The peace and quiet of Echo was disturbed a day or two ago by a quarrel between a saloonkeeper and a railroad operator. The former was the aggressor, and during the wordy combat pulled a gun; but the railroad man sought refuge behind the station door and the dispenser of firewater, who was drunk, retired to his place of business. The necessary steps have been taken by the county attorney to punsh the offender. With gun and trap the ranks of the sqirrels are being decimated. The bounty on squirrel tails this year is three cents, until the first of June, af-ter which date the bounty will cease. This generous bounty and the limit as to time insures the slaughter of the Special Correspondence.

Kanosh, Millard Co., April 24.—The good people of Kanosh anticipated a good time yesterday, in the reception to the South American Explorers. But when they arose Monday morning and found seven inches of snow covering everything, and the rain still pouring down, a cold damper was put upon everything, many thinking that the party would not leave Richfield in the storm. But the people were happily disappointed at about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, when the bugic blast of Trooper Tolton sounded on their ears, and Old Glory was seen at the head of Main street, followed by what looked Main street, followed by what looked like a band of Baden Powels Karki county, over the trail, and fell upon us from the Pah Vant range, and captured the town. The company was not as numerous as had been expected. And the reception committee's troubles began, for everybody wanted to feed and entertain somebody, and there were not enough to go around.

The whole company was soon housed and taken in out of the rain, both men and horses, and most of the boys took a nap till evening, and some remained in the arms of Morpheus, dreaming of the girls they left behind them, till after the dance which was given in their bonor. At it are a vote was taken or honor. At 11 p. m. a vote was taken on the proposition, "Shall we go on to Cove Fort or lay over till morning?" "Go" it was, and after saddling up each mounted his steed and at 1 a.m. today the bugic again sounded and the expedition renewed its march.
