MCCORNICK & Co. to-day received two cars Hanauer ore, value $5,615.

MISS FREE, of this city, will leave for Rush Hill, Mo., to-morrow, via the D. & R. G.

F. W. ANDERSON, indicted for assault with intent to commit rape, is to be tried on Nov. 2d.

LARGE numbers of coal miners are flocking to the coal mines at Pleasant Valley on the D. & R. G. W.

SILVER quotations, corrected daily by Wells Fargo & Co.: New York, 1.03 1-2; London, 47 9-16d.

WELLS, FARGO & Co. to-day received one shipment Ontario bullion, value, $28,622; one lot quartz ore, value, $975; total, $29,597.

RECEIVER W. H. BANCROFT, who has been spending some time in San Francisco, on business connected with the narrow gauge, will return to this city to-morrow.

THE grand jury came into court this afternoon and reported four indictments, two under Territorial and two under United States laws, the latter being against John Penman.

BROTHER ANDREW JENSEN, editor of the Bikuben, who, since he went north to attend Conference at Logan, has been on a business trip throughout Cache Co., returned home yesterday.

LOST, yesterday afternoon, in the southwestern part of the city, or between it and Main Street, a lady's shawl. The finder will oblige by sending it to this office or to 864 First South Street.

BROTHER ROBERT AVRSON has commenced teaching another Preceptor class, consisting of ten young men—a labor in which he has heretofore manifested commendable zeal and public spiritedness.

JACK TAYLOR, under indictment for grand larceny, was brought in from the penitentiary to-day. His counsel asked time to procure the affidavits of witnesses in Leadville, and the case was postponed.

By special request of several theatregoers, "Called Back" will be repeated at the matinee in the Theatre to-morrow afternoon, commencing at 2 o'clock. Admission for this occasion will be 50 and 25 cents, reserved seats 75 cents.

LOCAL NEWS.

Oneida Stake.—President W. D. Hendricks requests us to announce that the Oneida Stake Conference will be held at Oxford on the 24th and 25th of the present month.

Grand Larceny.—This afternoon Edward Egan, indicted for grand larceny, was arraigned in the Third District Court. He is charged with having stolen, on the 5th of April last, a bay horse from P. H. Dowell, of Park City. A plea of not guilty was made, and bail fixed at $500.

Divorced.—This morning a decree of divorce was granted to Mary Swain, from Robert Swain. The applicant was placed on the stand and testified that she had not lived with her husband during the last five years, and that he had lived with two other wives. The record of the court that Mr. Swain had pleaded guilty to unlawful cohabitation, was also introduced in evidence.

Another Arraignment.—This morning Robert Morris, of the Eleventh Ward, came into court to plead to an indictment found by the present grand jury, charging him with unlawfully cohabitating with his wives, Janet Morris and Josephine Higham, contrary to the Edmunds law. The indictment was read, and a plea of not guilty entered.

Connubial.—We extend our congratulations to our young friends Brother Leo H. Clawson and his fair young bride who was formerly Miss Lizzie S. Watson, daughter of Brother Robert S. Watson, of Z. C. M. I., on the favorable auspices under which they start out upon their matrimonial career. They were united in holy bonds at the Logan Temple yesterday, and a reception will be held at the residence of the bride's parents this evening.

A Defender Defeated.—To-day, near Goebe's corner on First South street, as a lady and gentleman were conversing together, an inebriated soldier who was pursuing his tortuous path along the sidewalk put himself between the couple, took hold of them by the shoulder, and pushed them violently back. The gentleman shook off the intruder's hand, then grasped him vigorously and sent him flying to the earth; the soldier was then picked up and marched off to the City Hall in triumph.

Burglary.—Sometime between 2 and 6 o'clock this morning, the saloon of Williams & Garner, in the Wasatch block, was visited by thieves, who effected an entrance by breaking a pane of glass out of a back window. A couple of bottles of liquor, a box of cigars, a dozen of silver spoons and a small amount of loose cash was taken. The burglars were arrested by the police this afternoon, and all of the stolen property recovered. Charles Beardsley, W. F. Martin and J. W. Brown are the names of the thieves.

