

HILL ADDRESSES TAMMANY HALL

Extends Right Hand of Fellowship to All in Organization.

CLEVELAND SENDS REGRETS

Previous Engagements Prevented His Attendance—Party Principles Involved in Pending Canvass.

New York, Oct. 22.—For the first time in ten years, David Bennett Hill, former governor and former senator from the state of New York, spoke tonight in Tammany Hall. The occasion was the ratification of the Democratic state ticket.

Former President Grover Cleveland sent a letter expressing his regret that an earlier engagement prevented his attending the meeting.

Before the meeting there was a parade, reviewed at the Manhattan club by Elfrid S. Coler and other candidates on the Democratic state ticket. Mr. Coler had been given a reception at the club, where he made a speech, after ending with Mr. Hill and other members.

At Tammany Hall Congressman McCallan read ex-President Cleveland's letter, which was received with much enthusiasm. It was as follows: "Westland, Princeton, N. J., Oct. 20, 1902. To Charles F. Murphy, My Dear Sir:—I regret that my engagements will not permit an acceptance of your invitation to attend the Democratic meeting to be held in Tammany Hall on the 28th inst."

"It is most gratifying to learn from the terms of your note that the Democracy of the city of New York appreciate how vital the underlying principle of our party are involved in the pending canvass; and also to know of the determination that they shall not be forgotten in its campaign efforts."

"The great Democratic organization of the city of New York is so important a factor in controlling the result of party endeavor in the broadest fields that no campaign in which it engages can be considered sufficiently local to free it from the influence of the party prospects everywhere and at all times."

"This responsibility has been well met in the present campaign by the selection of trustworthy candidates, by intelligent party work and by sensible efforts to secure harmonious Democratic action."

"I sincerely hope that, as a result, the Democracy of the City of New York will again demonstrate its invincibility at home; that Democratic good government and economical administration will be restored to the people of the state and that Democratic hope and confidence will be revived and stimulated far beyond the limits of city and state."

"Hoping that your meeting will be abundantly successful and most useful in the cause I am, yours very truly, 'GROVER CLEVELAND.'"

Mr. Hill, who reached the hall before the reading of Mr. Cleveland's letter, was received with great applause. "I make no apology for my appearance here tonight," said Mr. Hill, "because none is needed. You will recall what I said at the opening of the Tilden club in this city some months ago when I declared that in this campaign I should know no friends or enemies except the friends and enemies of the Democratic party. Regardless of past differences, which never related to party policy, I extended the right hand of fellowship to every one in this grand old organization supporting Democratic candidates and principles."

Referring to the tariff on coal, Mr. Hill charged Senator Platt with dodging the vote in Congress on the question of imposing a tariff on coal. President Roosevelt, he said, had declined to express an opinion as to whether the tariff should be removed. "The people," said Mr. Hill, "are waiting for his act. The selection of arbitrators to adjust a labor strike is a mere temporary relief, but the question whether there shall be hereafter a tariff tax on anthracite coal is a permanent and lasting question."

Mr. Hill spoke at length upon trusts and revision of the tariff.

After Mr. Coler and his associates on the ticket had reviewed the parade from the balcony of the Manhattan club a banquet was served at which Justice Trux presided and during which the following letter from ex-President Cleveland was read:

"Charles H. Trux, President Manhattan Club:—My Dear Sir:—It was very possible for me to attend tomorrow evening the reception to be given by the Manhattan club to the Democratic candidates for state offices in the canvass now pending."

"Though no longer a citizen of New York, I cannot lose my interest in her political welfare nor forget the honors which her Democracy conferred upon me. It is gratifying to know that the Manhattan club, as of old, is ready to give its encouragement and aid to those who stand in the present campaign as representatives of a unit-

WILL INTEREST EVERYBODY.

Or At Least Everyone Who Suffers From Catarrh.

Catarrh in its various forms is a national disease, and the fact that nearly everybody suffers from it more or less leads many to neglect its proper treatment.

