OGDEN GAS, LIGHT & FUEL COMPANY

Incorporated for $500,000 by
George A. Snow and Associates.

THREATENED COAL FAMINE.

Will Affect All People Alike—Funeral of Wm. McGregor—District Court Business—News Notes.

Ogden, Oct. 15.—Several months ago George A. Snow of Chicago made application to the Ogden city council and was granted a franchise to lay gas mains along the streets of Ogden and to build a gas plant, and now use of the franchise is to be made by Mr. Snow and his associates, who are all Utah men. A company has been formed by Mr. Snow, and its articles of incorporation have been filed with the county clerk. The corporation will be known as the Ogden Gas, Light & Fuel company, and Ogden is to be its principal place of business, but it is expected to extend its business to other parts of the state. The company is authorized for $500,000, divided into shares of the par value of $100 each. The business of the company will be to conduct and maintain the manufacturing and supplying of gas, electricity and steam, to furnish light, heat and power purposes, also to manufacture coal, coke, tar, ammonia, and other products. The officers of the company are: President, R. E. Stevens; Secretary and Treasurer, F. B. Stevens; and Mr. J. H. Harris form the board of directors.

COAL SHORTAGE.

Large Consumers and General Public Will Feel Its Effects.

Ogden, Oct. 15.—Is Ogden to be visited by another coal shortage this winter? The question being asked frequently by the consumers. Not alone a general public in danger of being without coal, but also many of the larger consumers. Last evening the street car company was compelled to stop running for a couple of hours because of being unable to get coal. The street car company is now endeavoring to satisfy the demand and the Ogden sugar factory has had to close down already once this year for part of a day for want of fuel. The public in general has been well supplied up to the present time, and the dealers say they have plenty of coal on hand, but the long wait for its delivery is what is going to do the harm. The only excuse the railroad company can make is the shortage of cars in which to transport the coal.

FUNERAL OF WM. MCGREGOR.

All that was mortal of William McGregor, who was killed Monday by a bull, was consigned to rest in the family burial plot in the Ogden city cemetery yesterday afternoon. Impressive funeral services over the remains were held at the First ward meetinghouse, commencing at 2 o'clock. Bishop D. H. Ensign presiding. Appropriate musical selections were rendered by the ward choir, and beautiful solos were sung by Mrs. May Farley and Charles Woods. President C. F. Middleton, Elders Joseph Parry, B. C. Critchlow and Bishop Ensign eulogized the useful life of the deceased, spent in doing good to his fellow man and in helping to raise mankind to a higher condition. ### KAYSVILLE.

BAIDED BY BURGLARS.

Three Places Visited—Attempt to Waylay County Treasurer Blood.

Kaysville, Davis Co., Oct. 17.—Between midnight and this morning, burglars raided three buildings and made their escape. The Oregon Short Line depot, the Kaysville Milling Co.'s store and Stewart-Burton Co.'s store were visited, but none of these places was any great amount of plunder taken, as far as could be ascertained today. The lock was broken from the freight room of the Short Line depot and some cracker boxes and hoops of cheese were broken open. The money drawer and ticket cases were untouched and some articles of value in the office were unmolested. At the mill company's office the having was not opened, only the desk money was tampered with, and Stewart-Burton Co.'s loss was some $500 in cash, gold jewelry, pocket knives and possibly some other articles. Entrance here was forced by the aid of a jimmy. The safe had been opened and rifled, but nothing of great value was taken from it. In connection with the burglary it developed this evening that County Treasurer George H. Blood had an experience last evening with the fellow who did the work. Mr. Blood was collecting taxes at Bountiful yesterday and after completing his day's collection for Farmington, a man boarded a train with him at Bountiful and bought a ticket for Layton, the terminus of the dummy line. When Mr. Blood alighted at Farmington, he found the man waiting for him, and the fellow followed Mr. Blood off to the mill house, carrying his deposit box and tax rolls, the fellow left the train an hour later. Mr. Blood took the Short Line train at Farmington to surprise to see the same man step on the train after him and take a seat opposite to him in the car. At Kaysville the train and kept close to him as both walked up town. The county treasurer prepared to defend himself if necessary, expecting every moment to be held up by the stranger, but fortunately a number of people were on the street and no opportunity for an attempt to hold-up occurred. What concerns the man with the last night marks where he walked toward the train at

NO DAWDLING.

A Man of 70, After Finding Coffee Hurt Him, Stopped Short.

When a man has lived to be 70 years old with a 40-year-old habit grow he will be like a knot on a tree, and he will be like a knot on a tree, and he will be like a knot on a tree. But occasionally the spirit of youth and determination remains in some men to the last day of their lives. When such men do find any habit of life has been doing them harm, they surprise the Oslerites by a degree of will power that is supposed to belong to men under 40, only. "I had been drinking coffee until three years ago—a period of 40 years—and am now 70," writes a N. Dak. man. "I was extremely nervous and debilitated, and saw plainly that I must make a change. For two months, also gaining strength and health otherwise." "For a man of my age, I am very well and hearty. I sometimes meet persons who have not made their Postum right and don't like it. But I tell them to boil it long enough, and call their attention to my looks now, and before I used it, that seems convincing." "Now, when I have writing to do, or long columns of figures to cast up, I feel equal to it and can get through my work with ease. I have no feeling of old." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read the book, "The Road to Wellville," in 100 pages. "There's a reason."
