try this side of the paimy and fruiting days of Old Palestne that can be made so abundantly to "flow with wine, oil, milk and honey," I have never found it. Here it is a verity.

THIS INTERIOR MOUNTAIN VALLEY and desert country is a second Palestine, and lying a little farther south, can produce the citras and perhaps that land. A more healthful cli-mate tacre is not perhaps under the sun. The railroad is now really here and the "boom" has started. Land and water claims are last going up in price, and where speculation or price will stop the future alone can tell. The on y present fear with me is that this country is too fruitful of earthly bless-ings to be really healthy for "Mor-mons." I am glad to say that there are many good faithful Saints in this region of country, who are earnestly ourths of the cost.