Mammoth Potatoes.—Bishop Wm. Thorn, of the Seventh Ward, is the champion potato raiser. He brought a few sample tubers to our office this morning, of the "Mammoth Pearl" variety, that are equal to any we ever saw in size and appearance, and we understand they are also excellent in point of flavor when cooked. They are not only very large, but very solid, a single potato weighing as much as four pounds. They also keep well, being quite firm in the spring, when most other varieties are soft. Such potatoes are very cheap at forty cents per bushel, the price at which they are now being sold.

Cattle Company.—There was filed in the office of the Secretary of the Territory, yesterday, a copy of the articles of incorporation of the Ryan & Ream Cattle Company, organized under the laws of Illinois, March 17, 1885. The principal office of the company is at Chicago, and the object is the purchasing, raising, herding and sale of cattle, in the State of Illinois and the Territory of Utah, and elsewhere in the western States and Territories, and the leasing of lands, springs, ranges and ranches, for the purpose of raising and herding cattle. The capital stock is $300,000, divided into 3,000 shares. The following are the directors of the company: Norman B. Ream, Dennis Ryan, Henry H. Carr, H. O. Mattle and Patrick Ryan.

JOHN PENMAN.

IS CAPTURED AND INDICTED FOR POLYGAMY AND UNLAWFUL COHABITATION.

The readers of the NEWS will remember that on the 28d of July last, John Penman was arrested at Bountiful, on the charge of polygamy. While being brought to this city he made his escape from the deputies at a point near the Hot Springs. Yesterday afternoon, as Deputy Marshal Greenman was coming toward this city from Park City, he met Mr. Penman and his nine-year old son just above Hardy's, in Parley's Canon. Capt. Greenman took Penman into custody and brought him along with him, the boy continuing on his way to the Half-way House. On reaching the penitentiary the officer left Mr. Penman there, where he remained over night, and came on to summon the witnesses in the case. These were instructed to come before the grand jury to-day, and that body found two indictments against the defendant, one for polygamy and one for unlawful cohabitation.

This afternoon the defendant was arraigned, and entered a plea of not guilty to the charges. Bail was fixed at $2,500 for both counts, but at the request of Mr. Kirkpatrick, in consideration of the defendant being a poor man, it was reduced to $1,200 on the polygamy count and $700 for cohabitation. One of the witnesses, Mary Ellen Hutchins, the alleged plural wife, was placed under $700 bonds to appear and testify at the trial.

Dismissed.—In the Third District Court this morning, at the request of defendant's counsel, the case of the People vs. Robert Weston was dismissed, as the prosecution had no testimony to offer in addition to that adduced at the first trial, when the jury rendered a verdict of guilty as charged, which was set aside and a motion for new trial granted.

The turning loose of this class of criminals on the community by the courts is becoming so common as to excite but little comment. A few days ago the charge against Robert Lowrie, for enticing two girls from their homes and placing them in a house of prostitution, was "dismissed." Lowrie was then held under an indictment for arson in setting a certain part of the penitentiary on fire. The evidence showed that the fire was not started at the particular spot described in the indictment, but in another building, so the jury were instructed to find a verdict of not guilty, and Lowrie was allowed to go at liberty to continue his vile practices.

In another class of offenses against the law, where no crime was committed, the prosecution asked and obtained of a packed jury a verdict of guilty because they thought the circumstances required "an explanation on the part of the defendant," and the defendant did not give it. The Court inflicted the full penalty of the law because of this failure of the accused to assume the burden of proof and "explain." In the case disposed of this morning it was shown by the evidence that the fellow Weston, a wretched, dirty-looking tramp, succeeded in enticing a little girl—almost a babe—four years of age, from Second South Street, on her way to the kindergarten, and leading her up Commercial Street, into an alley and around behind some buildings to a privy, which they entered. Here the scoundrel was interrupted in the act of disarranging the child's clothing—at the same time trying to hush her sobs by promises of candy—by those who had noticed his actions and suspected that something was wrong. Yet in the face of all this, no punishment is meted out to the offender, the conclusive circumstances not even requiring an "explanation" on his part!

