MISTAKES ABOUT "MORMON ISM."

THE Prairie Farmer, in noticing the arrival of the last company of "Mormon" emigrants for the season, remarks:

"Persons who were certain that with the death of Brigham Young, Mormonism would become a thing of the past, must have made a misof the past, must have made a mis-take in their calculation."

Just so. And those who are sure of its extinction in the future make Men's Mutual Improvement So-another mistake. It has survived ciety.
