REFORM WAVE IN WEBER.

Ogden, July 2:—Sheriff B. B. Wilson has been advised by County Atty. Har-ris that hereafter he, the sheriff, will ris that hereafter he, the sheriff, will see that the resorts in Ogden canyon do not sell any more liquor on Sunday. The order is directed at the proprietors of the Hermitage, the Oaks and the Idlewild, and was delivered to them last Sunday by the sheriff.

The county attorney says that his sole object in closing up the canyon resorts on Sunday is for the protection of life and property. He claims that numerous reports have reached him to the effect that liquor imbibers have

ANTI-GAMBLING CAMPAIGN.

The statement was also given out yesterday that the county attorney will also inaugurate a campaign against gambling in the city. Nothing has been done in this matter heretofore owing to the officers claiming they could not get any evidence. Within the past 10 days there have been cases in the police and district court which show conclusively that gambling exists in Ogden and it is with this evidence that County and it is with this evidence that county Atty. Harris will proceed.

In connection with the fight against the canyon saloons and gambling the chief of police has started a crusade against that class of men who live off the shame of women. There are many of them in Ogden and as fast as they are arrested and given are found they are arrested und given jall sentences varying from 75 to 99 days upon the rock pile. Truly the re-form wave has struck Ogden again. BICYCLE ACCIDENT.

NARROW ESCAPE FOR HIS LIFE.

Ernest Ford, son of Prof. Lorenzo Ernest Ford, son of Prof. Lorenzo Ford and son-in-law of John M. Browning of this city, was the victim of a peculiar accident which almost resulted fatally. Late Monday evening he was at the Glenwood saucer track riding around on a motor cycle which he recently purchesed.

As near as Ford can remember, it seems that he had ridden around the track so many times that he grew dizzy and fainted. In some manner he turned the motor on for full speed and it ran away with him. It struck and it ran away with him. It struct a pole and he was thrown to the ground. The gasoline of the engine in the tank caught fire and burned up and set fire to his clothes. The timely arrival of friends probably saved the young man's life.

A report received from the Ford home early this morning is to the er-fect that the young man is resting comfortably and is in a fair way to fully recover.

The case is peculiar in that an effort was made to keep an account of the accident out of the newspapers. Why this was done is not known.
