mr. Walton, Jos. Hatch and A. Nebeker were appointed a committee on finance, to obtain means for the payment of the band, etc.

The following resolution was then read and adopted:

Resolved, That the Cattle and Horse Growers' Association, in session assembled, hereby express the highest appreciation of the appointment of N.
J. Coleman, as Commissioner of Agriculture, and congratulate the country on this result.

The following communication was then read:

Utah Cattle and Horse Growers' Association, Salt Lake City, Utah:

Gentlemen—In reference to marks and brands, I will be pleased to meet with any committee you may appoint to inquire into the subject of marks and brands, with a view to revising the records and purging them of many surplus and unused brands and marks contained therein. I realize that the law in relation to marks and brands is very weak and insufficient, and will gladly aid in any move that will tend to improve and regulate the matter.

Very respectfully,
N. W. CLAYTON,
Recorder of Marks and Brands.

A communication from Mr. Jennings was then read, stating that he declined the position of President, to which he was elected yesterday, as his numerous other duties took all his time and attention. He thanked them for the honor shown him, and trusted that good feelings prevailed with all.

The convention then had a recess of five minutes while the committee on finance collected the necessary means from the members to pay the expenses that were due.

On the convention being called to order the finance committee reported all debts paid and were discharged.

A vote of thanks was tendered the officers of the convention and the newspaper reporters for their labors.

Mr. Nebeker then offered a resolution thanking Mr. Faust for his untiring labors in bringing about the organization; the sacrifice of personal feelings to promote its welfare, and as vice president of the national organization, and acknowledging his authority.

The resolution was adopted, and Mr.
Faust replied in a short and interesting speech.

On motion, the railroads were tendered a vote of thanks for their courtesies.

The convention then dissolved, but immediately convened as the new and permanent organization.

Mr. Faust took the chair amid applause, and suggested that the meeting proceed at once to elect the necessary permanent committees.

Mr. Stewart moved that a committee of five on laws be appointed by the chair; carried. A. J. Stewart, A. Hatch, Mr. Francis, F. Armstrong and F. S.
Walker were appointed such committee.

Moved that a committee on refrigerators and shipping meat be appointed, carried. The chair appointed Wm.
Hoyt, A. S. Patterson, J. C. Rich, J. S.
Houtz and A. Nebeker.

The following committee on constitution and bylaws was then appointed; and instructed to report at next meeting: Messrs. Evans, Francis, Tripp, Call and Hatch.

A committee of Messrs. Stewart, Walton and Pratt, on railroad and transportation, was next appointed.

Mr. Stewart stated that many leading citizens desired a fair this fall, and would contribute liberally for premiums, etc., and moved that a committee of three be appointed to work up this matter; carried. Mr. A. J. Stewart, E. A. Smith and I. Evans were appointed to act as such committee.

The Association then adjourned until Oct. 1, subject in the mean time to the call of the President.

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY APRIL 6.

Fair.—It is anticipated by the committee appointed by the Territorial Stock Association to consider the advisability of holding a Territorial fair, that about the first of October next such an event will occur in this city.

Paralysis.—Father John Tudden-ham, who has been the Curator of the Deseret Museum since the demise of Prof. Barfoot, was stricken with paralysis and died suddenly at his residence in the Twenty-first Ward, shortly after 2 o'clock this morning.

Correction.—Mr. Bishop called in on Saturday to state that Mr. Thomas Bishop—not Messrs. Newton & Son, as we were informed—sunk his own well in the Nineteenth Ward, and also one for Mr. Bywater. The Messrs. Newton did the work for Mr. Barnes.

A Successful Trip.—Brother Joseph Bull returned last evening from a business trip to the east, in the interest of the Deseret News. He has been absent six weeks, during which time he visited the principal business centres of the Union, was quite successful, and returns in good health and spirits.

Robbery.—On Saturday night the valise belonging to Thomas Maynard, who is staying at the City Hotel, on First South Street, was opened by some one who had entered his room, and robbed of two $5 greenbacks, a British bulldog pistol, and a pair of drawers. The thief has not yet been arrested.

Another Pest.—Mr. Caleb Luker, of Bountiful, sent to our office to-day several large, smooth, brown worms, as a sample of a pest that has appeared in great numbers in his neighborhood, and is completely destroying many fields of lucern. These worms are about the size of the tent caterpillar, that made such havoc of the foliage of the trees last year and threaten to do the same this summer. Their appearance and habits, however, are quite different. The gentleman states that nearly all of the lucern in the vicinity of Bountiful will no doubt be destroyed by the pest this season.

An Assault.—Complaint was made this morning in the Justice's Court, against one A. C. Jensen, for assault and battery on an old man named Nielsen. The affair took place on the range about six miles west of the Sixth Ward bridge, over Jordan, and arose from a dispute regarding a house built by Jensen for Nielsen's son-in-law. It is claimed that Nielsen's assailant, who is a large man, knocked him down several times, and kicked him in the right side, severely injuring him. He was found lying on the ground, unable to arise, and brought home by some of his friends.

