CORONER'S VERDICT.

Pearl Bryan Decapitated Before Life Was Extinct.

CRIME COMMITTED IN KENTUCKY

The Prisoners Will Probably Be Removed to That State for Trial.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 12.—The full text of the verdict of the coroner's jury, rendered at 1 p. m. today, is as follows:

We, the jury, find: First—That the female body found at Fort Thomas on the 6th inst. is that of Pearl Bryan, of Greencastle, Ind.

Second—We find that cocaine had been administered to Pearl Bryan, before unknown.

Third—We further find from the evidence, that the decapitation was performed with the knife found in the room with the body and at the point where the body was found.

Fourth—From the evidence presented, we find that Pearl Bryan, Scott Jackson and Alonzo Walling were all together on Friday, January 3, 1896, between the hours of 6 and 7 p. m., on the northeast corner of Goebel Place, between Cincinnati, O., and Fort Thomas, Ky., and left together, arriving at a cab and left together, arrived to go to George to Plum and south on Plum toward Main street.

Fifth—From the evidence presented by the six jurors and the coroner.

The foregoing points made in this verdict are that Pearl Bryan had been in company with cocaine and that she was decapitated where the body was found.

The evidence as to cocaine was by Dr. W. H. Crane, of Cincinnati, who has not yet completed an analysis of the Bryan's stomach contents. He further said he had found a quarter of a grain of cocaine and thought he would get that more, possibly a whole grain. He had also found traces of whisky and mercury, but these were of the remaining fluid.

As to the decapitation at the place where the body was found, the testimony of the first doctors was introduced. Teige and leaves cut from the cane under the morning the body was found showed blood stains on the two axe of knights of Irene two to 12 feet from the decapitated. One witness testified that he found footprints by a woody cane under an apple tree near where the body lay.

Dr. Carstaens, who made the post mortem, gave the opinion before the jury today that decapitation was performed at the place where the body was found, while life was still in the body. It was done with a sharp knife, or one probably with a surgeon's scalpel.

The latter testimony has an important bearing on the jurisdiction of the prisoners. There is little doubt now that in less than twenty-four hours the prisoners will be indicted by the Campbell county grand jury and will probably be removed from this to Kentucky for trial. What effect this will have upon the prisoner's disposition to tell the whole truth about the murder is difficult now to guess.

HIS WRITTEN STATEMENT.

Scott Jackson's written statement has not been given to the public. It necessitates a re-examination by the coroner with the case, beginning with Monday after each of the murder. That day, though, he received a postal card from Will S. Wood, calling his attention to the new in Cincinnati that night. He and Walling went to the two operas, but both missed her. Tuesday morning he received a note from Pearl at exhibition, and he and Walling went to the same matinee. He saw her, but Walling did not. It was arranged that Walling should get a room without being noticed where it was and perhaps the comedians. Walling not having such a room, Miss Bryan went to the theatre for supper and the Jackson home for the night. He does not see Pearl Tuesday, except that he left her to meet Walling at Fifth and Race streets at 10 o'clock. Walling left him to meet her, and Jackson saw him no more until Tuesday afternoon at the college. To the question was the news, Walling answered: "Everything is all right; she is dead."

Jackson was at the college until 4:30 and in his room most of the evening. At 10 Walling came in and got some things from the closet, took the grip and went out. Friday morning Jackson arose and found Walling in bed asleep went to the theatre together. The day Jackson and his friend dined at the Barker's, supper, Walling was out all afternoon, but came in in the evening and played a game of cards. After 2 o'clock Walling took Pearl Bryan's grip on his car and went out and returned. He did not return until after 4 a. m., for at that time, Jackson says, "I awoke and found he was in bed, so I put out the gas and went to sleep."

Sunday morning he found Walling in bed. He then talks at their going to the college on Saturday, and in the afternoon reading of the murders in the papers. When he asked Walling if he knew the case, his face turned pale, but he did not answer. When I asked him what he was going to do Walling simply said: "I have a theory."

Jackson then tells of their return to his room and of their plan to get rid of Pearl's clothes. He admits that he gave a bundle into the car, but never knew what was in the bundle. At the seats in this city are full of mystery. In Scott Bryan's head. Some of these have been explained by his story. Stories of more are expected before the Police adjourn to the Fort Thomas.

The only real progress made yesterday and today in the investigation of the murder is evidence to the murderer. Now there seems more than twenty-four theories. The theory now is it has been considered that cocaine was given the murderers took the girl body and they had left the one on the other side of the river. Every theory advanced is that girl and witnessed her murder. Walling remained. The prisoners are not likely to be remanded to Kentucky in less than ten days or a fortnight. Their extradition will be resisted here in the courts.

LINCOLN DAY.

Celebrations in Honor of "the Martyr President."

