Sister Hendricks, wife of the late Winchell's Teething Syrup. Sold by Bro. Sol Hendricks, is an aged veteran whose name, with that of her husband, has been interwoven with church history for many years. Bro. S. Hendricks was ever valiant for the truth, both as a teacher of righteousness and a soldier. He was wounded in the battle on Crooked River, where he received among other wounds, a ball in the neck, which paralyzed him for life, insomuch that he had to be nursed like a child until death put an end to his sufferings some ten years since, but his wife surviving him has been a and one that has endeared herself to stand without a rival. all with whom she has been associated. She has been sick for full two years and has not been able to attend a meeting during that time, consequently it was thought wise by our bishop to meet with her last Sabbath. Quite a number of the leading men of the ward and members of the choir met at her house, and after singing and administering the sacrament, she was administered to for her health, with the desire DR. Editor Deseret News:

In answer to Brother George Batt's query in his last New Zealand letter relating to the first missionaries who visited that country, I beg to state that Elders Cook and Farnham were the first missionaries sent by our authorities to that far-off land. They landed in Wellington, N.Z., in 1852. The first persons baptized were Sister Martha Holder and her daughter, Louisa M Clarke, now the wife of Justice Clarke, of this town. While Elders Cook and As you seldom hear from this Farnham stayed in that part of New their headquarters and their home. her son-in-law's farm at Dover, in this Stake.
