Meeting of Legislature. NASHVILLE, 4.—The legislature of Tennessee met at noon to-day. Lewis Bond was elected speaker of the house. The senate, failing to elect a president on the 10th ballot, adjourned till to-morrow. For this reason the two houses cannot meet in joint convention to elect a U. S. Senator before Tuesday, the 19th

Tilton-Beecher Case. New York, 4.—Before Judge McCue, to-day, after the case which preceded the Tilton-Beecher which preceded the Tilton-Beecher case was given to the jury, Shearman, of Beecher's counsel, stated to the court that they had walted an hour for the plaintiff's counsel, and they were not yet there. Mr. Pearsall, law partner of ex-Judge Morris, stated to the court that he had been requested by Judge Morris to state that the plaintiff was ready to proceed with the trial at the time agreed upon, viz., to-merrow at 11 ceed with the trial at the time agreed upon, viz., to-merrow at 11 o'clock. Shearman explained that they had agreed to such a postponement, and the Judge then announced that the case would stand over. There was quite a legal skirmish, the defence working to have the trial declared "on" by Judge McCne, so that he should try it. In this they succeeded, but according to McCue's own statement, he has power to send it before another judge, and it is believed that he will relegate it to Chief Justice Nelson to-morrow. The defense will, however, then present affidavits alleging reasons why the case should be tried before McCue, but unless they are very strong the case will go before Judge Nelson.

Investigation Continued. Vickshurg, 4.—The congressional committee continued the investigation to-day. Dr. J. M. Hunt, who went out to meet the negroes, reported to be coming in on Grove Street, on the morning of Dec. 10, related the circumstances of his interview with Owens, leader of the negroes, his bringing him in to see Crosby, and the latter's ordering him to go back and tell the ing him to go back and tell the negroes to go home. The Doctor said that Owens told him that he was acting under Crosby's orders, and that he had them in writing. When Owens returned to the men, after the interview with Crosby, he told Dr. Hunt to get the cavalry away from the rear of his force and he would order them home. Witness did so and the negroes marched off. Some excited whites followed, but Col. Miller called them back. The only other witness whose testimony was of any particular interest, was Owens, any particular interest, was Owens, the negro who commanded the Grove street force. His testimony was to the effect that he was coming to Vicksburg with his men, about 120 in all, some armed with shot guns, some with muskets, some with pistols, by order of Cresby. He didn't know what he wanted, but he supposed that it was to help him about getting his office. Owens told substantially the same story as Dr. Hunt about his coming to town to see Cresby, and his subsequent ordering of his men home, but testified that after they started they were fired at and that some of them returned the fire. He testified that Crosby sent written and printed or returned the fire. He testified that Crosby sent written and printed orders to the country, and witness heard them read, telling all the negroes to come into the town armed, on Monday. He didn't think Miller's men meant to kill his men when they fired at them, but only to frighten them. He believed that Governor Ames was responsible for the trouble, he believed that he advised Crosby to take the course he did.

Towds numbering upwards of one hundred thousand witnessed the procession and burial. The affair is regarded as a formidable radical demonstration.