Nasal catarrh is a common cause of headaches, destroys sense of smell and if neglected reaches the throat, causing impairment and sometimes loss of voice. Bronchial catarrh leads easily to consumption. Catarrh of stomach and liver are very serious and obstinate troubles, while it is now generally admitted that catarrh is the most common of all causes of deafness.

All of the more serious forms of catarrh begin with nasal catarrh, the local symptoms being a profuse discharge, stinging of nostrils, irritation and frequent clearing of the throat, sneezing, coughing and gagging.

The old style of treatment with douches, inhalations, sprays, etc., simply give temporary relief and everyone who has used any of them knows how useless they are and their inconvenience is such that very few have the time or patience to continue their use.

A radical cure of catarrh can only be obtained from a treatment which removes the catarrhal taint from the blood. In addition to this, it is essential that catarrh is a constitutional or blood disease, and local applications can have no effect except to temporarily relieve local symptoms.

It is symptoms of which have been remarkably successful in curing catarrh is a pleasant tasting tablet which is taken internally and acts upon the blood and mucous membranes.

At symptoms of catarrh, the remedies like Red Gum, Blood Root and similar cleansing specifics which eliminate the catarrhal poison from the system.

The new style of treatment, the taste is being pleasant to the taste, in addition to its use, but a douche is not at all necessary. A few dissolved in the mouth daily will be sufficient. Dr. Almsie says: "The regular daily use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets taken internally will cure the whole catarrhal trouble without resorting to the inconvenience of a douche or an inhaler."

"These seem to give a healthy tone to the whole mucous membrane and it is really remarkable how soon they will clear the head and throat of the unnatural and poisonous catarrhal secretion."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is undoubtedly the safest, most palatable and certainly the most efficient and convenient remedy for any form of catarrh.

ed party and leaders in the Democratic protection of the people's interests.

"Hoping that the result will demonstrate that the political sentiment of the people of the state of New York is still with the safe and conservative Democracy and is prepared to support its candidates in any very truly, 'GROVER CLEVELAND.'"

Plus Fund Award Stands.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Some of the parties interested in the Plus fund action are not satisfied with the amount of the award in their favor, and have appealed to the state department to endeavor to induce The Hague tribunal to reopen the case and amend the decision so as to make the judgment payable in gold. The original finding was in favor of the claimants for a lump sum of $120,000, and the annual payment of $10,000, "payable in Mexican currency."

This currency, just now, is quoted at about 40 cents on the dollar as compared to American gold, so that to change the judgment as requested would involve an enormous increase in the total.

In bringing into the treaty by which the arbitration was arranged, Secy. Hay has found that it was expressly stipulated that the tribunal should fix not only the amount, but the kind of currency in which the award should be paid, and he has consequently informed the claimants that he cannot grant their request.

Mob Beats Three Italians.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 22.—Three Italians who have been working at the Dodge washery of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western company during the strike, were set upon by a mob as they were returning from work this evening and given a bad beating. Two of them were rescued by the city police and taken to the Lackawanna hospital.

The third, Thomas Brown, got away from the crowd before the police arrived and ran to Bellevue. Four men set upon him again and, after beating him into insensibility, threw him over a fence into the yard of a dwelling where he was found, in a pool of blood, tonight. His injuries, while serious, will not prove fatal. No arrests have been made.

NEW YORK POLITICS BITTER.

Senator Hill Endorses Charges Against Gov. Odell.

New York, Oct. 22.—The state political campaign assumed a bitter aspect today through the endorsement given by ex-Senator Hill to allegations published in a newspaper that Gov. Odell was interested in business concerns that were profiting by state contracts. The allegations were repeated tonight by Senator Hill in his speech at the Tammany hall ratification meeting. Mr. Hill said:

"It now appears that the raid upon the charitable institutions of the state made last winter by the Odell administration was not only political but mensonary in its character. Its real purpose was not merely to secure complete control of the official positions to be had in the various charitable institutions, but to control the purchase of supplies therefrom."

