

METCALF AND LOEB DON'T QUOTE AGREE

Secretary of Navy Says That Big Fleet of Battleships is Going to the Pacific.

PRIVATE SECY. SAYS IT ISN'T.

When Shown Statement of Head of Navy Department, Mr. Loeb Had Nothing Whatever to Say.

Oakland, Cal., July 4.—Secy. of the Navy Victor H. Metcalf, in an interview this morning, confirmed the report that a large part of the United States navy will be seen in Pacific waters next winter.

"Many false impressions have gained circulation about the proposed movement of this part of the United States navy," said Secy. Metcalf. "I have held all along that there was practically no significance to this movement from a military standpoint. I might have stated before leaving Washington exactly what I am saying now. I thought as the news concerned the people of the Pacific coast today would be an appropriate time to announce the exact plans.

"It is the policy of the navy department at the present time to keep the fleet in American waters as much as possible. It is also our policy, as has been stated, to keep as large a number of battleships together as possible. We might as well spend the money that is devoted to our navy in American ports as abroad. In the past we have sent squadrons to various European nations with less advantage than in keeping them at home.

"I have planned this cruise around Cape Horn for the practice of the squadron. How long they will spend in these waters I cannot say at present. I can promise the people of Oakland and San Francisco that they will see one of the finest naval spectacles ever witnessed in Pacific waters.

"I hope the talk of Japanese troubles and of international differences may be dropped by all of the newspapers. It is without foundation. The story that Ambassador Aoki is in disfavor with his own government, I believe purely an invention. I know of no reason at the present time why Japan and the United States should not be on the friendliest of terms."

WHAT SECY. LOEB SAYS.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 4.—An official statement was made public at the executive office here today regarding the report of a battleship fleet visiting California.

The statement is given out by Secy. Loeb as follows: "There is no intention of sending a fleet at once to the Pacific. For the last two years the administration has been perfecting plans to arrange for a long ocean cruise of the battleship fleet when a sufficient number of warships are gathered. This cruise may be to the Pacific, but might possibly be only to the Mediterranean or the South Atlantic. It may possibly take place next winter, but on the other hand it may not be convenient to arrange it until later. In any event after a few months the fleet will be brought back together to the Atlantic coast.

"Wherever the voyage is made or not, whether the fleet stays in the Atlantic or goes to the Pacific, will be determined simply as a matter of routine in the management and drill of the navy. It is now part of the settled policy of the navy department

ITCHING TORTURE OF LITTLE BABY

Head and Face Covered With Awful Itching Sores and Scabs—Would Scratch Until Blood Came—Mother in Despair for Treatment Did No Good—Dread Disease

YIELDED TO CUTICURA ALMOST IMMEDIATELY

"I was in despair about my baby. When he was about two months old his face and head were full of scabs and very itching sores with terrible running matter. I had to tie his little hands in bags for he used to make his face and head bleed. I had two or three doctors but they did not do any good. I was told to try Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment and I can say that they stopped the running matter immediately and soon after his skin cleared up. He looked almost well, but I used about three cakes of Cuticura Soap and four or five boxes of Cuticura Ointment, continuing the treatment for two or three months. I also used Cuticura Remedies for my other children and took Cuticura Resolvent myself to purify my milk for my baby when I nursed him and suffered with that terrible itching and sores he had. Now I feel as he has Cuticura Soap and Ointment in the house handy. I should be glad if you want to publish this letter so that other sufferers will come to know what good the Cuticura Remedies can do. Mrs. Frances Rizzo, 1244 Oakdale St., Philadelphia, Penn., Nov. 8 and 18, 1906."

SKINS ON FIRE

With Torturing, Disfiguring Eczemas, Rashes, And other itching, burning, bleeding, scaly, and crusty skin and scalp troubles, are instantly relieved.

Col. Rainey Declares President Intends to Destroy State Lines And State Rights.

New York, July 4.—A message from William J. Bryan was one of the features of the celebration of the Fourth by the Tammany society today. Mr. Bryan was one of the guests invited to help the society celebrate, but was unable to attend and sent a message from Lincoln in which he said:

"I trust your celebration will increase the enthusiasm of the New York Democratic party and direct attention to the fact that the economic questions now before the country, the tariff question, the tariff question and the railroad question, all involve the same issue, namely, whether the government shall be administered in the interest of a few favorites, or in behalf of the whole people.

Other questions will enter into the campaign, but these questions emphasize the importance of applying to the government the Jeffersonian doctrine of equal rights to all and special privileges to none.

W. J. BRYAN. The Tammany exercises consisted of the reading of the Declaration of Independence and speeches by Congressman Burke Cockran of New York, Henry T. Rainey of Illinois, and James M. Brainin of Colorado.

Col. Rainey attributed to President Roosevelt the design of destroying state lines and state rights.

"The policy of the executive," said he, "now seems to be to secure the power of the design of destroying state lines and state rights.

Washington was too big to accept a third term. Jefferson was too big to accept a third term. With the danger of a third term staring us in the face we are beginning to look around for a man who stands upon this Declaration of Independence, and out west we offer you such a man. There is not money enough locked up in all the vaults of the trusts to defeat William J. Bryan next year, should he be the candidate of the liberal party.

"Our platform is simple enough, for it is based upon this declaration and means 'Then shall not steal.' The platform furnishes no protection for a law defying trusts; no bulwark for a robber, tariff. As long as this great party exists in this great country it never can be defeated. Its candidates may, but when the time comes, if it does come, when it becomes a conservative party, then the government that rests upon the consent of the governed will have faded from the earth."

MISS SUTTON WINS AGAIN. London, July 4.—May Sutton of California, in the all-England tennis championship match, today won the title, defeating Miss Wilson by 2-3. Score: 6-4, 6-2. Miss Sutton will play Mrs. Chambers for the title tomorrow.

DISAFFECTION AMONG EAST INDIANS INCREASING. London, July 5.—Despatches from India report that the disaffection among the natives is rapidly increasing. According to a correspondent who has made several tours of Bengal, revolt is being preached in many provinces and the natives are being trained to fight. He declares that the seriousness of the situation is hardly realized by the Europeans in India or at home.

Another correspondent at Simla reports that the discontent is extending into the central provinces.
