SAD PLIGHT OF IMMIGRANTS.

To Keep Families From Starving, Men Stole From Neighbors Larder.

OPERATED IN RIVERDALE.

Dr. Boone to Lecture in Ogden—Immense Baggage Business—Leavitt-Webb Nuptials—News Briefs.

During the past few days a wholesale stealing and robbing has been going on at Riverdale, Weber county, as a result of which yesterday afternoon Sheriff Bailey and Deputy Robert Shaw placed under arrest two men, one about 40 years of age who gives his name as Belden and another about 27 years of age named Tappan, who will have to answer to the charge.

Tuesday night Robert Shaw, Jr., had his cellar broken open and about 40 bottles of fruit taken; his chicken coop was entered and a dozen chickens killed and a fine fat sheep was slaughtered and taken to the barn yard and the pet dog was shot over the fence. The boldness of the crime aroused the entire neighborhood. Yesterday morning the men under arrest were observed in broad daylight removing the furniture from a house belonging to John M. Helmsdollar, and they were in no way particular who saw them.

The following was reported to the sheriff who with his deputy went out to a small two-roomed house under the hill side at Riverdale, where the men were staying. The men were seen to enter the house and the sheriff and his deputy followed them. The men were seen to enter the house and the sheriff and his deputy followed them. Sadie Stoddard, who will be married next Thursday. The reception will be given in the Union Hotel. Miss Stoddard is the bright and winsome daughter of Mrs. Ada Stoddard, proprietor of the Union Hotel, and Mr. Taylor is one of the progressive young men. After the wedding they will leave for Garland, Utah, where Mr. Taylor is under contract to bore sugar for the Utah Sugar Co.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Mr. Darrow Lott and Miss Della Jacobs, which will occur Nov. 19 in the Opera house. Miss Jacobs is one of our charming young ladies, and Mr. Lott is an enterprising farmer and stock raiser of this place.

HYRUM.
ELECTION HONORS DIVIDED.
Iver A. Krogh and Anna Christensen Answer the Final Summons.

Special Correspondence.
Hyrum, Cache Co., Nov. 4.—The result of yesterday's election is as follows:

Mayor—A. A. Allen, Jr. (Dem.); Councilmen—Geo. W. McBride, (Dem.), Chas. A. Nielsen, (A. G. Nielsen), (Dem.), Wm. W. Allen, (Dem.), Chas. W. Shaw, (Dem.); Marshal, Levi Curtis, (Rep.); recorder, Otto E. Liljenqvist, (Rep.); Treasurer, Emma Hansen, (Dem.); Justice, C. P. Olsen, (Rep.).

Miss Walburg E. Petersen, the Republican nominee for treasurer, withdrew her name 10 days before election, in favor of her friend, Emma Hansen.

DEATH'S HARVEST.
Two more of our number have responded to the call of the Great Reaper.

Iver Andersen Krogh died on the 27th ult., from inflammation of the bowels. Deceased was born May 23, 1833, at Skarsholm, Denmark, and came to Utah in 1877; he was married in 1882; his wife died in 1904; he was married again in 1904; he was married again in 1904; he was married again in 1904.

Anna Dorothea Sorensen Christiansen, wife of Lars Christiansen, died on the 30th ult., of general debility, she having been ailing for several years. She was born Nov. 21, 1859, at Vallingsrod, Holbek Amt, Denmark; embraced the Gospel when young, emigrated with her parents and arrived here in 1874; married in 1882; a husband and three grown children mourn the departure of an industrious, faithful wife and kind mother. One child preceded her to the great beyond.

Anxious Moments.
Some of the most anxious hours of a mother's life are those when the little child is in a chair and shortly afterwards falls over dead. Heart trouble was the cause of her sudden demise. She was aged about 60, and leaves a husband and five grown children. The funeral services will be held Friday.

A Policeman's Testimony.
J. N. Patterson, night policeman of Nashville, Ind., writes: "Last winter I had a bad cold and tried at least a half dozen advertised cough medicines and had treatment from two physicians without getting any better. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and two bottles of it cured me. I consider it the greatest cough and lung medicine in the world." Sold by Johnson-Fratt Drug Co.

SMITHFIELD.
ELECTION RETURNS.
Miss Eva Erickson Dead—Company to Bore for Oil on West Side of Cache.

Special Correspondence.
Smithfield, Cache Co., Nov. 4.—The Republicans of Smithfield elected their county ticket yesterday. Mr. Wm. Pilkington, the Democratic nominee, was elected by a majority of eight.

EVA ERICKSON DEAD.
Eva Fredricka Erickson died Monday morning. She was the daughter of Erick Erickson and Louisa Johnson. She was born at Orebro, Sweden, Jan. 13, 1862. She came to Utah with her parents when only four years of age and has resided in the town and county since. The funeral services were held at the tabernacle yesterday. Elders Samuel Nelson, Geo. Hind, and H. C. Peterson were the speakers. They all gave beautiful eulogies on the life and character of the deceased. The funeral services were held at the tabernacle yesterday.

WEST BORE FOR OIL.
An eastern company has leased a large tract of land between Preston and Cache County for the purpose of boring for oil. It is the intention to spend quite a sum of money in the near future in boring wells. The owners of land to be leased to the company of the petroleum oil is discovered.

POLE'S HONEY AND TAR FOR COUGHS AND COLDS. Reliable, tried and tested, safe and sure. Sold by Johnson-Fratt Drug Co.

LEHI.
HAPPY WEDDING BELLS.
Marriages of the Misses Sadie Stoddard and Della Jacobs.

Special Correspondence.
Lehi, Utah Co., Nov. 6.—Miss Pearl Davis and Miss Lizzie Briggs, who have been conducting a military establishment in Mercur, are visiting friends and relatives here this week.

On Nov. 3 the hayrack of Mr. A. M. Davis was set on fire by a small boy with matches, but through the efforts of the volunteer fire department, the flames were quickly extinguished and very little damage was done.

Thos. Winn will reside in Lehi this winter.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jos. R. Broadbent this week. All well.

Wednesday morning a son was born to the wife of Mr. S. L. Goodwin.

HAPPY WEDDING BELLS.
Invitations are out for the wedding supper of Mr. Ira Taylor and Miss

PRESTON, IDAHO.
POSTOFFICE MOVED.
Many Local Improvements—Stake Conference Educational Lecture.

Special Correspondence.
Preston, Oneida Co., Idaho, Nov. 4.—Our postoffice has been moved. Not many of the patrons of the office were aware that the change would be made until after it was effected. One day not long since, when the people called for their mail, the postman found them confronted by the notice "Postoffice removed to the John C. Greaves & Co. building." The above named company owned the new store with a full line of general merchandise on Monday, Nov. 2.

Two new butcher shops have recently been opened in Preston.

The farmers have gathered nearly all of their sugar beets.

The excavator finished for the new district school building and the rock for the basement story is being hauled