Gov. Odell, speaking tonight at Syracuse, devoted much time to a denial and refutation of the charges. He said that when he was elected governor he severed relations with concerns that might be even remotely benefited by the state contracts, and that he had conscientiously refrained from saying or doing anything that might be construed as tending to help his former business associates. The governor also reviewed and denounced the political career of Mr. Hill and concluded with a bitter personal attack upon the ex-senator, to whom he alluded as a "man who never knew the love of a woman, who has never heard the prattle of children in his home and who would suffice his friends to his ambitions."

A Jap Kills Three Japs.

Sacramento, Cal., Oct. 22.—Y. Hidaka, a Japanese, said to have come from Seattle, entered a Japanese boarding house this afternoon and shot three of his nationality—Mr. and Mrs. T. Yoshimoto and M. Takutomi—killing all three. He then made his escape in the dense brush north of the city and has not been captured.

The accounts of the murder are very meager as there were no eye-witnesses to the shooting, although nearly 100 persons saw the murderer when he made his escape. The other Japanese claim that Hidaka became infatuated with Mrs. Yoshimoto and followed her and her husband here from Seattle, where he had been working. He was determined to murder both of them. When he met them in the boarding house, the couple happened to be in company with Takutomi, a friend of his. The three Japs were under the influence of two revolvers, Hidaka killed all three.

ALICE ROOSEVELT ENGAGED.

She Will Marry John Greenway, of Hot Springs, Ark.

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 22.—Information reached Little Rock today from reliable sources at Washington that the engagement of Miss Alice Roosevelt, daughter of President Roosevelt, to Mr. John Greenway of Hot Springs, Ark., will be announced in a few days.

Mr. Greenway is about 30 years of age and is the son of Dr. Greenway, a leading physician of Hot Springs. He is a lieutenant in the Rough Riders regiment during the Spanish-American war and has visited Washington several times during the past year. He comes from an old southern family and is a young man of high character. He left Hot Springs several days ago for Washington.

STOCK RAISERS MUST GO.

Will Not be Allowed to Occupy Public Lands Unlawfully.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Col. John S. Mendenhall, special agent of the interior department, called upon the president today and laid before him the result of his investigation of the illegal occupation of public lands in Colorado and other western states by stock raisers. Col. Mendenhall told the president that millions of acres of public land that ought rightfully to be open to the homestead settlers were occupied by stock raisers. After concluding the investigation it is making the interior department will oust such stock raisers as are not occupying the public lands lawfully.

Miners Refuse to Sign Contract.

Shenandoah, Pa., Oct. 22.—The men who reported for work at the Mill Creek coal company's Vulcan colliery this afternoon were told that they would have to report at the company's store and sign a contract before being reinstated. Many refused to sign and returned home.

Supt. Jones was called up on the telephone at his home in Hazleton tonight by an Associated Press correspondent and asked the nature of the contract which the men are required to sign. He replied:

"After looking into the matter I signed an agreement to the effect that they will not interfere in any way with non-union men nor with the men now at work."

A number of men declared tonight that they will not sign a contract of any kind.

Train Goes Through a Trestle.

Calio, Ill., Oct. 22.—A Big Four passenger train, made up of a baggage car and two passenger coaches, plunged through a burned trestle between Tunnel hill and Parker last night. The engine and baggage car landed 15 feet below in a ravine, while the coaches left the track, slid down an embankment and turned over. The 40 passengers escaped with only slight injuries.

The engine and baggage car jumped to the ground without hurt. The following were slightly hurt: A. J. Venovine, messenger; W. M. Harris, mail agent; Conductor Andrew A. Morgan, mail agent; T. J. Rushing and Fritz Haggy of Calio, traveling men.

Gen. Lee to Succeed Gen. Bell.

