

Couldock's Benefit, we are to be favored with two of his specialties, in the two beautiful, domestic dramas of "Old Phil's Birthday" and the "Porter's Knot." Those who have seen him as Luke Fielding in the "Willow Copse," Joe Spurr, in the "Old Post Boy," or Peter Probit in "The Chimney Corner," can form an idea of the treat that will be given in his Phil. Stapleton and Samson Burr. In each piece he will be sustained by Miss Couldock and a strong cast.

Between the pieces little Miss Olive will appear in a dance, itself an attraction, as this agile little lady is popular as a danseuse.

FROM SANPETE.—Our Special south writes from Moroni, Sanpete. At Fort Ephraim they are repairing the meeting house. The people of Moroni are constructing a large water race to bring the waters of the Sanpitch to their city. The building rock contiguous to that place is of excellent quality, the coal bed only six miles distant, wood within four miles, about 1,000 acres of hay land convenient, 900 acres of tillable land under fence and 500 more that will be taken up this coming season, altogether making Moroni a rising place; and the people have an excellent spirit and good choir. He says the Juvenile Instructor is much sought after. One good saw mill is running at Moroni, and another will soon be within eight miles of it. When going from Gunnison to Manti, he met teams going to the old settlement on the Sevier, to haul the wheat from there which some 50 men have been cutting. The yield is said to be good.

FROM THE EAST.—Elder Wm. H. Crawford, just arrived from the East, called in upon us. He had traveled with Chrisman's train to the Weber, and then pushed ahead. Bro. Crawford left this city last June to visit his relatives in Mississippi and Alabama. He traveled through Tennessee, Mississippi and Alabama, during his absence was kindly received, and found considerable interest manifested concerning Utah when the people found he came from this Territory. He preached several times to large congregations, and had good attention. But he found the people generally much depressed, and in poor circumstances, compared with their condition before the rebellion.

COMMENCED.—Stepping into the Council House to-day we saw Professor Calder, and his assistant, Br. Owenson, training a very large and interesting class in book-keeping. The school commenced yesterday evening. The grammar and geography class commenced this morning, at a different hour from that of the mercantile department.

On Monday evening the theological class met in the City Hall, and addresses were delivered by President B. Young, Elder George A. Smith and President Wells. This class meets on Monday and Friday evenings.

GRADING.—A number of teams have been at work to-day, hauling gravel to improve East Temple street, by raising the centre a foot and grading it to the sides. This improvement some of the merchants have donated a portion of the necessary means for, the City Authorities meeting the rest of the expense. It is one which will be appreciated by the public at large.

ADJOURNED.—The adjourned meeting of the Chancellor and Board of Regents, which was to have been held to-night, is again adjourned until this night week.

OBITUARY.

George Washington Mousley, son of Titus and Ann Mousley, whose demise we briefly chronicled on Monday, was born August 9th, 1825, near Wilmington, Newcastle Co., Delaware. He embraced the gospel when about 17 years of age, and gathered to this valley in Sept., 1857, since which time he has taught a permanent school in the City Academy except a short time he spent on a mission to England. He started on that mission in April, 1864, and returned in Sept., 1866. Before the last General Conference he was taken sick with vomiting and diarrhea, from which he never fully recovered.

He was an assiduous laborer in the cause of truth. Besides teaching a permanent day school, he taught evening classes, and was a most prominent Sunday School teacher in the 16th ward, where he resided. He also acted as a Teacher in the ward, and ever performed the duties of that office with cheerfulness.

During his return journey from his mission to England his life was most providentially preserved. While traveling by rail from Jersey City to visit his relatives in Delaware, the train on which he journeyed, met a terrible accident. The man immediately before him at the time of the accident, and with whom he was conversing, having arisen to his feet, had his head taken off, and the man close behind him was smashed to pieces; while he escaped with being somewhat crushed, and a bottle of consecrated oil in his valise beside him was unbroken.

His funeral obsequies were conducted by Elder W. Woodruff, Bishop F. Kesler and Elder R. L. Campbell assisting, and his remains were borne to the cemetery yesterday afternoon, followed by a numerous body of friends.

Died.

At her home in the 12th Ward, G. S. L. City, on Sunday, Oct. 6th, 1867, NANCY MARANDA, wife of Wm. F. Cahoon, and daughter of Aaron and Prudence Gibbs.

Decedent was born in Rutland County, Vermont, July 27th, 1818. She was baptized under the hands of Jared Carter in the fall of 1831; moved to Kirtland with her mother, Prudence Gibbs, widow, in the fall of 1833; was married to Wm. F. Cahoon, by Joseph Smith, the Prophet, in Kirtland, January 17th, 1838, at the age of 18; was one of the first couples ever published in the congregation of the Saints for matrimony. In the spring of 1838, was driven from Kirtland by the persecutions which the Saints endured, to Far West; remained in that city till the next fall; then went to Adam-on-diahman, and from there, in the dead of the same winter, was driven by the hands of the mobbers to Illinois, and from Nauvoo to the mountains. She never listened to the voice of the stranger, but has followed the true shepherd; she was always to be found in the midst of the Saints, a cheerful partaker in all their tribulations, privations and persecutions; and was always a true friend to her companion and children, full of integrity to the truth. She kept the faith and died in the hope of a glorious resurrection. At her death she was the mother of eleven children and eleven grand-children.—(Com.)

Every Certificate will be numbered, and as only 5,000 will be issued, every purchaser will know by the number of his Certificate how the Enterprise is progressing.

It is to be understood that there is no limit to the number of Certificates to be issued to any one purchaser, thus offering to all the opportunity of getting as many shares or chances in the drawing as they choose; the only condition being that Ten Dollars' worth of Goods is to be purchased for each share.

The advantages to be derived by this Enterprise are so apparent that it is confidently expected that all the Certificates will be secured by April, 1868.

It must be evident to all that this is not a Lottery, nor an ordinary Gift Enterprise, for the reason that our Customers get such Goods as they choose, at the Lowest Market Rates, obtaining the full value of their money at the time of purchasing, with the chance of drawing a Handsome Prize in the bargain. Our compensation arising from the greater quantity of Goods sold within a given period.

Disinterested men well established in the confidence of the people will be secured to conduct the drawing, which will be done on a perfectly equitable plan.

Ample notice will be given in the newspapers of the time and mode of drawing.

Finally, we pledge ourselves to faithfully fulfill all the above named conditions.

Goods on the above named favorable terms can be obtained at
