THE WICKED "MORMONS."

In the western interior of this great nation live a people of horrible proclivities, whose audacity is boundless. Their existence is a standing repreach to this virtuous country. They style themselves Latier-day Saints, but are more generally known as "Mormons."

They belong to a Church claiming to be founded upon and guided by revelation, and established with all the officers, including Apostles, pecultar to the primitive Christian organization. They have the effrontery to teach faith in God, and in a crucified and risen Redeemer; repentance, taptism by immersion for the remission of sins, and the laying on of hands for the imparting of the Holy Ghest. They also believe in a gathering dispensation to the elect in the latter days. Their Elders are rent cut and travel without purse or scrip, as the primitive Christian miniaters did, and they meet with wonderful success, all of which is contrary to the interests of the holy eestarian clergy of all denominations, and they very justly raises howl of desperation and despair. Like the Sadducees, Pharisees, and other righteous men of old, they have been demanding that the obnoxious sect be utterly demolished and wasted away, and no place be found for them any more.

These great-hearted patriols are in the melee, Clayton Wilcox, an This sect everywhere spoken evil agitating the question of getting Englishman, about to locate here, was killed.
