A. R. Synners, of Kemmerer, Wyo., was an Ogden visitor this week.

The event that is causing much joyous anticipation is the coming of President McKinley to Utah in June. The president is expected to arrive in Ogden on Monday, June 2nd, and every preparation will be made to make the day one of the most pleasant for the president. Hon. J. P. Deane has been named by Thomas Browning to act as chairman of a committee to be chosen to make arrangements for his entertainment. A mass meeting of the citizens of Ogden will be called in the near future to decide on a program to be carried out on that date. One feature of the day that has been decided upon is an exhibition baseball game.

John McCready returned Tuesday from a trip through southern Utah.

Tuesday afternoon, two prominent young people of Salt Lake, Miss Ada Chandler and Mr. Walter Griffith, were united in bonds of holy matrimony by Justice Parker J. Hall. The groom is an ex-member of Battery B.

a four-horse team and going up Coal canyon had obtained plenty of evergreen trees. Other trees were secured from a local nurseryman, and all were planted. Over two hundred trees have been planted and when they grow a little larger they will make the school campus one of the most beautiful in the state. Some of the evergreens were planted as the beginning of a "park" with which it is designed to cover the entire school grounds.

On Wednesday the class in botany spent its recitation period on the campus collecting for classification some of the earliest wild flowers. The members of the class are making considerable headway in the identification of specimens.

Several new students are entering the school for work in the spring course. A number of them are students who were forced last year to discontinue their studies because of illness.

Members of the class of physics have performed over sixty experiments and are still working. The course offered here is as thorough as any elementary course offered in the state.

On Friday evening last the athletic association gave a ball in the ward hall. While a little money was realized those present had a very enjoyable time.

Next Friday evening at the Students' Society the chief part of the program will be a debate concerning government ownership of railroads and telegraph lines. The debaters are devoting considerable attention to the subject, and the evening promises to be an interesting one.

Owing to the rough, cold weather of the last two weeks practically no members of the track team. With the coming of fine weather, however, they are again at work.

SALT LAKE HIGH SCHOOL.

The matter of commencement program has been taken up, but nothing definite done as yet.

E. W. Wilson, former president of the board, visited the school.

The certainty of a full school year has had a very desirable effect upon the school.

Miss Maude Stevenson has entered for special work in the commercial department.

The school was favored Wednesday morning with several vocal solos by Mrs. Jack Keith, among them "Love is a Bubble."

Rev. David Utter, a former member of the choir, now of Denver, addressed the students. His remarks consisted of both wit and wisdom, and were highly enjoyed by all, as was the musical part of the program.

Principal Eaton spent last Sunday in Ogden.

Students and teachers will be pleased to learn that Athol Rawlins, son of Senator and Mrs. Rawlins, who has been very seriously ill at Mercur, Pa., has recovered, and will soon return to Salt Lake.

Miss Stokes' geology class will visit the Highland Boy and Germania smelters Saturday morning.

On Friday Mr. Trovis' civics class discussed the question: "Resolved that a study of constitutional history is more beneficial than a study of Latin." The leaders were Edith Kendall for the negative and Edgar Rogers for the affirmative.

Messrs. Branting and Geoghegan, members of the board, were visitors this week.

A water color by H. L. A. Culmer now adorns the Shadow-box.

On Monday the political economy class discussed the question of postal savings banks. Zeta Morris favored the plan, while Henry Arnold preferred doing his banking business with private institutions.

The following visitors have registered this week: Rev. David Utter, Denver; Mrs. F. H. Hillyard, Seattle; Wash. B. A. Perkins, Mrs. E. M. Newcomb, Mrs. T. H. Smith, Mrs. A. H. Boxrud, Mrs. A. N. Cherry and Mr. E. W. Wilson, city; Mrs. William Burney, Washington, D. C.

L. D. S. COLLEGE.

The College basketball team has tried in vain to get another bout with the Y. M. C. A. team.

Mr. Atterstrom, a student of the business department, took a position last week in Davis county.

The school dismissed on Wednesday at 11 o'clock for the funeral of President George C. Cannon, and the faculty and students marched to the Tabernacle in a body.

