LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

SERVICES AT THE TABERNACLE.—Elder Wilford Woodruff preached yesterday forenoon and Elder John Taylor in the afternoon.

PARDONER.—James Killgore, who was sentenced to the penitentiary for killing a man about two years since, has been pardoned by Governor Woods.

PROF. TULLIDGE'S BALL.—This ball comes off to-night, at the Thirteenth Ward Assembly Rooms.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Caleb Hatley, who emigrated from Shuford, Near Banbury, England, and crossed the plains in 1847 or 1848, and whose mother and two sisters died on the plains, coming with him. Address, Daniel Cross, Salt Lake City.

THREE QUARTERS OF A CENTURY OLD.—Mr. Robert Carter, the well known and veteran newspaper carrier, informs us that this (March 19th) is his seventy-fifth birthday. Robert is still hale and hearty, and is proverbial for his punctuality in attending to his business. Those who patronize him will always find him prompt and attentive.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.—Yesterday, Sunday, 17th, was the anniversary of St. Patrick's day, which was widely celebrated in various parts of the world, as well as in this city.

CONCERT.—Mr. Joseph Daynes will give a vocal and instrumental concert in the Twentieth Ward School house, next Saturday evening. Miss Charlotte Goulder and Mrs. White will take part in the entertainment.

SEVERE.—The sharp weather of the last few days has not been confined to Utah. By noting our dispatches it will be seen that yesterday the Washingtonian were treated to snow, and that very hard snow weather has also been experienced far away in the north-west.

THE RELIGIOUS ELEMENT.—The Cincinnati Times has the following—

"WASHINGTON, March 12.—Utah District Attorney Bates declines to tender his resignation, as requested. He alleges that the Attorney-General and all the members of the Senate Committee on Judiciary support his course, and that the President has yielded to the solicitations of Rev. Dr. Newman, who charges that he (Bates) is 'a man in the interests of the religious element of the country on the Mormon question.'"

SANFIER.—Bro. R. N. Alfred writes from Spring City, March 15, that a heavy storm had just passed over that place and another was threatening. The weather was very cold and the health of the people, especially of children, was not so good as usual at this season.

ANOTHER OF THEM.—Here is another of those reliable dispatches sent over the wires from this point by the deputy ass. dispatch manipulator, showing the desperate straits to which the ring are driven—

"SALT LAKE, March 12.—The memorial presented to Congress protesting against the admission of Utah, was sent to Washington, signed by more than five hundred apostate Mormon Gentile ladies. The document contains the history of polygamous life and oppression of the Mormon leaders, and the danger to the law abiding population by admission, or the alternative population by women either to be consigned to the tender mercies of Brigham Young's conjugal or leave the country. They pray Congress that the action may not compel either. A delegation of women will probably go to Washington to work against admission."

Still another of them:
 "Salt Lake, March 10th.—The Gentiles will not go to the polls on election day, as the game is too well arranged to give them any show. They prefer to trust to the integrity of Congress to keep out the Territory."

THE TENTH WARD BAND made things lively and musical to-day in the streets before the Nevada and in front of the residence of a number of our principal citizens.

SERIES PARTY.—The Fourteenth Ward choir give a complimentary party next Thursday evening to their leader, Prof. C. J. Thomas. The professor has many warm personal friends and, doubtless, the party will be well attended. During the evening the guests will be regaled with songs by Professor Thomas, Mrs. Thomas, Miss Spencer and others. An excellent quadrille band will be in attendance, under the direction of Messrs. Olsen and Oroskoff. The calling will be unexceptionable, as it will be done by M. James Currie. We acknowledge complimentary to the party.

VOTING FOR THE CONSTITUTION.—Voting for the State Constitution framed and adopted by the late Convention and the Congressional Representative and State Senators and Representatives has been lively all day. Doubtless a large vote will be polled.

AT OMAHA.—William Jennings and John Sharp, Esqrs., arrived at Omaha safely to-day on their way East. They left this city on Saturday.

THEATRE.—On Saturday evening Miss Adams had a large house at her benefit. The comedy (not much of a comedy though where a man is killed and a woman dies of grief) of "Frou Frou" was presented and played in a commendable style. Miss Adams as "Gilberta," the erring wife, played with much power and effect. Miss Coulstock as "Louise" enacted her part with equal effectiveness. Mrs. A. Clawson as the "Baronne de Cambré," presented an acceptable picture of the fashionable French woman of the world. Mr. Margotta as the "Daron de Cambré," the comic man of the play, frequently filled the house with laughter. Mr. Thompson as "Henry Sartory" played with much skill and neatness. The close-dance by Mr. Mat Williams and Master Willie Clawson, and the dance of the "Dead Shot" pleased the audience largely. At the close of the play Miss Adams, in response to the call of the house, appeared before the curtain and briefly returned her thanks.

BASE BALL.—The following is the result of a match game of Base Ball played between the Step and Fitch Club and a Picked Nine, on Saturday, the 10th inst., on the Arsenal enclosure. Great interest was evinced in the game by numerous spectators present:

PROFESSOR FRATT'S LECTURES.—Professor O. Pratt commences the delivery of his course of six lectures in the Old Tabernacle on Wednesday evening, at half past seven o'clock. The second lecture will be delivered on the following (Thursday) evening and the remaining four on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of the two following weeks.

The learned and logical style of the lecturer needs no comment on our part, as his abilities are well known to the public.

The price of admission is 25 cents to each lecture or one dollar for six.

RICH GOLD DISCOVERIES.—The copious rains have not only put the idle claim owners in the mines to work, but have sent them abroad everywhere "prospecting." Their labors are meeting generally with a good reward. The following items, from the Idaho Herald, brings to mind the "days of '49":

"A Mr. Morris was mining in the vicinity of Corber's store, on Indian creek. His ditch getting clogged, broke, and the water washed a shallow out in the hillside below. Mr. Morris, on going to turn the water back, and while he had run down, and with joyful surprise saw that where the top had been washed away, the ground was thickly sprinkled with gold. Our informant, who was on Indian creek just after the discovery was made, says that the ground prospects from $3 to $4 to the pan in coarse, heavy pebbles shaped gold. Mr. Morris had just got ready to work it, and the claim would pay at least $200 a day to the hand."

—Idaho Herald, March 15.

A FIFTEEN'S CELEBRATION.—Consisting of literary and musical exercises and grand ball, in honor of third anniversary of the founding of the city, will be held at the Corinne Opera House next Monday, March 25th, to which we have received a complimentary.

Special Notices.

SIX LECTURES.—Prof. O. Pratt, Sen., will lecture in the Old Tabernacle, at 7 1/2 o'clock, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, of each week, for three weeks, commencing on the 20th March. Doors open at 7.
