MCGUIRE .- Another veteran has gone to rest. Death has again entered our precinct and taken to himself our esteeme brother, William Wells McGuire, who departed this life Thursday night, Dec. 5th, at ive minutes past eleven o'clock.

Catherine McGuire, and was born in Ches ter County, Penn., June 25th, 1809. In his boyhood he injured his knee, from the effects of which he has been lame the whole of his life. In the year 1838 he heard the Prophet Joseph Smith preach at the house of the late Bishop Edward Hunter. Though he had previously been skeptical in his views of religion he received the words of inspiration as they flowed from the month of one sent by the Deity, and was shortly afterward baptized by Elisha H. Davis. He emoved to Illinois in 1849, and went through all the scenes the Saints passed through i that state. Came west with the Church in the exodus of 1846. Had prior to that been ordained a member of the Quorum of Sev enties in the autumn of 1844, and belonge to the Fourteenth Quorum. In 1853, h sme to Utah where he has since resided scating first at Little Cottonwood, and shortly after the settling of Plain City noved to that place. He had an excellen education, and spent nearly one half of his life teaching school. He was for many years justice of the peace, and also postmaster a PlainCity. He had a most exemplary charac ter and was upright and just in his dealings with his fellow-men, observed every duty

Ignored

The charge of burglary upon which young Frank W. Merrill of Logan, who had lately taken a position in Z: C. M. I. in this city, was arrested a few days ago, has been ignored by the grand jury. It was founded upon an incident that occurred over a year ago, and the action of the grand jury is tolerably conclusive evidence that there was no basis for the accusation.

From facts that have been communicated to us, it would seem that private malice had much to do with the pro curing of the arrest. Young Merrill, who is but seventeen years of age, bears the reputation of a quiet, studious, inoffensive boy, and his family is one of unquestioned respectability.