The committee having in charge the contest with the B. Y. A. of Provo, were happily surprised at the excellent material they found here to work with. There is no question now as to who will be victorious.

That was a very creditable debate which was held at the college assembly hall last week between the Zeta Gamma of the University, and the Iho Beta of the college. The judges decided that the University society won by one-third of a point.

On Wednesday morning, at the students' meeting, a very good program was rendered. Miss Edna Edmonds sang; Prof. Giles played a selection, Miss Edna Worthen gave a very excellent paper on the subject of the Rights of Our Young People to a High School Education.

Almost the entire school, including the faculty, went to Provo this morning.

The Academy students and faculty will treat them right royally. The band met them at the station and conducted them to the college hall, where a program was given, followed by refreshments. In the afternoon the contests took place, with what result it is not yet known here. A ball will be given this evening.

BRIGHAM YOUNG ACADEMY.

Provo, April 18.—A large picture of President George C. Cannon, recently framed and hung in College hall, is the gift of Prof. B. T. Higgs.

Often the question has been asked, partly in jest, partly in earnest, as to a former item published in the "News," which stated that the Academy would offer a "stormy five weeks' summer school." For fear that this misunderstanding of books, will be given to the winners by the King-Richardson Publishing company.

The students are pleased to note that improvements are being made in their school home. On the north side of the main building an extension, three stories in height, is being erected for toilet purposes. A connection will be made with the city sewer system. This is a much needed convenience and will greatly benefit the academy.

At the preliminary athletic contest last Monday, the 1901 class carried off the first prize, the 1902 class the second prize. The team was chosen, most of its members being Ephraim Webb, Clarence Jarvis, Edmund Sanders, Warren Colton, Crann, Horace Seacrest, Orin Jarvis, Mr. Grover, Peter P. Peterson, Al Robinson and Edward Fernandez.

Circulars for B. Y. A. summer school are now being printed, and will be distributed to the two thousand teachers of the state. A departure from the regular summer school work will be made. Instead of one hour recitation, two hours will be given to subject daily. This is for the purpose of making the work thorough and to cover the matter that is generally given during a whole semester of regular school work.

Just now Mr. Ernest Seton Thompson is being talked about a great deal among the students. All are anxious for his lectures on Friday. In the afternoon he will lecture on "The Personality of Wild Animals," and in the evening on "Wild Animals I Have Known." The lectures will be made doubly interesting by stereoscopic illustrations, and imitations of animal cries and calls.

The academy is very fortunate in securing Dr. John R. Dewey for the summer school. He will deliver a series of ten lectures on pedagogical subjects especially adapted to district school work. The date for the lectures has not yet been fixed. Dr. Dewey is today recognized as one of the greatest authorities on pedagogy in the United States. These will be his only lectures in Utah during this year, and it was only because he was on his way to California that the academy was able to secure him at all.

Two hours were spent this morning in holding memorial services in honor of President George C. Cannon. His life was discussed in the phases of the boy and youth, the missionary, the business man, the author, the Congressman, the father in Israel, the Latter-day Saint and the president of the Brigham Young Academy. Each period was taken up by different persons chosen from the school and the faculty. Two sentiments were also given, and two solos clearly brought out.

WALKER'S STORE.

A RUG SHOW.

The new spring supply of Rugs is here—in time to be taken into your consideration with the question of house furnishing and spring renewal. The entire space of Carpet store Monday and week is to be covered with them; and this you know affords you the very best opportunity possible for view of every kind we keep. A goodly sight they are this year—handsome in coloring, excellent in design and best of all less price than you'd pay for any of equal quality elsewhere. In addition to the many other kinds, a particular showing of Botany Mills Rugs—exact imitations of Oriental gems, and in themselves make an interesting display. Also a handsome lot of odd shapes for odd places; but come and look, we especially invite you for Monday and week. The following suggests some of the prices:

Wilton rugs in carpet sizes, 9x12, $15.00, 14x18, 16x22, the best qualities made—$25.00, $35.00 and $45.00.	Art Squares most moderately priced. Granite Ingrain Druggists, 3x4 yards.....	REDUCED PRICES FOR THE WEEK.	Lot of fourteen Oriental Rugs, 3x5 feet, values up to $22.00 choice.....	About fifty Smyrna, Wilton and Axminster rugs in values to $3.00 each, for.....
$27.50	$5.00		$15.00	$2.00

Beautiful Silks, 73c a Yard. Handsone Dress Fabrics, 73c a Yard.

