

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES

H. E. Phillips has and Does Sell
A better class of goods, to patrons of limited means, than any other house in the city. He believes in giving the hard working person the benefit of his money in every sense of the word.

He has a splendid assortment of ladies' dresses, and children's real beaver coats, which he will sell from $8 to $15 each, and warrant every one. It is certainly a good opportunity to get a good article for a small price. These are facts known by one who well understands business and the quality of goods.

If the writer of the above special notice will call around I will make him a present of a lady's nice, beaver coat. H. E. PHILLIPS

To the Public
We will continue to sell our goods at the low closing out prices until the 24th inst., when we will cease selling at retail, and prepare the balance on hand for the final closing out Auction Trade sale, December 28, and 30. The stock will be put up in job lots and sold without limit or reserve.

Cough No More.
At last there has been an article found which is certain safe and sure to do its work, and is within the reach of all as regards price, etc., easily obtained as every surprising druggist in New York, Brooklyn, Jersey City, Hoboken, Newark, and, in fact, all through the country, keep it constantly on hand. Dr. Hale, a celebrated physician of Europe, used it a great many years in his private practice, to the entire satisfaction of himself and patients. C. N. Crittenton, druggist, Fancy Goods, of No. 7 sixth Avenue, New York, believes in this market required just such an article, has purchased the same at a great outlay, and the public can rest assured that it will be prepared according to the Original Receipt. Ask for Hale's Cough Cure. Each bottle 50 cents and $1. Great saving to get large size. Sold by all druggists.

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute.

To Neglect Your Teeth
Is to slight one of the best gifts of Nature, and to punish yourself. Turn over a new leaf in this respect, and give them a vigorous scrubbing every day with SOZO-DONT, which will cure their defects and render them beautifully white.

It is astonishing with what rapidity ulcers and sores and eruptive diseases are cured by Henry's Carbolic Salve, an external antiseptic, which is prepared by physicians, and is the only preparation containing every germicidal element. It is undoubtedly the finest antiseptic and purifier extant. It acts like a charm on purulent eruptions, and has also been successfully used for rheumatism and sore throat. All druggists sell it.

Candies at Wholesale, in the greatest variety, at Deseret Bakery.
R. GARDNER.

The security of Diamonds, Gold and Silver, and the difficulties met with in securing them, is a sure indication of their value.

Thus it is with a valuable medicine: Dr. Aug. Kaler's Celebrated German Pulmonic Elixir, through the jealousy of rivals, has met with the most bitter opposition, and apparently almost insurmountable obstacles have been thrown in its way; but its opponents might as well try to change the course of the sun, sweep back the ocean with a broom or put out a prairie fire with a leaf.

For the cure of Throat and Lung diseases, such as Coughs, Colds, Consumption and Bronchitis, and all affections of the throat and lungs, it is unequalled. Its cure is truly magical. Ask your Druggist for it. The genuine bottle has the signature of Dr. Aug. Kaler, and has his name blown on every 75 cent bottle. Trial bottle, 25 cents.

For sale, wholesale and retail, by the Z. C. M. I. Drug Department and Moore Allen & Co., Salt Lake City. d229 w29

Don't Give Up.
What if you have tried different "put up" medicines in vain. Have you not been equally disappointed in some physicians? Do not consider your case incurable until you have made a thorough trial of Dr. Pierce's Family Medicine. They are chemically pure, of uniform strength, and have come into general use by reason of superior merit. In cases of general and nervous debility, consumption, bronchitis, dyspepsia, "liver complaint," nervous bunches, ulcers and eruptions, the Golden Medical Discovery is a speedy and positive cure; while thousands of women, who had for years been bed-ridden, have, by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, been restored to perfect health. The introduction of these two remedies has revolutionized the treatment of chronic diseases. Patients are no longer depleted and salivated, as the tonic and alternative properties of the Discovery long since demonstrated a better way. Ladies need no longer submit to the use of the caustic and knife, as the Favorite Prescription is guaranteed to cure the disease and weakness peculiar to women. Mrs. Samuel M. Kemper, of Galandet, Ind., writes: "Your Favorite Prescription and Pleasant Purgative Pills have saved my life." d1

Thermometer.—To-day, 1 o'clock P. M., the thermometer noted 31 degrees F. in the shade. Clear.

