LOCAL NEWS.
TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.
 Having resigned the position of President of the Deseret Hospital Association, I hereby request that all business letters pertaining to said Hospital be addressed to the Secretary, Mrs. E. B. Wells, until further notice.
 E. R. SNOW SMITH.
 Salt Lake City, April 7th, 1884.
Immigrants.—We learn by telegram to President Taylor, from Agent James H. Hart, at New York, that the first company of Church emigration from Europe, left Liverpool yesterday per S. S. Nevada, numbering 319 souls.
"Uncle Tom's Cabin."—Smith's original, mammoth, double "Uncle Tom's Cabin" Company, of Boston, appear at the Opera House to-night. The novelty drum corps, with blood hounds and donkeys, paraded the streets to-day. They announce a big thing. See what their advertisement says.
Home Music.—We had the pleasure of listening to-day to a new piece of music composed by Professor Joseph J. Daynes and played by him on the piano, at Daynes and Coalter's music store. It is entitled, "O. C. M. I. March," and is written in simple style for beginners, and adapted either to the piano or organ. Mr. Daynes has recently composed a new anthem, to words written by Elder John Nicholson, which will no doubt be rendered in public before many days.
Business Changes.—Since the publication in this paper of an item in reference to the prospective purchase of the Washick Woolen Mills, by Messrs. John C. Cutler and James Dunn, we learn that other arrangements have intervened, and the property will remain in the hands of its present owners. Mr. Dunn will resign as superintendent of the Provo Woolen Mills, and his place will probably be filled by Mr. Reed Snoot. Mr. Dunn will enter the wool and blue business on his own account, at Provo. Z. C. M. I., as has been stated, will take the sole agency for the Provo Factory. Mr. Cutler will continue the commission store, which he has conducted so ably in this city for a number of years.
"Baron Rudolph."—The engagement of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Knight at the Opera House, closed last evening with the presentation of the piece above named for the first time in this city. The play gave every satisfaction, and the opportunities afforded the two stars were such as to win them fresh laurels in the esteem of the public. Mr. Knight is an accomplished artist, and his impersonation of the poverty-stricken tramp was a creation of his own. Mrs. Knight was the "Widow Dashwood" to perfection, and her singing in the last act was charming. The other parts were well supported, and the principals were well supported. There is some talk of the Knights returning here the latter part of May. They will be welcome.
Missionary's Letter.—Elder New S. Whitney writes from Chautauque County, Alaska, March 29th, as follows:
 I have been laboring as a traveling Elder in this and adjacent counties, in company with Elder R. M. Stevens, since last September. I left my home in Parowan, from County, Utah, on the 31st of last August, and arrived here about the 10th of September. We have been quite successful in getting houses built, and in making converts. We are now opening up a new field in Tallopa County, where we have found a number of friends, and a good many are investigating. There are several that take quite an interest in the Deseret News, when we have a chance to dispose of it. I think there are some who intend subscribing for it. I believe considerable good could be done by the Elders if they would distribute their papers among the people after they have read them, thus giving the people a chance to become more acquainted with our religious as well as our temporal affairs.
Funeral Services.—The obsequies of Miss Etta Felt, solemnized at the family residence, Seventeenth Ward, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, were attended by a large and sympathetic congregation. The deceased had a wide circle of friends and associates, and many of them came to pay their last respects to her they had known and loved in life. The services were conducted by Bishop John Tingey. The choir sang, "Mourning the dead," and prayer was offered by the Bishop. The hymn, "Sister thou wast mild and lowly," was then rendered.
 The discourse was delivered by Apostle Erastus Snow, and treated with consolation and instruction. At the request of the family Patriarch Lorenzo D. Young and Bishop O. Z. Whitney, who were present, in turn briefly addressed the assembly, and after the singing of "Nearer my God to Thee" the meeting was dismissed by benediction from Father Young. The remains were followed to the Cemetery by a long concourse of carriages, filled with relatives and sympathizing friends.

