OFFICIAL PROGRAM FOR INSTITUTE

State Pedagogues Will Meet at Ogden Early in January.

GREEK ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

Mrs. Murphy Gets $500 Damages for Death of Son—Dennis of Mrs. Hughes.

Ogden, Dec. 20.—The state school teachers' convention next month is going to be the best ever held in Utah, and will be attended by most of the teachers of the state. The railroad companies have made a special rate of one fare for the round trip, excepting the Short Line north of Ogden, on which line the fare will be one and one-third. The rates go into effect Dec. 21, and are good to Jan. 7.

The following excellent program just completed indicates that the pedagogues will have a most instructive as well as a pleasurable time in Ogden. The program follows:

MRS. MURPHY GETS $500. Sued the O. S. L. for the Death of Her Son.

Ogden, Dec. 20.—The jury which tried the $500 damage suit of Mrs. Eliza Murphy against the Oregon Short Line Railroad company after being out several hours returned to the courtroom with a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $500. The case had been on trial in the district court for three days before Judge Howell.

Mrs. Murphy brought the suit to recover damages for the death of her son, who was killed last summer by being knocked from the Oregon Short Line cutoff bridge over Weber river near Thirtieth street.

HE GOT SEVEN YEARS. Herman Frankie, who pleaded guilty to burglary in the first degree was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary. The crime which he was guilty of was that of breaking into the Utah Canning company's office at Uintah, from which he stole several checks; drove back to Ogden; forged the secretary's name to them and secured less than $100 on the same—for which he will serve the long term in prison.

LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION. In the matter of the estate of Samuel E. Jewkes, deceased, petition has been filed by Laura Jewkes, praying for the appointment of Jesse Kemsley as administrator. The estate consists of real and personal property valued at $20,45.

A petition has been filed by Lawrence D. Smyth asking for his appointment as administrator of the estate of S. T. McCane, which is valued at $1,500.

GREEK SHOTS HIMSELF. Ill Health and Despondency Cause of The Act.

Ogden, Dec. 20.—Late last night a young Greek named Tom Mastorakos shot himself three times through the stomach, using a 32-caliber revolver. The deed was done while Mastorakos was in his room, and he gave as his reasons ill health and lack of means. It is thought that he cannot possibly recover. Mastorakos is 22 years old.

VISIT THE DEAF AND DUMB. Members-elect of the Legislature Seeking Information.

Ogden, Dec. 20.—Members of the state legislature yesterday visited the state school for the deaf and dumb in this city, so as to acquaint themselves with the needs of the institution in the way of appropriations for buildings and other improvements. The gentlemen had dinner at the school and inspected every department, and were very pleased with the high grade of work being accomplished both in teaching the inmates book learning as well as manual training and domestic arts. A number of improvements at the school are contemplated if sufficient money is appropriated by the legislature.

MRS. HUGHES DEAD. After Months of Suffering, Death Brought Relief.

Ogden, Dec. 20.—After patiently suffering, and ever hoping to soon recover, for almost three months. Mrs. Florence

Lloyd Hughes last evening closed her eyes in death at 7 o'clock at the family residence, 472 Twenty-fifth street, and though her death brought deep sorrow to the hearts of not a few, yet they were thankful to see her pass peacefully to meet her reward for a well spent life of but 23 years in doing good. She died as she has lived, putting her trust in God and in full faith of a glorious resurrection.

Mrs. Hughes was born at Deweyville, Bolder county, 28 years ago; was the wife of Joseph B. Hughes, a well known street car conductor, who, together with two children and an aged mother, survives her. The immediate cause of death was pneumonia. The time and place of funeral will be announced later.

A HORSE STOLEN. Dr. Conroy Loses a Valuable Animal.

Ogden, Dec. 20.—Dr. E. M. Conroy notified the sheriff last evening that someone had stolen a good bay mare, weighing about 800 pounds from his pasture west of Ogden Monday night. A reward of $25 is offered for the animal. There have been a number of horses stolen in Ogden during the past few weeks and should the thieves be caught they will be severely punished.

BURGLARS AT WORK. A Sporting Goods House and a Grocery Broken Into.

Ogden, Dec. 20.—Some time during last night the Hanson sporting goods store, on Washington avenue, between Twenty-fifth and Twenty-sixth streets, was broken into, and guns, knives, etc., to the value of $50, were carried away.

Thieves also entered Pickett's grocery store, and made away with some groceries and $5 in cash. The police this morning arrested a boy on suspicion of having committed the two burglaries, but they refuse to divulge his name.

Late this forenoon the police gave the name of the boy as Blomark Walther of North Ogden. The lad is only 12 years old, and is supposed to belong to a youthful gang of burglars. Walther confessed to having smashed in the window of the Pickett grocery, thus gaining entrance. He robbed the cash register of $4. It is believed that further confessions will be made.

BRIEFS AND PERSONALS. The state industrial school board held a session yesterday and discussed at length its report to the governor and legislature.

Elmer Rose of Plain City and Miss Laura Wayman of Warren were granted a license to wed.

Miss Hazel Nelsbitt has gone to her home at Oakland, California after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in Ogden.

D. M. Fisk, wife and daughter, have arrived in Ogden to spend the holidays. Miss Francis Burrows left for the east today to spend several weeks.

W. B. Porterfield of this city, has closed a contract to furnish 23 car loads of sewer pipe for Twin Falls.

Nasal CATARRH. Ely's Cream Balm.

In all its stages. Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Drugstore or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents.