Bishop's Meeting.—The regular semi-monthly Bishop's meeting convenes at half-past six, this evening, in the Council House.

Arrived.—Hon. George Q. Cannon and Bishop John Sharp, accompanied by Mr. Joseph Sharp and Mr. Wm. Jennings, Jr., arrived home Tuesday evening, as expected.

Benefit Party.—Remember the benefit society tendered to Elder Hugh Watson, in the Sixth Ward Assembly Rooms, to-morrow night. Give the young missionary something to remember for years to come.

Painful Accident.—Tuesday morning, Mr. Neph M. Shook, son of Bishop E. F. Shook, was returning from Coalville with a load of coal, and when descending the Summit in Parley's Car, while trying to mount his load, the horses started, and his foot slipping, he was thrown under the forward wheel, which passed over his breast. He was brought to the city by a passing team, and having received good care, is able to be around.

Holiday Entertainment.—On New Year's eve, a grand holiday entertainment will be given in the Eleventh Ward Assembly Rooms, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. Association. The object is to raise funds for the emigration of a poor family from Europe. The first part of the programme will consist of Hannah More's historical drama, "David and Goliath," and the second part of an olio of songs, duets, quartettes and choruses, comic and sentimental. Professor J. J. Daynes is the accompanist, and Mr. H. A. Tackett, musical conductor.

Give them a bumper.
"Hobbies."—An immense audience witnessed the second appearance of the Frolicque last night, in their laughable burlesque of "Hobbies." For a holiday entertainment nothing could have been produced that would have pleased the public better. Every performer is first-class in his peculiar line, from the eccentric Goodwin down, and the best compliment for the burlesque is to say that it is in every particular, what it has been represented to be. Those wishing to know what it is like, must go and see it, for it is impossible to describe and do it justice. The applause, so frequently and enthusiastically bestowed, showed well how those present last night enjoyed the merry treat. To-night "Hobbies" will be repeated, and no doubt will draw another good house, for there are many who were unable to secure seats last evening, and others present, who will enjoy a repetition of the fun. To-morrow evening, "The Ramblers," a ting-comedy, will be placed upon the boards, instead of "Crusoe," as previously advertised. Tickets should be secured at once. There is no extra charge for reserved seats, but those wishing to secure them, must do so early in the day, as later, it will be impossible to obtain them.

The Townsend House Case.—At the hearing in chambers, on Tuesday, it was claimed by the defense that Mrs. Townsend had sworn to two different statements, claiming in her affidavit to be the wife of James Townsend, and ten days afterwards claiming that she was not his wife.

Mrs. Townsend's counsel, wishing to establish her claim to a portion of the Townsend House property, claimed that she was not a legal wife of James Townsend, but was his partner in the hotel business, and that he had no right to dispose of all the property without her consent.

Mr. Bellver Roberts was examined as a witness.

On the 1st of March last possession of the Townsend House property under a lease made by C. C. Cunningham, the former lessee. Mr. Townsend asserting to it. Under the 12th of April, had absolute control of the premises, and turned it over to Mr. Jennings. At this time Mrs. Townsend was an occupant of the premises, had her meals furnished her in the room. She had been intimate with the Townsends from five to eight years, always regarded them as man and wife, did not remember any other woman in the Townsend House, as Townsend's wife but Elizabeth M. Townsend.

Mr. A. D. Shakespeare testified: He was manager of the hotel, under Mr. Roberts, who employed him, and continued in that office, after the transfer of the property to Messrs. Hooper and Jennings, up to the time the hotel closed. Mrs. Townsend lived there during the summer, and generally took her meals, furnished by the proprietor, in her room. In September, changes were made in her room, No. 53, and a stove, the property of Messrs. Hooper and Jennings, put in there, at the instance of Mr. Hooper. Did not know of anyone occupying the room with her, but had frequently seen James Townsend and his wife coming and going in the morning. Mrs. Townsend and friends had open access to and from her room. When the hotel closed, received orders not to let anybody in to get to Mrs. Townsend's room.