Every great sale leaves its trail—then follows the inevitable clean-up, and thereby hangs the tale of these wonderful tidings fraught with great interest to lovers of beautiful silks. From last week's phenomenal selling remain the short lengths—in some enough for waists only, others enough for skirts while others yet have sufficient for an entire dress. Poulards and waist silks priced from $1.00 up to $1.75 a yard, Monday and the week that none may be left by Saturday night, this remarkable little price—

73c a Yard.
Included with the silk sale these handsome dress fabrics: Exquisite silk embroidered and striped Albatrosses, plain silk stripes, Challis, plain dress goods in 45-inch Batistes, Nun's Veiling and Granites, colors and black; comprises hundreds of yards in 35, 41-15 and 41-22 goods, all to be fully displayed in center aisle for Monday and the week's sale, priced down to 73c a Yard.

$2.50 to $4.50 Silk Umbrellas For Men and Women, $1.95.

We have been looking for these many weeks—expected them surely at Easter time, but the plans of man oft fail to earth. Our buyer while east in March was one among others to take in a large lot of umbrellas knocked down to them greatly under regular market price. The maker—a most reputable one—had good reasons for so doing, but they are not important here. One hundred fell to our share. They will be in window Monday, come see them and you will be as enthusiastic as we. They are union silk, a mixture of silk and linen, stronger and more serviceable than pure silk, all black, 26-inch frames, tight roll, handsome handles of wood, horn and pearl, with silver trimmings, in different shapes and sizes; for men and women. Not one could you buy for less than $2.50, the others up to $4.50. Choice while the lot lasts—

Tan Oxfords and Shoes Half Price

The Oxford stock is now at its best, of course—being early season and buying time not yet begun; the shoes are less complete because of the great half price sale on them a few weeks back. The same reason for this phenomenal underprice exists now as then, too many tans—buyer was over sanguine as to number he could sell. Following items tell the story:

Wright & Peters' chocolate color oxfords, French heels, stylish dressy shoes, that sell for $4.50, this week.....	$2.25	All tan shoes for women.....	Half Price
Several styles of Women's E. C. Burt's tan oxfords, with heavy welt soles in light and dark tan, $4.00 kinds.....	$2.00	All children's tan shoes, every sort, button and lace, cloth or kid tops regularly priced from $1.50 to $2.50, choice.....	$1.25
Women's Krippendorff & Dittmann Russia calf oxfords, heavy welt soles, excellent for street or golf, $3.50 regular.....	$1.75	Youth's tan shoes, made of very best Russian calf, sizes 1 1/2 to 2, instead of $2.25.....	$1.48
Pretty well extension sole oxfords for women, dark tan, $3.00 regular.....	$1.50	Bargain Table Shoes.
Women's $3.00 chocolate color oxfords, French heels.....	$1.50	Broken lines of women's tan and black shoes, good shape in many styles but not every size, that were $2.25 up to $5.00 for clear.....	$1.50
Women's tan oxfords, $2.50 and $3.00 grades.....	$1.25	Misses and children's strap sandals, black and red leathers, sizes 8 1/2 to 2, instead of $1.50 and $1.75.....	$1.00

Fine Table Linen Reduced.

We have two lines of very fine Irish table linen, that for the price is most exceptional in quality. We designate it No. 220 and No. R. Many women patrons have known them for years and will not be persuaded to seek other, so satisfactory have they proven. Never before has under-price touched them, but the linen chief thinks they should have a much larger circle of friends and price reduction, you know is a wonderful marvel to induce such result. Every thread in No. 220 and No. R table linen is pure Irish flax, 72 inches wide, seven different and pretty pattern designs and have latest style borders. No. 220 is $1.40 a yard regularly, Monday and the week—$1.10; No. R, $1.55 reduced to.....