Arraigned.—In the District Court this afternoon, James C. Watson was arraigned, charged with unlawful cohabitation, under the Edmunds law.
He was given until the 1st of May to plead, and his bonds fixed at $1,500, Thomas Dobson and J. M. Benedict becoming securities.

An indictment having been found against Elder A. M. Musser, charging him with unlawful cohabitation, he was required to appear before Commissioner McKay this afternoon and give bonds in the sum of $1,500. Messrs.
S. P. Teasdel and T. W. Ellerbeck became his sureties.

Morgan County.—From Brother Samuel Francis, who is down from Morgan Co., we learn that the snow has been off the surface in Weber Valley for about ten days now, and the people are busy as possible putting in their crops, with strong hopes of an abundant harvest. Quite a number of that region have gone to Logan to attend Conference, a rate of $3.30 having been allowed by the U. P. for the trip, which may be considered rather liberal in view of the fact that the Conference rate to this city used to be $3.00. The Saints of the Morgan Stake have lately placed new seats and a stand in their Stake Meeting House, which render its interior much more attractive and comfortable than formerly.

Welcome Home.—Utah's Delegate to Congress, Hon. John T. Caine, accompanied by his wife and two daughters, arrived home by last evening's U. C. train, after an absence of upwards of four months, most of which time has been spent in the nation's Capital, guarding and laboring to enhance the interests of his constituents, the people of this Territory. He honored the News with a call this morning, and we were pleased to find him looking so well after the long period of anxious care and assiduous labor through which he has passed.
He has faithfully performed the duties of his office, and his legion of friends throughout the Territory will doubtless feel to unite with us in bidding him welcome home.

District Court Proceedings.—The case of Anthony vs. Savage was dismissed this morning, and the suit of London Bank vs. Flagstaff was transferred to the law and motion calendar.
The amended complaint in the case of T. C. Griffiths vs. E. A. Ireland was ordered filed.

In the case of Thomas Marshall vs. the London Bank, default of the defendant was entered and the matter referred to the clerk to compute the sum due, and judgment was granted as prayed.

The defendants in the case of the People vs. Lee Dong et al. were arraigned and pleaded not guilty. Two days were allowed to withdraw the plea.

In the case of Frank Wright vs. M.
S. Ascheim a verdict was rendered in favor of the plaintiff and the jury was discharged. Defendant was allowed en days to file notice for a new trial, and thirty days thereafter in which to file the motion and statement upon the motion for a new trial.

In the case of Lucien Lutzgubler vs.
Mary Worseldine, a motion for a rehearing upon demurrer was granted on trial of cause.

A jury was empaneled in the case of N. E. Leavitt vs. Oxford and Geneva M. Co., and the trial is in progress.

Richard S. Jones, of England, was admitted to citizenship.

James C. Watson was arraigned for unlawful cohabitation and placed under $1,500 bonds. He was allowed until May 1st to plead.

A Pioneer Gone.—Elder John Pack, who died suddenly at his residence in the 17th Ward, on Saturday evening, April 4th, was born on the 20th of May, 1809, at St. John's, New Brunswick. He moved with his parents, at the age of eight years, into the State of New York, where he was baptized, in his 26th year, by James Blakesly. He was ordained an Elder in the same year by Orson Pratt and Luke Johnson, and was an active member of the local Priesthood. He gathered with the Saints to Kirtland in 1839, but went the next year to Missouri, where he was with them in their persecutions.
At one time he was taken prisoner, with his wife, on Grand River, and was condemned by the mob to be shot. No one was willing to be his executioner, however, and he was released. After the surrender of Far West, he went to Pike County, Ill., but gathered with the Saints the next year to Nauvoo. While living at Nauvoo he performed several missions to the Eastern States, and at the time of the martyrdom of Joseph and Hyrum Smith he was absent with Ezra T. Benson on a mission in New Jersey. He crossed the Mississippi river on the ice with his family, Feb. 8th, 1846, and joined the camp on Sugar Creek, going with them subsequently to Winter Quarters.

He was an active member in the company of pioneers who came to the Great Salt Lake Valley in July, 1847; he went back the same year and returned with his family in 1848. In 1849 he went with President John Taylor and Curtis E. Bolton on a mission to France, returning in 1852. He was among those sent to settle Carson Valley, and returned with the others when they were called back. In 1869 he performed another mission to the Eastern and Middle States, since which time he has been an active member of the Priesthood at home. At the organization of the Eighth quorum of Seventies, he was chosen senior president, and has been, ever since his baptism, a faithful member of the Church. He was the father of 43 children, 37 of whom survive him, besides 89 grandchildren, and 5 great-grandchildren. The funeral will be held in the 17th Ward School House Wednesday April 8th, at 2 o'clock p.m.
The friends of the family are invited.