Henry Ernest had been porter at the Townsend House for years, and Elizabeth Townsend was known as husband and wife, and occupied the same sleeping apartment, with but one bed in the room. She was considered his wife. In September, she was known as landlady, but (Ernest) did not know what interest she had in the property. Mrs. Townsend was in the room, and has been in the habit of going to her room at pleasure, with her friends.

W. L. Pickard had been intimately acquainted with Mrs. Townsend. She came to the house of witness last spring, when the Townsend House was leased to Mr. Cunningham, not considering it her home any longer. Stayed three or four days, and returned to the hotel. When witness first became acquainted with James Townsend, he was living at the Salt Lake House, with his first wife and Mrs. Elizabeth Townsend, known as the second wife.

R. Keys knew James and Elizabeth Townsend at the Salt Lake House, and the Townsend House. They lived as man and wife.

Ell B. Kelsey stated that last September, Mrs. Townsend told him her story had been taken out of her room, in the summer, and that she had since applied for but could not get it. Witness told Captain Hooper, who said: "It was not aware of that, she shall have it." Mrs. Townsend said she afterward received a stove and some coal.

Wm. Jennings was sworn: He remembered the time Mr. Cunningham conveyed the Townsend house. About last February received a note from Mrs. Townsend, at Mrs. Pickard's and went to see her. She said she had left the Townsend House, and that "Uncle Jimmy," as she called him, had kicked her out and she had no home, and asked advice. She said Mr. Townsend had sold the furniture. Witness asked how he could do that, as he had other creditors. She said she had been turned out of the hotel in consequence of the sale to Cunningham. She expressed surprise at witness having heard she had negotiated the sale with Cunningham, and he photographed for Mr. Townsend, then at Corinne, to come down and ratify the sale. The Townsend House was closed on the last of November. One or two persons were allowed to remain until they could remove conveniently; the office was occupied most of the week taking stock, when the doors were left open until the list of furniture had been completed, when witness ordered the place closed; not to allow any one in, but to allow all to go out.

Here the defense rested, and the plaintiff entered rebutting testimony.

James Townsend was then sworn. Knew the plaintiff, married her at second wife, had no other wife at the time. The first wife died several years after he married the other; in 1855, when she died, he had another wife called Mary Sawyer; first wife was living when he married his plural wife; during the last years of his first wife's life he lived at the Townsend House. Elizabeth Townsend had lived at the Townsend House with witness; both Hooper and Jennings knew this; never represented Elizabeth Townsend as anything but second wife; Mrs. Townsend had occupied $3 as a sleeping room for about six years; a gentleman, who had been in the winter, she has never been out of the possession of that room to witness's knowledge for the last six years; did not visit her much; if a free access to the closing up of the house, when he could not get in; suppose she had free ingress and egress.

After leasing the house to Cunningham, witness staid in the house once or twice, but generally lived at his other house. It is six or seven months since witness stopped with Mrs. T. When witness married his last wife, Elizabeth was opposed to it, and applied to President Young for a bill; was not in the habit of introducing her as wife, and introduced her to guests as Mrs. T. Occupied the rooms as much as she did; both occupied them together, though witness passed every day with Elizabeth wife. Since marrying third wife in 1867, have never cohabited with Elizabeth Townsend, though occupying the same apartment and bed.

Mrs. Townsend's affidavit was then read, she being ill to appear, and both sides rested.

Both the contempt and injunction cases were argued at the same time, and then taken under advisement. The judge will doubtless render a decision at the next sitting in chambers.

Erratum.—In the letter of Llewellyn Harris, in the News of Dec. 24, it is stated that Brother Thayne and company were from Centreville. Brother Harris writes to say that it should read that they were from Little Cottonwood.

Good Music.—The Tenth Ward Bazaar Band was making a Christmas parade, around town, yesterday. It was much appreciated by all who heard it, and the boys played well.