Such "justice" as this is sufficient almost to impel fathers to inflict summary vengeance on villains who make such dastardly attempts on their innocent children, and while all right-feeling persons must deplore a disposition among the people to take the law into their own hands, it must be admitted that such outrages on society as the turning loose of these two unpunished and impenitent fiends incarnate would go a long way towards palliating it.

From Coalville.—We received a visit to-day from Brothers J. Alma and Willard F. Smith, of Coalville, who arrived in the city last evening.

We learn from them that a young man of Coalville by the name of Edward H. Rees, who recently emigrated from Wales, was accidentally killed on the 12th inst., by the caving of a large quantity of rock from the roof of the coal mine in which he was engaged. The accident occurred in the presence of his father, who has since been almost wild with grief at his untimely death. Deceased was a very steady, industrious young man. His mother was dead and his father has only one remaining child—a son, to comfort him in his declining years.

There has been somewhat of a revival in the coal trade in that region of late. The Home Coal Co., has been required to furnish 200 tons per week more than usual, which gives employment to a number of additional workmen. Some difficulty has been experienced in securing sufficient cars to ship the coal to Echo, but it is expected that this will be remedied in the future.

Better crops have been raised in the settlements of Summit County the present season than for many years, and the grangers of that region feel correspondingly encouraged.

The Theatre.—The largest audience for a long time assembled in the Theatre last evening; standing room was in demand in the parquette, and the upper portions of the house were comfortably filled. The piece presented was a dramatization of Hugh Conway's famous novel "Called Back." There are two or three stage versions extant, but none of them we think, are superior even if they are equal to the one presented last evening, it being the work of the chief actor, Mr. Joseph R. Grismer. He and Miss Davies were in charge of the portrayal of the hero and heroine, and right skillfully was the task performed; many of the scenes, notably that at the end of the third act where the vision of the murder is shown, were most powerfully rendered and the applause was deafening. The support is uniformly good throughout, and the Baldwin Company may be considered a success in Salt Lake.

To-night they appear in the "Wages of Sin;" to-morrow afternoon, by special request, "Called Back" will be repeated; and in the evening "The Veterans" takes the boards, which concludes the engagement.

Narrow Escape.—This morning a young lady and an infant were seated in a buggy which had been driven up to a hitching post near the Emporium corner. The horse commenced backing just as another buggy was going down the street, and the wheel of the latter struck the former, overturning it. The lady and child were quickly rescued from their uncomfortable position, and though considerably frightened they were fortunately unhurt, and the vehicle but slightly damaged.

Prolific Yield.—Brother Charles Odd, a resident of the Seventeenth Ward, brought to our office this morning a bunch of wheat, the product of one grain, which consisted of 125 stalks, each of which bore a head of grain. A few of these heads were counted and found to average 46 kernels each, which would give a total of 5,750—all from one grain. It appeared to be of the ordinary taos variety.

He also brought samples of his second and third crop of potatoes raised this season, and assures us that he contrives by planting at different periods throughout the season to have new potatoes continuously from the latter end of May to the middle of October.

The Base Ball Contests.—The Idaho team arrived in Salt Lake yesterday evening, and were around town to-day, taking in the sights. At 2 o'clock this afternoon, the contestants met on the diamond at Washington Square and played the first game of the series, which was not concluded when we went to press.

Following are the names and positions of the respective nines:

Idaho.		Salt Lake.
Dooley	Pitcher	West
Jaeson	Catcher	Barlow
Margetis	First Base	Larsen
Moore	Second Base	A. D. Burt
Root	Third Base	Beatie
Swift	Short Stop	Barker
Fuller	Right Field	Grosseck
Tibbets	Centre Field	Golding

Court Proceedings.—In the Third District Court to-day, in the case of Laura A. Crocker, administratrix, vs. Isabella Brunker; judgment was given for defendant, who pays the amount of debt and ten per cent. interest.