Manila, Oct. 22.—Gen. J. Franklin Bell will be relieved of the frontier in Batang province, Luzon, Dec. 1. He will be succeeded by Gen. Jesse M. Lee.

Gen. Bell purposes returning home via Europe and will stop at Carlsbad, Austria, for a brief treatment, as his health is not good.

Officers in Philippines Careless.

Manila, Oct. 22.—Gen. Davis has issued a general order drawing attention to the carelessness of officers and men of the army in the matters of dress and discipline and characterizing the neglect in these respects as extraordinary. The order also refers specifically to the carelessness in making reports and drawing up other records and directing commanding officers to insist upon reform of all existing shortcomings.

MOTORMAN HELD RESPONSIBLE

For Death of President's Body Guard, William Craig.

Boston, Oct. 22.—In a report upon the accident which killed President Roosevelt's body guard, William Craig, and the injury of President Roosevelt and Secy. Cortelyou, at Pittsfield last month, made public today, the board of railway commissioners find that the responsibility of the accident rests with the motorman of the electric car which ran into the president's carriage. Euclid Martin was the motorman. His name is not mentioned in the report.

The commissioners find that the car was going at reckless speed and held that the management of the street railway was at fault in not establishing rules to regulate the speed of cars at a dangerous point like that at which the accident happened. The commissioners say that the grade crossing where the collision occurred is one of the worst of its kind, and that the imprudence of the attempt to pass the carriages with the car was apparent.

The report says: "The motorman had good reason to believe that the effort which he was plainly making to reach the Country club before the car was at fault in not stopping for passengers, including a prominent director of the company."

ROTARY MOVEMENT OF EARTH

Popular Demonstration of It in the Paris Pantheon.

Paris, Oct. 22.—An interesting ceremony has just been carried out at the Pantheon, namely, the renewal of the popular demonstration of the rotary movement of the earth originally made by the astronomer Foucault in 1851 and interrupted by the coup d'etat of Dec. 2, 1851, when the Pantheon was restored as a place for public worship. The pan-

DAY OF PASSION IN POLITICS PAST

Day When Prejudice Controls Elections Gone Forever.

SAYS SENATOR BEVERIDGE.

Hanna Gets a Housing Reception—Devotes Afternoon to State Affairs And Tom Johnson.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 22.—The first and only rally that the Republicans will have in this county was addressed tonight by Senators Foraker, Beveridge and Hanna, in Music Hall, which was crowded. Senator Beveridge was greeted with cheers and spoke as follows:

"A campaign of abandoned issues," was the way Senator Beveridge described the present political contest. "In four months," he said, "the issue of race has been raised by the opposition and deserted as soon as attacked. They were deserted because they were untenable—because every issue was not an issue in fact, but a fictitious pretense based on passion, prejudice and the unsubstantial foundations upon which the demagogue always builds."

"The day of passion in politics is past. The day when prejudice controls elections is gone forever. It was a sharp fight and an earnest one against money, but a drive against money, the storm of fear against imperialism, dissolved almost before it formed; and just so today the crusade of the opposition against organized industry has melted almost before it began."

"The opposition's battle cry, 'Destroy trusts,' has died almost without an echo. It died because honest men and thinking men saw that the destruction of industrial civilization with reason and the facts the instant it appeared."

"Why is it that appeals to passion are daily becoming more powerless at the ballot box? It is simply because of American intelligence; it is because the facts on any question get to the voters more quickly. Imperfect communication among the people has been the demagogue's opportunity. But today the facts on any question proposed at sunrise are laid before the whole people before nightfall."

"American twentieth century political campaigns ought not to be longer than 15 days, for the facts get to the people with incredible speed, and the people without an issue, because every proposition they advanced is false in fact and wrong in reason."

Senator Beveridge then proceeded to discuss along well known lines the issues which "the enemy have deserted," and which he characterized as "superstitions of history."