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—The tenth annual Lincoln dinner of the Republican club was held at Delmonico's tonight and was one of the most notable events held in honor of the martyr President. Covers for 250 were set in the largest hall, which was handsomely decorated with the national ensign and a large portrait of Abraham Lincoln. The guests were seated at round and oblong tables placed alternately. Elihu Root, president of the club, presided.

Hon. Chauncey M. Depew was the first speaker. In his introductory remarks he said:

"Celebrations of the anniversaries of heroes and statesmen, at battlefields and significant events here, are a form only a historical interest. They lack the freshness and passion of touch and attachment. It has always been the habit of peoples to duly visit heroes. After a few generations they are stripped of every semblance to humanity. We can reach no place, where, after the lapse of a hundred years, we can view George Washington as one of ourselves. He comes to us so perfect, full-rounded and complete that he is one of the few characters which make it impossible for us to love greatness. The same is largely true of all the revolutionary worthies, except that the colonial dames have raised or lowered Benjamin Franklin to the level of our vision and everything that he was as human that his descendant to the fourth generation is unworthy of their membership. Thank heaven we can still count as one of ourselves, with its humor and its sadness, with its greatness and his everyday homeliness, with his wit and logic, with his gentle chivalry that made him equal to the best born knight, and his awkward and ungainly ways that made him one of the plain people, our martyred President, our leader of the people, Abraham Lincoln.

"Today, for the first time since Lincoln's death, the 12th of February is a legal holiday in our state of New York, and it is proper that the people should, without regard to their party affiliations, consecrate it as a becoming manner the birth and the story and the achievements of this savior of the Republic. But it is equally meet and proper for us who are gathered here as Republicans to celebrate also the cause and the achievements and the character of the greatest Republican who ever lived."

Turning to the history of the Republican party, Dr. Depew declared that its teachings and inspirations have come more largely from the statesmanship and utterances of Abraham Lincoln than from any other man.

Senator-elect J. H. Forakar responded to the toast, "The Republican party."

The next speaker was the Rev. Dr. E. G. Hirsch of Chicago. His toast was "The Home of Lincoln."

President Seth Low of Columbia college responded to the toast "The City of New York."

The last speaker was Rev. William E. Park of Gloversville, N. Y., who spoke on "Typical Men."

Letters of regret were read from Robert Todd Lincoln of Chicago, Governor Morton of New York and a number of other men of national prominence.

AT BROOKLYN.

BROOKLYN, Feb. 12.—The first legal holiday commemorating the birth of Abraham Lincoln was celebrated in Brooklyn today by several organizations. Interest centered chiefly in the annual dinner given by the members of the Union League club

AT ST. PAUL.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 12.—The annual Lincoln day banquet was observed by the loyal legion of the Minnesota commandery, which was the first loyal legion commandery to celebrate that day for such observance, at Hotel Ryan tonight. The commander, Col. Henry A. Castle, delivered the introductory address. Rev. Dr. Samuel G. Smith, spoke on "Abraham Lincoln," General John C. Brooke, commanding the department of Dakota, U. S. A., delivered an address on "General Grant," and ex-United States Senator Gilbert A. Pierce read an original poem, "A Soldier's Power."

A committee was appointed to draw up a suitable memorial on the death of General John H. Gibbon, who had expected to be present on this occasion. Several other organizations observed the day which the last legislature made a legal holiday.

AT BOSTON.

BOSTON, Feb. 12.—The notable feature in Boston commemorative of the birthday anniversary of Lincoln, was the banquet held at Young's hotel this evening by the Middlesex club, at which 250 prominent Republicans from all sections of the state gathered. Congressman Walker was the principal speaker, and as he was the commander of the famous Stonewall brigade after the death of Stonewall Jackson, his tribute paid to the martyred President was received with much enthusiasm.

AT INDIANAPOLIS.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 12.—The Indianapolis commandery of the Loyal Legion banqueted tonight at the commercial club and celebrated the eighty-seventh anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln. General Lew Wallace presided and addresses were delivered by the Hon. Will H. Cumback, Wm. P. Fishback, Harry C. Adams and others.

AT PORTLAND.

PORTLAND, Me., Feb. 12.—The Lincoln club's observance of Lincoln's birthday in the city hall tonight, was the largest gathering of representative Republicans assembled here in many years. The speakers were Governor Cleaves, Congressman W. A. Smith, ex-Minister Mayor J. F. Baxter, Senator J. L. Wilson of Washington, Stephen O'Meara of Boston, and Herbert M. Heath of Augusta.

AT BALTIMORE.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 12.—The birthday of Lincoln was celebrated by a banquet at the Rennert under the auspices of the Young Men's Republican club, at which 150 covers were laid.