All Battenburg Pieces, 25 Per Cent Off.

A chance that comes to you just once each year. The vast selling we had on Battenburgs last April, outshone any sale that went before. This season it should surpass even that. The pieces are handsome, many of the designs are entirely original, the work superior, the collection is larger, hence variety very broad. Better think whether a new piece is needed for sideboard, dresser, table or window and seize your opportunity this week.

Scarfs, $1.50 to $1.50; Table covers, $2.00 to $3.00; Center Pieces, $1.25 to $3.25; Doilies, 25c to $1.00.

One-fourth of These Prices

Walker Brothers Dry Goods Co.

Hats are steadily growing larger and ostrich plumes are much in favor, a welcome relief from the masses of flowers so much worn. This beautiful model of white Neapolitan straw and black spangled lace, is trimmed with a rosette of black velvet ribbon and two ostrich plumes, one white one black.

CLUB CHAT.

The Daughters of the Revolution met at the home of Mrs. C. S. Williams yesterday, the session being in honor of the battle of Lexington. The topic was given by Miss Wells and the regent acted as hostess. The meeting was a most interesting one.

Next Friday, April 26th, will be dramatic day at the Ladies' Literary club. The program, which is in charge of Mrs. John Cain, will consist of a violin solo by Prof. Skelton; an address on "The Drama of Today" by Gov. Wells; a vocal solo by Miss Florence Kessler; a dramatic reading by Mrs. John Reed; readings from A. Ligon by Mrs. C. E. Richards and Mrs. Cain.

The Reapers' club met in the Woman's Exponent office, Templeton, on Monday, April 15th. A very interesting paper on American history was given by Mrs. Margaret A. Romney. This was followed by a discussion on the paper and current events.

The second meeting of the Daughters of the Pioneers will take place on Monday, the 22nd, at the residence of Mrs. A. E. Hyde.

The history section of the Ladies' Literary club will meet at the club house Thursday morning, April 18th, at 10 o'clock. Mrs. McMahon will tell of the Crimean War, and the Indian Meeting. The one minute talk will be on Disraeli.

The outlook for a club house controlled and occupied by regularly graduated college women is now very promising in New York. Preliminaries were

EDUCATIONAL.

UNIVERSITY.

The Athletic association will give a dancing party at Christensen's hall, Friday evening, April 18th. The chaperones will be Mrs. J. T. Kingsbury, Mrs. Joseph P. Merrill, Mrs. Byron Cummings, Mrs. H. C. McCoy.

The University summer school will open June 24th. Nearly all of the professors and instructors will offer courses in their respective subjects. There will be a number of lectures on educational topics by some of the most prominent local educators.

Instructor R. L. McGee of the department of Latin delivered a talk before the members of the Normal Society on Friday.

Professor Robert A. Bradford has distinguished himself at Columbia University as is evidenced by his receiving a fellowship from that institution for the ensuing year. Prof. Bradford is a member of the famous class of '95, some of the members of that class being now among the most prominent educators in the state.

The faculty and students attended the funeral of President George C. Cannon on Wednesday. The resolutions of respect that were drawn up by the faculty were spread upon the records of the University. President Cannon was chancellor of the University for a number of years, and was one of its most loyal as well as intelligent supporters.

The lectures that are being given by Prof. Roylance every Thursday afternoon are becoming very popular. They are thoughtful discussions of current topics.

Supt. Cooper and Miss Holton supervisor of primary work in the city schools will deliver lectures before the students in pedagogy at the University next week.

The normal school will be strengthened next year by the presence of Prof. G. P. Thomson, who will have charge of the normal training work. Prof. Thomson is now at the head of one of the departments of the Chicago Institute which is part of the Chicago University.

BRANCH NORMAL SCHOOL.

Cedar City, Utah, April 19.—The campus presented a scene of considerable activity on Monday, Arbor Day. Several of the young men had secured