Amos K. Smith vs. Samuel Hanak et al; judgment for plaintiff.

The United States vs. Robert Morris; unlawful cohabitation; plea of not guilty.

Mary Swain vs. Robert Swain; proceedings for divorce; court finds for plaintiff.

The People vs. Robert Weston; attempt to commit rape; dismissed.

J. M. Kennedy vs. Wm. H. Pierce; judgment for plaintiff.

Frank Foote vs. Kansas City Smelting and Refining Company; the Court gives its opinion that the plaintiff cannot recover, and judgment is entered accordingly.

U. S. vs. John Penman; polygamy and unlawful cohabitation; plea of not guilty entered.

The People vs. Ed. Egan; grand larceny; plea of not guilty.

The "Contributor" Building.—The old building recently occupied by R. W. Madsen's furniture store has been thoroughly repaired, repainted and fitted up for offices in first class style. The ground on which it stands was purchased by Messrs. H. J. Grant and Junius F. Wells, who have moved their insurance office and the Contributor office into their new premises. A visit to their new quarters reveals what a little energy combined with good taste can do to metamorphose an old furniture store into an imposing suite of offices. In the rear of the building, which is 90 feet long, a spacious office has been partitioned off by a handsome railing and is occupied by the Insurance business on one side and the Contributor on the other. It is nicely carpeted and presents the appearance of being as comfortable as an office can well be made. From it in the rear opens a cosy little private office and library and a store room. In the front part of the building four offices have been railed off, which are designed for rent. They are sufficiently commodious for most purposes and being on the ground flour in such an excellent location ought not long to remain vacant.

We can but commend the enterprise of young men who have interest enough in their business and the commercial prosperity of the city to locate themselves permanently, and we wish Messrs. Grant & Wells every success.

Carelessness of Street-car Drivers.—A resident of the Tenth Ward complains to us of the carelessness of the street-car drivers, and relates as an instance of it that his wife and twelve-year old daughter, while making their way to the terminus of the Eleventh Ward track a few days since, for the purpose of there boarding the car to come to the central part of town, discovered that they were late, and ran a distance of one block, but when within twelve feet of the car the driver started his team. By dint of great exertion the lady managed to overtake the car and scramble on to the platform, but the little girl was not so fortunate. She seized hold of the car, but it was going too fast for her to climb on, and before she succeeded in doing so she was dragged some distance and was rather severely injured. Even then the driver did not stop his team nor apologize, but simply smiled at their discomfiture.

Another gentleman informed us a few days since of a case of carelessness on the part of a street car driver that he considered culpable in the extreme. A lady with an infant in her arms hailed a passing car, but instead of the driver waiting for to get seated he started his animals just as she stepped upon the platform, throwing her over backwards upon the ground.

We feel perfectly sure that the management of the company would not countenance such carelessness, and we publish these complaints as a warning to the drivers against a continuance of it; and if they fail to heed the warning we shall not blame the complaining parties if they report the names of the careless drivers to the superintendent and secure their discharge.

The Arizona Indian troubles are unabated. Both sides are in the field and on the alert constantly.

A post mortem examination at San Francisco shows that Charles Clayton died from congestion of the brain. This sets at rest the rumor that, owing to financial troubles, he had committed suicide.

Mexico is having a serious time with floods. Passengers and mails on the Central railway are detained. The bridge at Laredo has been carried away, and passengers and mails are being transferred in boats. There can be no permanent improvement till it stops raining in the interior. The rains in Mexico city have several times within a week flooded the streets, making travel, except in cabs, impossible. The low lands about that city and near Guadaluoe are flooded. The loss to farmers in the flooded districts in the interior will be heavy. A number of lives have been lost in the valleys by bursting reservoirs.