Senator Hanna received a rousing ovation as he prepared. He devoted his address mostly to state affairs and especially to his neighbor, Tom Johnson. He referred to the speeches of Beveridge and Foraker about the Democratic party not having a leader or an issue, but he said they had heavy liabilities and a receiver in Ohio—Tom Johnson.

Hanna was both sarcastic and witty in his reference to Johnson. He said Johnson's plank on equal taxation meant for the other fellow to pay the tax and he home-rule plank meant that he was to be king.

He said the only issue of the Democrats in Ohio this year was Tom Johnson, with all his sophistries, and the issue of the Republicans was the record of 45 years and the support of President Roosevelt in carrying out the principles and policies of McKinley. He denounced Johnson as the most unprincipled demagogue and hypocrite in the United States.

Senator Hanna then discussed national issues at some length, and in referring to the success of President Roosevelt and President Mitchell in closing the strike, advocated a partnership in the future between capital and labor, and the establishment of equal rights and fair treatment. He said the conditions now were in favor of organized labor being fully recognized by capital, and he wanted organized labor also to recognize capital.

He referred to the different elements in organized labor and hoped that capital in the future would go more than half way. This he considered the greatest development of the twentieth century. He insisted that the reconciliation should be developed into a full partnership and treated as such by both employers and employees, so that the greatest development of the twentieth century would be the reconciliation of the two.

Senator Hanna closed by saying that prosperity is the normal condition of the country.

dulum, composed of piano wire about 10 feet long, was attached to the summit of the dome of the Pantheon and from it was suspended a ball weighing 50 pounds and having a steel stylus fixed beneath it, while underneath the floor was erected a round table having marked on it the divisions of the compass. A little heap of sand was run around the table. Camille Flammarion, the astronomer, of the Pantheon, delivered a speech in the presence of a large assembly, which included numerous scientists and artists, with a paper, burned a silk cord attaching the pendulum to the side of the table and the pendulum swung across the table, cutting a trench through the sand, each swing widening the trench slightly until the table appeared to be revolving.

Gendarmes Fire at Rioters.

Madrid, Oct. 22.—During an anti-tax riot at Val De Corro in the province of Orense, the gendarmes were compelled to fire upon the rioters. One peasant was killed and two gendarmes were wounded before order was restored.

Congress of Americanists.

New York, Oct. 22.—At the International Congress of Americanists today the much-discussed question of the signing man was exhibited by Dr. George A. Dorsey of Field Columbian museum, who said that he had visited the cave where the skull was found and who pronounced it a typical Indian skull.

The paper of Prof. S. W. Williston of Chicago university, one of the exploiters of the "Lansing man," was read, and he said that the skull was discovered in March of this year by two sons of Martin Concanan, a farmer near Lansing, Kas., while digging out a cave. He had decided that the place was a new one, and he was in favor of a deposit of river deposit, and could express no opinion as to its age, except to say that it dated back to glacial ages.

W. H. Holmes of the United States museum said that as the skull was manifestly that of an Indian, and as they could not be sure of the period of which it came, he was in favor of attaching too much importance to it.

Activity of Soufriere.

Kingstown, St. Vincent, B. W. I., Oct. 22.—The Soufriere volcano has been active since Oct. 15, keeping the people in the Windward district in a state of continuous unrest. Evidence gathered in the district proves that the eastern crater was chiefly operative during the last eruption. The devastated lands now include all the plantations on the northeastern coast down to the Grand Sable estate, on which the re-establishment of cultivation will be hopeless for years; even should La Soufriere soon become quiescent. A deputation of distressed inhabitants has waited upon the administration of the island for the purpose of informing the government of the condition of the district in consequence of the last eruption of the volcano. They appealed for food and shelter especially for their terrified wives and children and begged to be removed from the northern quarter of the island to form a new settlement in another locality where they could safely and conveniently start life afresh. The administrator expressed his hearty sympathy for the sufferers and promised to communicate the facts to his chief together with certain suggestions. He said he hoped the government would soon be able to do something to relieve the victims of the volcanic disturbances.