DANIEL MATHESON.

SYNOPSIS OF THE LIFE OF THE DECEASED.
 He was born in the Parish of Crichton, Sutherlandshire, Scotland, about the year 1800. He was son of Alexander Matheson and Catherine Ross McCann. He was married to Catherine Treasurer Nov. 29, 1827. In his youthful days he studied for the ministry of the Presbyterian Church, spending several sessions in the College of St. Andrews, Scotland, and was enabled to read the Scriptures in the original Greek and was also a fair Latin and French scholar. He was not satisfied with man-made systems of religion, and when he heard the sound of the Everlasting Gospel he was ready to receive it. He was baptized by Elder Hugh Findlay in Dundee, Scotland, Sept. 9, 1848, was ordained a Minister Nov. 12, same year, and obtained an Elder Jan. 7, 1849. He was sent on a short mission to the Highlands of Scotland, among his relatives, but they rejected his testimony. He removed to South-shields, England, in 1852, and was called to Utah with his wife, two youngest sons, and daughter. Leaving Liverpool April 21, they arrived in Salt Lake City Sept. 24, 1852, and he received his washings and anointings a few days afterwards and was ordained a High Priest.
 He removed to Parowan July, 1853, and helped to settle Pangnitch in 1853-54. He acted as counselor to Bishop Nielsen and removed back to Parowan, at the Pangnitch Exodus, on account of Indian difficulties, and lived there till his death. He was the oldest man that labored in the building of the St. George Temple, which labor he took great delight in. Father Matheson was the instrument in the hands of God of bringing many souls to Christ, and many of the Saints in Utah will testify to his sterling integrity, his honesty, and his whole-souled devotedness to the Latter-day work, to which he bore a faithful testimony to the end. He was confined to bed six weeks, and said he was waiting the Lord's time, and would like to go as a child going to sleep. He died at 10 o'clock, p.m. March 22nd, 1884. He leaves behind, his wife, after having lived with her for over sixty years. He left four or five sons, one daughter and numerous grand-children and great-grand-children. The funeral services were held in the meeting house on Monday, the 24th, at noon. Comforting remarks were made by Elder David Matheson, Patriarch Henry Lund, Apostle George Teasdale and Bishop Dalley. Brother Matheson and his "sweet singers of Israel" also rendered ed and consoling music, all of which lessened the sting of death. Twenty-six vehicles followed the remains to their last resting place.

BRITANNIA STANDS UNRAILED.
 Those troubled with "rheumatism, who have tried other remedies and still are unrelieved, will certainly obtain relief within three days" and generally within six hours by taking Britannia. This great remedy was discovered by an eminent English physician of great experience, and who never lost a patient to whom this medicine was administered. Britannia is not a lotion; it is an external application of permanent cure. Rheumatism, which is a disease of the blood, is prepared with the greatest skill and a teaspoon full being taken in a wineglass of cold water immediately relieves the blood, where it corrects the pain-causing element, removes it immediately by purifying the life-giving fluid, and gradually builds up the entire system. Persons who have used this valuable Preparation will testify that nothing ever helped them as Britannia has done. Many references in Salt Lake City and elsewhere can be given.

BRITANNIA STANDS UNRAILED.
 Those troubled with "rheumatism, who have tried other remedies and still are unrelieved, will certainly obtain relief within three days" and generally within six hours by taking Britannia. This great remedy was discovered by an eminent English physician of great experience, and who never lost a patient to whom this medicine was administered. Britannia is not a lotion; it is an external application of permanent cure. Rheumatism, which is a disease of the blood, is prepared with the greatest skill and a teaspoon full being taken in a wineglass of cold water immediately relieves the blood, where it corrects the pain-causing element, removes it immediately by purifying the life-giving fluid, and gradually builds up the entire system. Persons who have used this valuable Preparation will testify that nothing ever helped them as Britannia has done. Many references in Salt Lake City and elsewhere can be given.