M'KINLEY AT CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Feb. 12.—When William McKinley arose to speak tonight at the banquet in the auditorium, given by the Marquette club, in commemoration of the birth of Abraham Lincoln, 3,500 men cheered the Ohioan with the vehemence of enthusiastic admiration.

It was the tenth annual banquet given by the club, and it was intended that there should be 1,000 guests. More than that number by 500 came, and an overflow banquet was necessary. The guest of honor was Mr. McKinley. He spoke to the toast "Abraham Lincoln." The occasion was notable as the first public appearance of Ohio's foremost citizen since his return from the governorship to the position of a private citizen. Among those at the speakers' table besides Mr. McKinley were the Republican governor of Wisconsin and two Republican senators from Nebraska and North Carolina. At every reference to the name of McKinley or the word "protection," outbursts of cheering followed.

AT PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 12.—Lincoln's birthday was observed here tonight by two big banquets. Congressman Hatch of Missouri addressed the Union League club. Congressman Barrett of Massachusetts, addressed the young Republicans club.

UTAH SENATORS.

Their Places Assigned on Various Committees.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—On motion of Senator Mitchell of Oregon, the Utah senators were today assigned to committee places as follows:

Senator Brown to the committee on mines and mining, forest reservations and Indian depredations; Senator Cannon to the committees on pensions, manufactures and relations with Canada. To reader these assignments possible, Senator Pettigrew resigned from the committee on mines and mining, Senator Mantle from the committee on foreign reservations, Senator Sewell from Indian depredations, Senator Lodge from pensions, Senator Cameron from manufactures, and Senator Perkins from relations with Canada.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Peffer came forward with a lengthy resolution proposing a Senate investigation of all recent bond issues.

The project for a memorial bridge across the Potomac river connecting Washington with the old Arlington property in Virginia was passed.

The consideration of the urgent deficiency bill was then resumed.

The item of $230,000 for salaries of Judges and officers of the Federal courts in the Indian Territory, brought out a protest from Chandler.

Tillman agreed with Chandler that the system was wrong. A supreme court judge had recently pointed out that court officials were encouraged to get up fictitious prosecutions. There is a class of habitual witnesses in the South. They do nothing but serve writs and summons. A fee, going as long "transporting negroes," and getting white teams of negroes to prosecute fictitious cases. The thing to do was to reform the law.

The deficiency bill was laid aside at 5:10 p.m.

It was called up the bill making Feb. 12th (Lincoln's birthday) a national holiday.

The Senate, at 6:15 p.m., adjourned until tomorrow.

THE HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 12.—The features of the day was the effect of the speech of McCleary (Rep., Minn.), who used to illustrate his remarks the charts previously employed by Towne from his mantelpiece, and by them sought to refute the arguments in favor of free silver made by Towne.

Cannon (Rep., Ill.) presented a Senate joint resolution appropriating $75,000 for the purpose of making a joint survey, together with Great Britain, of the boundary line between Alaska and British territory. The resolution was adopted.

The House then resumed consideration of the bond silver bill.

Dolliver (Rep., Ia.) took the floor in opposition to the free coinage proposition.

McMillin (Dem., Tenn.) followed. He said there was an insufficient currency and that we should not wait for the cooperation of any foreign country before taking steps to improve our financial affairs.

Brosius (Rep., Pa.) opposed free coinage.

Bailey (Dem., Tex.) sought to prove that gold had appreciated within the last twenty years, saying that if this was true the opponents of silver would have nothing to stand on as the basis of their contention was that gold was stable.

At 5:30 p. m. a recess was taken until 8 o'clock this evening, the session to be devoted to debate.

At 9 o'clock, for want of more speakers, the House took a recess until 10:30 tomorrow morning.

The Key to the Situation

—if you suffer from Sick or Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, or any derangement of the stomach, liver and bowels—is Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Mildly and gently, but thoroughly and effectively, they cleanse, regulate and revitalize the entire system. One little "Pellet" for a gentle laxative—three for a cathartic. They're purely vegetable and positively harmless; they're tiny, sugar-coated granules of Dr. Pierce's.

"DR. MILES,

Through His Nervine Is a Benefactor to Thousands."

A WIDELY known Wisconsin publisher, who resides at Green Bay, writes March 8th, 1895, as follows:

"Five years ago I became so nervous that mental work was a burden. I could not sleep at night nor recreate of days. My attention was called to Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and I commenced to use it with the very best effect. Since then I have kept a bottle in my house and use it whenever my nerves become unstrung, with always the same good results. My son also uses it for nervousness, and finds it very beneficial. I can recommend it to many and to every one. All who suffer should try it. It is free from narcotics, perfectly safe, and yet soothes and strengthens. Dr. Miles' Nervine is a benefactor to thousands."
